Ex-POW to speak at DHS

Ex-POW Colonel Benjamin H. Purcell was the guest at the Veterans Day assembly at Donegal High School on Tuesday.

Colonel Purcell was held prisoner of war by the North Vietnamese for more than five years. All but five months of that time was in solitary confinement, without the companionship of or contact with other prisoners of war.

The infantryman was captured on February 8, 1968 following a helicopter crash in Quang Tri Province. At the time he was serving as deputy commander of the Danang Subarea Command and executive officer of the 80th General Support Group in Vietnam.

During his incarceration Colonel Purcell twice escaped and, in spite of his captors' predictable treatment after such actions, he was planning a third escape when the announcement of the release of prisoners of war was made.

DID YOU HEAR....

Pat Abel, who owns the Mack Brewery (and sells old & new country wares & antiques), is looking for old photos or drawings of the building to use for exhibit during the Marietta Restoration Tour of his shop next month. The building at 139 E. Market Street, Marietta, was also known as the old garment factory, and the bowling alley. Pat would like to borrow photos. He promises to return them promptly after the tour. Please call Pat at 426-1458, or Mary at 426-3149.

If you like the idea of having your cake and eating it too, the new 2.0-liter Porsche 914 should be very appealing.

Not only does this superbly engineered sports car get an incredible 29 miles to the gallon, but if you figure in the fuel tank capacity (16.4 gallons) you could conceivably travel from New York to Washington and back on one tank of gas!

All this economy while you're driving in style in one of the finest handling cars ever designed.

With its mid-engine balance and rack-and-pinion steering, the Porsche 914 is renowned for its cornering ability and for hugging the road.

And with the big fuel-injected 2.0-liter engine (that Porsche engineers specially developed),

The coupled to a 5-speed gearbox, even 50 miles an hour can't take the fun out of driving.

29 mpg

So if you've been thinking the Porsche 914 is the right car at the wrong time, think again.
