Liz Ehrhorn, "fireperson," joins Susque. Bulletin staff

Elizabeth Ehrhorn, universally known as "Liz," has joined the staff of the Susquehanna Bulletin as advertising sales representative.

Liz comes to the Bulletin with previous experience in her own jobbing firm, Tennis Buying Consultants, specializing in women's tennis wear, in partnership with Cliff Myers of Hershey.

Both Ms. Ehrhorn and Mr. Myers have an active background in tennis. Myers has been an outstanding player at Penn State and at local country clubs. Liz, teaming with Lowell Kreider of Cleona, won the mixed doubles championship of Lebanon County last year.

She has also had experience in retailing, real estate, and with the maintenance department of Mt. Gretna Borough.

In her native community of Mt. Gretna, she is active in civic affairs. She is vice-president and chairman of the ways and means committee of the Mt. Gretna Borough Volunteer Fire Company and actively participated in fighting five fires in the past year, including a large warehouse fire. Last spring she completed her basic training at the Lebanon County Fire Training School. Her male colleagues in the fire company refer smilingly to her as a "fireperson."

Liz, the only active woman member of the fire company, did not apply for membership, but was chosen by the members without her knowledge.

This past summer she was in charge of the food concessions for the Mt. Gretna Chautauqua Art Show, attended by 20,000 people.

Liz is also a member of the board of directors of the Youth Center in Mt. Gretna.

She was graduated in 1974 from Millersville State College with a B.A., magna cum laude, in psychology.

She is the daughter of James G. and Laura S. Ehrhorn of Mount Gretna. Mr. Ehrhorn, a member of the Mount Gretna Borough Council and also a director of the Mount Gretna Chautauqua Association, is regional sales manager of a warehouse trucking firm.

Liz's brother, James G. Ehrhorn, Jr., a former Army Ranger, is a disc jockey at Station WRAW in Reading.

Her sister Margaret is a sophomore at Bloomsburg State College.

Kilian retires

by Elaine M. Kuhn

M. D. Rupard, Plant Manager, of the NCR Systemedia Plant in Mount Joy, today announced that Richard F. Kilian of Mount Joy is retiring this month after 38 years of service to the company.

Kilian has been involved in various management positions with NCR Corporation (formerly The National Cash Register Co.) since 1951. He has recently accepted an appointment as Executive Vice President of the Washington Court house Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

The 56 year old Kilian is former resident of Washington Court House for 9 years while employed as General Foreman of the NCR facility in that city. While in Washington Court House, he distinguished himself as an active civic leader.

There's been a lot of talk about the new Individual Retirement Account

When it's finally time to retire, there's a chance your social security check alone won't be enough. So if you're not covered by any pension plan except social security, you should know about our new Individual Retirement Account.

Basically this new account allows you to deposit as much as 15% of your income, up to $1500 per year, into a retirement savings plan. The deposits made during the calendar year are deductible from your gross income. This means a tax savings for you.

EVEN THE EARNINGS ARE TAX-FREE UNTIL YOU RETIRE

We'll help you choose the retirement savings plan best suited for your needs. A plan that will pay the maximum interest permitted by law. And, if you would like to deposit on a regular basis, when the balance in your IRA savings account reaches $500 you may transfer the funds into a Farmers First Certificate of Deposit. This will increase your earnings toward retirement.

Remember, the money you put away and the earnings on it won't be taxable until you retire.* And by then, chances are you'll be in a much lower tax-bracket.

To get the facts and see how you can save taxes, talk to your personal banker at Farmers First today.
