Lions, J-Cs hear Ben Franklin

by Zelda Heisey

Ben Franklin was speaker at the Mount Joy Jaycees-Lions dinner, Monday evening, November 17, 1975. Mr. Franklin, otherwise known as Wilbur Stark, spoke on the history of the Lancaster County area and pointed out that the townspeople of Mount Joy could re-enact the "Ring Around the Witness Tree" at Donegal Presbyterian Church, where the people of the first community pledged their loyalty to their country for the first time. Mr. Stark was a resident of the borough of Mount Joy for a number of years and was Sales Manager for former Bachman Chocolate Company, now Peter-Paul, Mount Joy Division.

Farm Women Society No. 8 meet at Pres. Grace Bixler's

by Mary Grace Martin

Farm Women Society #8 met at the home of Mrs. Grace Bixler, president of the society, at 2 p.m., on Saturday, November 15th. Her home reflected her interest in antiques and arrangements of dried flowers and grasses.

Miss Anna Mae Eby led the group in singing, and Mrs. Elizabeth Shuman turned our thoughts toward the Thanksgiving season through poems, Psalm 100 and a meaningful prayer. The group also paused for a moment of silent memory in honor of Mrs. Ada Greider who recently passed away. Ada had been a faithful member of the society for many years and had attended the last meeting of October 18th.

Four roll call members were asked to name a favorite piece of art. This brought a variety of responses including such as Millet's Angeles, Da Vinci's Last Supper and Mona Lisa, Hunt's Christ Knocking at the Door, Pinky and Blue Boy, as well as works by local artists.

Mr. Linn Longenecker, a well-known artist of the community, was the featured guest of the day. He showed some new types of art calendars and greeting cards which he hopes to patent, and also demonstrated the use of the Visa-A-Lens which is now on the market. This is a simple guide for oil painting prepared for use by adults with no education in art, and even for children interested in painting. By following simple steps a lovely scene can be produced.

Miss Judy Bixler, 8-year-old granddaughter of the president, favored us with several piano solos.

Communications from Mrs. Emma Staats and Mrs. Dottie Heisey asked to drop their membership in the society. We shall miss them, but remember their fellowship and contributions to the society.

Mrs. Margaret Heisey, Chairman of Ways and Means Committee, was happily satisfied with responses of food and plants for the bazaar table which our society had at the Farm and Home Center on Home-maker's Day, November 13th. Eighteen of our members were part of the group who enjoyed the special craft displays and programs featuring demonstrations of food preparations and decorative arrangements for the holiday season.

President Grace Bixler reported on the program of the County Convention held November 1st at Lancaster when 14 of our members attended. Vice president, Mrs. Kathryn Heisey, Mrs. Kathryn Erb, and Miss Ruth Eby will represent our society at the State Convention, January 5-6, 1976.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Vera Frey on December 13th instead of December 6th, at 6:30 p.m. This will be a covered dish supper when husbands are special guests. Each member is requested to bring a hot and a cold dish and necessary place settings. Turkey and beverages will be provided by the hostesses.

Hostesses for today beside our president were Mrs. Ester Musser, Mrs. Phyllis Endslow, and Mrs. Elizabeth Witmer.
