

From left to right: Loren Nedrow, William Wells and Mack Rupard

Wells has been with NCR 25 years

William Wells, Manager of the Order Entry Dept. at NCR Corporation's Mount Joy plant, has completed 25 year's service with that company.

In recognition of his long pin and a certificate from NCR chairman and president William Anderson.

Mr. Wells joined the firm in 1950. He started as a clerk in the Dayton, Ohio office. In 1959, he was transferred to Washington Courthouse, Ohio, where he was promoted to a staff position.

In 1970, he moved here to manage the Order Entry Dept.

Ray N. Wiley, Sr. honored with award for work in insurance

Ray N. Wiley, Sr. of Ray N. Wiley Agency, Inc., Mount Joy, Pa. whose personal production of property and casualty insurance has qualified him as an outstanding sales executive for six years, has been awarded the "Life" designation by the Insurance Fire Mark Society. It is the highest honor the national organization of insurance producers can bestow on its members.

His achievement will be recognized officially during special ceremonies being held at the 44th Annual Convention of the parent National Association of Mutual Insurance Agents (NAMIA) in Las Vegas, Nev., this week.

NAMIA is an organization of more than 23,000 independent agents across the country who sell primarily property and casualty insurance.

Gene Murphy graduates

An official at Sheppard AFB, Tex., has announced the graduation of Air National Guard (ANG) Airman Gene G. Murphy of Mount Joy, Pa., from the U. S. Air Force's aircraft mechanic course conducted by the Air Training Command.

Airman Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Murphy of 314 Chocolate Avenue, Mount Joy, was trained to maintain, repair, and service aircraft currently in use by the Air Force. He is returning to his Pennsylvania ANG unit at Middletown.

The airman is a 1974 graduate of Donegal High School.

Thos. Fultz back from sea

Navy Seaman Thomas D. Fultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill C. Fultz of 174 Farm Lane, Landisville, Pa., has returned to Norfolk, Va., aboard the frigate USS McCandless after a six-month deployment to the Mediterranean.

During the cruise he and his shipmates participated in a variety of training exercises with the U.S. Sixth Fleet, and visited ports in Italy, Spain, and Tunisia.

A graduate of Hempfield High School, Landisville, he joined the Navy in September 1973.
