DHS at social studies workshop

The Social Studies department of Donegal School District participated with other school districts in a workshop sponsored by the Lancaster-Lebanon Council for Social Studies, Monday, November 10, at the Centerville Junior High School.

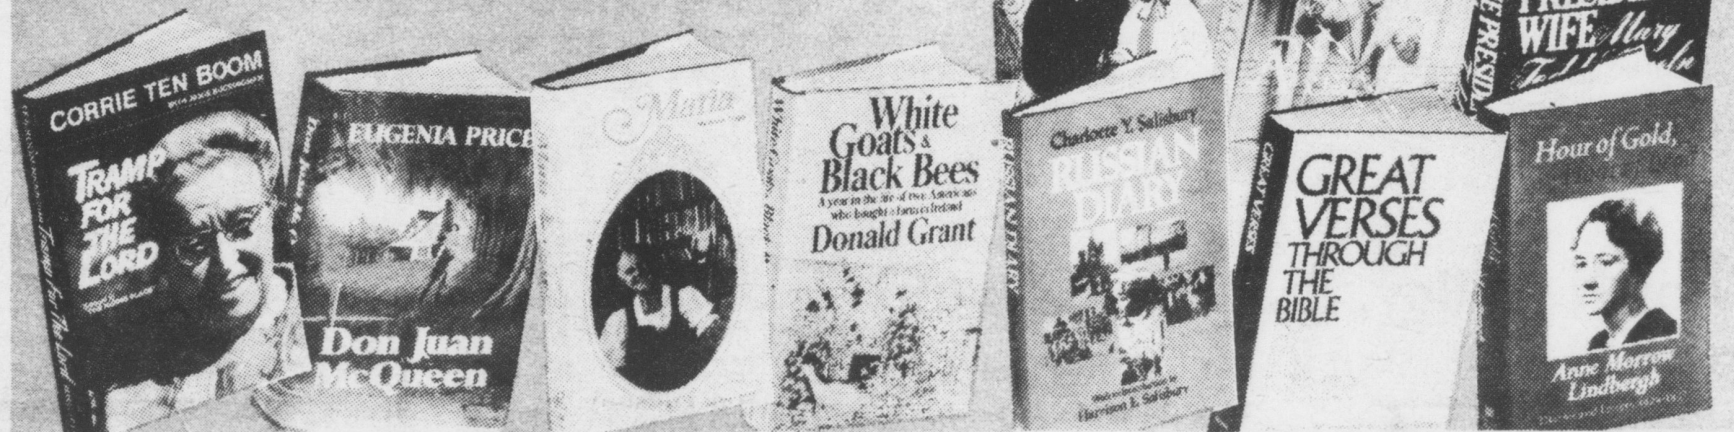

Dr. Robert Schell, Department of Education was the keynoter at the 8:45 a.m.

general session as he talked on "The Current Trends of Social Studies in Pennsylvania."

Next was an exhibition presented by Captain James Ross' Rifle Company on the Centerville campus.

Jack Loose, Donegal, conducted a meeting on, "Government and Law Related Courses."
