Veterans Day, November 11

On November 11, the Donegal High School Dramatics Club will present its annual Veterans' Day Program. The first part of the program which is entitled "Voices of Liberty" is a tribute to great Americans. Claudia Brandt will portray Betsy Ross. Also included will be Kevin Milligan as Abraham Lincoln, Steven Hassinger as President John F. Kennedy, and Jane Youtz as Mrs. Bixby.

The second part of the program is an original play written by Dramatics Club President, Jane Youtz, entitled "The Trilogy of Freedom." The play is divided into three parts: The Foundation of Freedom, The Defense of Freedom, and The Preservation of Freedom. Those who will participate are: Ted Hershey, Cindy Charles, Phil Good, Dalene Hummel, Greta Weidner, Thomas McCoy, Patrick Kenney, Sharon Aurick, Michael Kohler, Janice Rogers, and Jim Johnson.

The D.H.S. Chorus will present the tunes "This is My Country" and "O, Columbia the Gem of the Ocean." Also, the Rhythm Singers and the D.H.S. Band will perform.

Invited as guests for the program are: Active military recruiters, Parents and community members who have served as career military personnel (20 years or more), and Representatives of local American Legion and V.F.W. Posts.

There is an open invitation to all Senior Citizens of Donegal High School Area to attend. The program is scheduled to begin at 10:00 a.m., but visitors should be seated by 9:45 a.m. There will be a reserved section for the Senior Citizens.

Business Education Career Day

The following students have attended the Business Education Career Day activities at Shippensburg State College on Thursday, October 30th. Those students that attended were Fran Barton, Deb Bender, Sue Miller, Michele Maurer, and Diane Waltz.

Behind the Scenes

by Melody Mumma

Wayne Erdman is featured in this week's edition of Behind-The-Scenes. A senior in the business course, Wayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Erdman. Wayne was a member of Ecology Club in ninth grade Set and Design Committee for the Junior Class Play. This year, Wayne is a typist for the newspaper. An art major, Wayne recently won a prize in an Energy Conservation poster contest. He plans to pursue a career in commercial art.

Coach Iezzi

Teacher of the month

by Nanette Pinto

"Mama mia!" Italy's favorite son, Donegal's one and only, Mr. Dennis Iezzi is November's teacher of the month.

Mr. Iezzi graduated from Daniel Boone High School where he was a member of their winning football team. Coach Iezzi is an alumnus of Albright College, where he was president of his fraternity and honored as most valuable football player. He received a B.S. in Social Science and is doing graduate work at Millersville. At Donegal, Mr. Iezzi is assistant football coach, assistant varsity wrestling coach, and advisor for the weightlifting club. He also enlightens our days teaching Sociology and World Cultures.

Mr. Iezzi resides in Marietta with his wife, Emily. He is a member of Saint Mary's Catholic Church in Marietta.

Needless to say, he is justly proud of his Italian heritage as he often infers from time to time in world cultures class.

"Avanti con buon Lavoro" Signor Iezzi!

Haiku poetry at Maytown

The following are examples of haiku, written by Mrs. White's sixth grade class at Maytown Elementary School.

Haiku is a kind of Japanese poetry containing 17 syllables and using words that call up memories or feelings.

Billowy clouds fly
Through a field of soft light blue,
Still and wondrous.
-Edward Hess

Black cricket chirping,
Large cat prowling by, listening,
And me standing by.
-Carol Saylor

Flying in the sky,
The bees are dancing happy
And gay, without me.
-Raymond Shifflett

Growing tall, pointing
At the morning skies, standing
Patiently, silent.
-Russell Waite

Student council meets

by Donna Germer

The Donegal Student Council held a meeting on October 23rd. John Monchak presided over the meeting. The following are a few of the events our student council is sponsoring: The York High School has asked us to participate in an exchange program with 5 of our seniors; Jim Byrd, Karen Greider, Chuck Simmons, Carol Brubaker, and Lesetta Mummau will travel to York and spend November 5-7 in the York School District, while 7 of York's students will spend November 2-4 at our school. On November 5th, York will sponsor a party for the Student Council;

Because of the successful Homecoming dance, another one will be held on November 1, featuring the band, Nickel Plate Road. Nickel Plate Road will entertain you from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. Tickets are available from any student council member at the cost of $1.00.

Help make this dance a success!

The idea of setting up a smoking area on a trail basis was brought up. Student Council was not in favor of this but agreed to circulate a petition to get the overall view of the student body.

Band collects box-top labels

The Donegal High School Band needs two souses-phones. In order to raise money to purchase them, the Band is collecting labels and boxtops from Colgate-Palmolive products. These labels will be sent to the Colgate-Palmolive Company and in return the company will send to the Band anywhere from 2 cents to 40 cents for each label or boxtop sent in.

How can you help the Band? Save the containers and boxes from the following products: Ajax All-Purpose Cleaner, Ajax Cleanser, Ajax for Dishes, Handi-Wipes, Baggies, Palmolive Dishwater Detergent, Irish Spring Soap, Cold Power Laundry Detergent, Curad Plastic Bandages, Dynamo Laundry Detergent, Axion Laundry Pre-Soak, Detergent Booster, and Wash 'N' Dry.

Please give these containers and boxes to any band member. This program continues until June 1, 1976.

Your support will be appreciated.

Parents' Night November 18

by Wendy Hawn
Lynda Gestewitz

On Tuesday evening, November 18th, Parents Night will be held at Donegal High School from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Highlights of the Veterans Day Program will be offered in the auditorium by the Dramatics Club. We hope that many parents will attend. After the program, teachers will be in their respective classrooms till 9:00 p.m. for those parents wishing to speak with them.

Students in county chorus

by Mary Kanoff

On October 11, after auditions at Penn Manor High School, ten DHS students were chosen to participate in the Lancaster-Lebanon County Chorus Festival to be held at Penn Manor High School early next year.

Special congratulations go to Mike Kohler for placing first in his voice section.
