'Toys for Tots' to be collected

by Elaine M. Kuhn

The NCR Plant located on Route 230 east of Mount Joy has volunteered its service as a collection point for the Boys' Club "Toys for Tots" program during the holiday season. New toys or used toys in good condition may be dropped off at the reception desk between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday thru Friday, or call 653-1801 for pick-up. Deadline for collection of toys is December 8th.

Employees, families enjoy G.C. Murphy 'Open House'

G. C. Murphy Co. 12-14 West Main Street, Mount Joy, played host to employees and their families, Monday evening, November 10, 1975 during its annual Open House Party. The event was planned by Helen Weaver, Assistant Manager Edith Etsell, Web Garber, Margaret Craul, and Gerald Alleman, Store Manager.

The Open House Party gave employees an opportunity to share in holiday activities and to meet the families of their co-workers.

The local store was decorated in typical Christmas fashion. Refreshments were served and drawings for door prizes took place. The winners were: Pat Alleman, Dolly Maxwell, and Vicky Range.

Groups of people from tiny tots to their grand parents attended the event

Parents without Partners to hear talk about hypnosis

Parents Without Partners will meet at 7:45 p.m. Friday, November 21 at the social hall of the Grace Lutheran Church, James and N. Queen Sts., Lancaster.

The speaker will be Dr. Henry Diller, a Lancaster dentist, whose topic will be "Hypnosis."

All single parents, because of death, divorce, separation, or unmarried status, who have at least one living unmarried child under 21 years of age, are invited to attend. More information on the purposes and activities of the organization may be obtained by calling Jane Sumpman at 684-7617.

Maytown Aux.

The men of Maytown Fire Co. want to thank the Ladies' Auxillary for their contribution to the ambulance fund. The ladies raised $500 dollars to help pay the note on the new ambulance.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank all my friends who kept the faith, voted for and supported me in the November election.

Christian Women plan for Xmas

by Hazel Crankshaw

Sights, sounds, and the joy of Christmas are in the planning of the December 10 meeting of Christian Women's Club. Betty Jo Heisey, Manheim, will present the sights—gifts. The Elizabethtown College Brass Ensemble under the direction of Dr. Darrell Douglas will bring the sounds. Doris Morgan, psychologist, Baltimore, will speak of Joy for Christmas.

The meeting will be held at Hostetter's, Mount Joy, at noon. Reservations must be made no later than December 6 by sending check for $3.25 and a self-addressed, stamped return envelope to Mrs. Marilyn Mummau, R. D. #1, Mount Joy, 17552.

Last week's meeting featuring Dainise Wilson, National Representative of CWC from Baltimore. Christine Beery of Elizabethtown was the soloist and Bonnie Arnold, Maytown furnished the pre-luncheon music. The dining hall was filled to capacity.

Dried floral arrangements were featured, and Jeanette Hack and Donna Wetzel served as judges of the arrangements. Dottie Heisey was awarded a prize for the most unusual. Mrs. Glen Farver for her petite arrangement. Deborah Zeager's arrangement was judged the most outstanding and Margaret Heisey's the most colorful. Evelyn Heisey was awarded a prize for her "budget" bouquet.

Game prizes were awarded to Mary Jane Wenger, Ethel Shoop, and Verna Kuntzelman.

Two prayer Coffees are scheduled: November 24, 8 a.m., at the home of Evelyn Lehmen, R. D. #2, Mount Joy, (653-4314), and December 3 at 9:30 a.m., at the home of Miriam Wolgemuth, R. D.#1, Mount Joy, (653-2211). Ladies are urged to attend these sessions.
