

Harold L. Snyder
R. D. 2
Mount Joy, Pa.

SUSQUEHANNA BULLETIN

Susquehanna Times & The Mount Joy Bulletin.

MARIETTA & MOUNT JOY, PA.

Vol. 75 No. 45 November 19, 1975

Ten Cents

These brave men volunteered to run the onion slicer when the DHS Band members and parents made 1700 hoagies. From left to right are; Floyd Runkle, Eric Gotwalt and Dean Zimmerman. Onion fumes were getting thick when this picture was taken.

Band, parents make 1700 hoagies

by Hazel Baker

Members of the Donegal Band and Band Parents club joined forces last Saturday morning in making approximately 1,700 hoagies.

Profits from the sale will be divided 50-50 between students and the club.

Starting at 6 a.m., Mrs.

Paul Hay, chairperson, arranged for the vegetables to be cut and sliced by early arrivals. By 7:30 a.m., the production lines were formed and the products were being turned out at an accelerated rate.

Tomatoes, onions, and lettuce sliced by hand and by machine are the basic ingredients. Buns, two kinds of meats, and seasoning complete the savory parcel—with the exception of those special orders which request none of this or some of that.

By 10 a.m., all hoagies had been manufactured.

Timmy Sadler and Sharon Way, students of month at Riverview

The Students of the Month for November at Riverview Elementary School are Timmy Sadler and Sharon Way.

Both are third graders in

Mrs. Mason's class.

Sharon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Way of E. Market St., Marietta, is very kind and polite. She says 'please, thank you, and excuse me', shares her jump rope, and doesn't talk when others are talking.

She wears clean clothes to school every day, works quietly in class, and doesn't run in the halls or fight in the playground. She is honest, and helps classmates with their work.

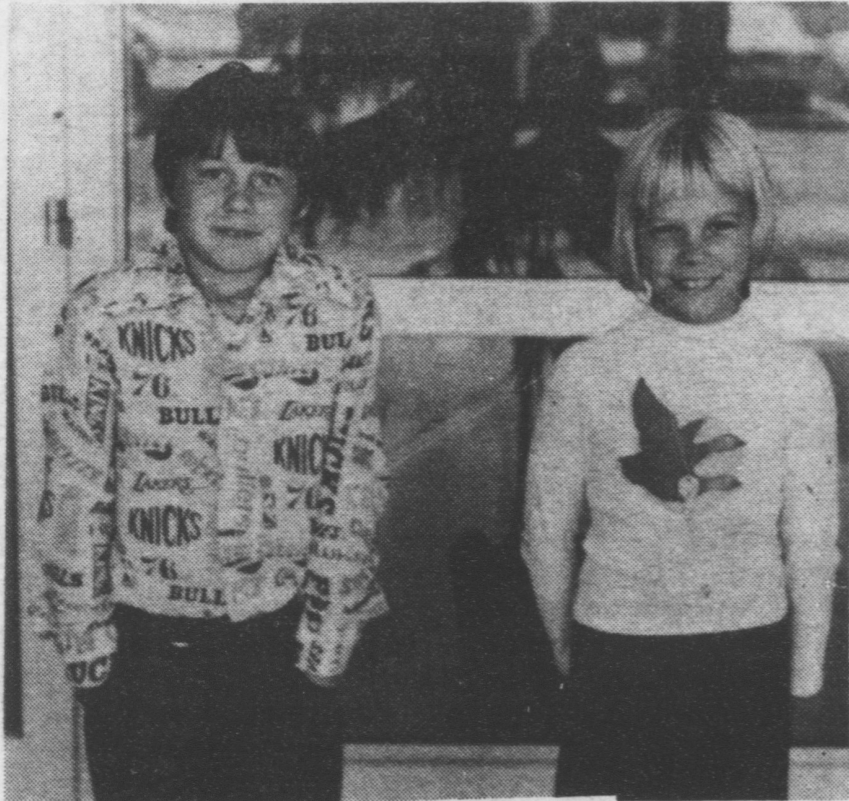

She goes to church every Sunday, cleans her room at home and feeds the dog.

Timmy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sadler of E. Market St., Marietta, never fights in school. In fact, he breaks up fights.

Timmy takes his outs in kickball, doesn't talk back to teachers, and never crosses streets without a patrolman.

He has lots of friends, goes bowling every weekend and helps fold the flag in Cub Scouts.

At home, he cleans his room twice a week, takes out the garbage, and feeds the dog.

Timmy Sadler and Sharon Way

Marietta Flood-Relief money returned; some donated to Pioneer Fire and Marietta J-Cs

The Lancaster County Court recently ruled on how to dispose of remaining money in the Marietta Flood Relief Fund, contributed by volunteers in 1972 after Agnes struck.

The money was returned to organizations upon request and of the remainder, $3,000—$2,000 was given to the Pioneer Fire Company, and $1,000 to the Marietta Jaycees.

Boro Council increased zoning ordinance hearing fees from $20 to $40.

Zoning officer Harol McElroy submitted his resignation as of December 9.

A special meeting will be held on November 24 to interpret a proposed cable TV contract.

Ten arrest for speeding were made since new speed limits have been enforced.

Dwelling unit inspections have been completed, except for 51 non-complying units. Council collected $2,000 from inspection fees, cost of inspecting was $838.

Draft of the proposed budget for 1976 will be presented at the December 9 meeting.

Mt. Joy Twp. residents reject recreation plan

Supervisors received a petition signed by more than 100 residents of Mount Joy Township asking them to reconsider a decision to fund a recreation program in the Elizabethtown School District section of the township.

Supervisors may hold a public meeting on the issue.

Cost of the program would be about $1 per person living in the E'town School district of the township.

Residents of the township who send their children to Donegal schools could utilize the recreational program without having to pay for it. Costs would be paid.

Charlie Bailey, Jr., chairman of the township sewer authority told the supervisors that no decision had been made on residents' fees for a hookup, despite "misleading" reports about such a decision. The authority is still considering various plans for financing the project.

The supervisors expressed their opposition to a bill before the State Legislature that would permit the Department of Environmental Resources to regulate flood plain areas. They believe regulation of flood plains should be left to local governments.

Restoration Associates plan Xmas bazaar of traditional decorations

Eloise Aurand (left) and Elaine Baum (right) at work on straw wreaths.

Members of the Christmas by Candlelight committee of the Marietta Restoration Associates will sell a variety of old-fashioned Christmas decorations at a bazaar on December 7.

Rustic straw wreaths will be sold. Wreaths are trimmed with red birds, calico, gingham, wheat, apples, and ribbons.

Other bazaar items offered for sale at the Restoration's project will be bread dough Santa figures, tree ornaments, calico fruit both red and yellow, decorated bread loaves, hand made mittens, plaques, and baked goods. The public is invited to inspect the sale articles.

Committee members are Elaine Baum, Eloise Aurand, Mrs. J. H. Brown, and Mrs. Robert Lombard.

The bazaar will be held from 2 to 8 p.m. at the Sultzbach house, Waterford Avenue, Marietta.