Corky Flick to represent the state in national 4-H Club photo exhibit

A photograph by Corky Flick, Mount Joy, has been chosen to represent Pennsylvania in the second annual National 4-H Photo Exhibit sponsored by Eastman Kodak Company.

Made up of no more than four pictures from each state, the exhibit will first be shown at the annual 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 29 - Dec. 4, and will later be on display at the National 4-H Center and U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington D.C.

The 16-year-old 4-H'er, in commenting on his picture, entitled "Peet," said, "I was out photographing the countryside and rode to a friend's house in another town. He said he knew where there was a bird's nest and showed me. When the birds saw us they ducked into the nest. It took them about 5-10 minutes to come out again. I tapped on their beaks to make them think I had food and one lunged at my finger."

Exhibit photos have been selected by the cooperative extension service in each state on the basis of county and state fair submissions. Kodak has printed and mounted the photos for display, affixing a seal of recognition, and will present each 4-H'er represented with an enlarged print of his or her picture with seal.

Police reported near solution to Riverview School burglary

The Bulletin has learned from reliable sources that the recent burglary at Riverview School is being jointly and successfully investigated by the police departments of East Donegal Township and Marietta and Mount Joy boroughs.

Results of the investigation may be revealed soon.

J. Edw. Charles presided over his last school board meeting Thursday night. Charles is retiring after 24 years as a school director and nine years as president of the board.

At the same meeting, the board accepted the resignation of Eugene E. Saylor, principal of Maytown Elementary school, who is retiring Dec. 31 after 33 years of service to the district.

(For more on Charles and Saylor, see pages 2 and 3.)

Saylor will be replaced by James Lawrence, assistant principal at Riverview Elementary School. He begins his tenure on December 1.

In other business, the board:

— Fired Kenneth Strine, a Maytown Elem. School fourth grade teacher for two years, for "unsatisfactory" performance. The decision followed evaluation hearings.

J. Edward Charles

— Appointed Mrs. Connie Koser as fourth grade teacher at Maytown Elementary School.

— Appointed Susan Lee Yurkowitz as high school social studies and English teacher.

— Re-appointed Robert Kline, a school district authority member since 1968, to another five-year term.

— Accepted the resignation of head wrestling coach Walter Price. Eugene Funk will be the new coach, with Thomas Knorr as his assistant.

— Was advised that the district's liability insurance may be dropped due to risks involved in the district's ownership of Sico-Chiques Park in Mount Joy.

The board advised its solicitor to explore the idea of a park trustee.

Meeting held on Mt. Joy bridges

Mount Joy Boro officials and their attorneys attended a Public Utilities Commission this Monday to press for Penn-DOT funds to repair Mount Joy's railroad bridges.

Boro manager Joe Bateman and Council Vice-president Elmer Groff testified at the meeting.

The PUC will decide whether Penn-DOT or Mount Joy Borough is responsible for maintaining the bridges.

"Everyone agrees that something needs to be done," Bateman said, "but nobody wants to pay for it."

Boro presses railroad to honor agreement to maintain bridges

The Boro Council is asking the railroad to carry out the recommendations of the Lancaster County Planning Commission:

The bridges at Marietta and New Haven Streets should be upgraded to 20-tons capacity, at a cost of $1,70,000 a piece.

Barbara Street crossing should be maintained at maximum practical capacity, at a cost of $6,700.

The Lumber Street and Comfort Street crossings should be closed to traffic.

Other bridges should be maintained.

Originally, The Pennsylvania Railroad agreed to build and maintain the bridges in exchange for permission to dig a trench through Mount Joy.

Penn Central Railroad today is unwilling and possibly financially unable to live up to its original agreement with the borough.

Mount Joy railroad bridges are in bad shape.
