

H. D. Snyder
R. D. 3
Mount Joy, Pa.

SUSQUEHANNA BULLETIN

Susquehanna Times & The Mount Joy Bulletin
MARIETTA & MOUNT JOY, PA.

Vol. 75 No. 47 December 3, 1975

Ten Cents

Boros, twp. police solve burglary

With recovered school property are, from left to right; East Donegal Police Chief George Shirk; Mount Joy Boro Police Officer Bill Roberts; and Marietta Police Officer Steve Englert.

Through a joint effort of police from East Donegal Township, Mount Joy, and Marietta boroughs, a series of burglaries and vandalism has been solved. An estimated $1,500 in school property from the Donegal School District has been recovered.

Shown at left with some recovered property are, from left: Chief George R. Shirk, East Donegal Township; Officer William Roberts, Mount Joy; and Sgt. Steve Englert, Marietta. Other officers aiding in the successful investigation were Frank Aument, Mount Joy; Jay Roberts, Melvin Aldinger, and Ken Barninger, Marietta.

Armed with a search warrant, officers went to a home on East Market Street in Marietta, where items taken in burglaries at Donegal High School were recovered.

From there they went to a second home where the major portion of the recovered items were found. These items were from Riverview Elementary and Beahm Junior High School.

Two 17-year-old juveniles will be charged with the series of burglaries, attempted arson and criminal mischief.

A last look at Mt. Joy's rr. station

Demolition of the old Mount Joy Pennsylvania Railroad Station was scheduled to get underway this past Monday morning.

The station, which has not been used for many years, and its surrounding grounds were purchased last spring by the Church of God in Mount Joy for use as a parking lot. The area occupied by the station will add to the existing parking lot.

Paulette Archer's home is a dark, cozy, private world. It's not designed to please anyone but herself.

Paulette worked hard to make the house exactly what she wanted it to be. With the occasional help of two fifteen year old boys she ripped out the existing staircase and built a new one, constructed new window mouldings, built doorways, hung doors, patched the plaster and built a lot of furniture. Photo shows Paulette in her kitchen.

Marietta Restoration Associates' Candlelight Tour covers 16 sites

by Hazel Baker

Sixteen locations will be on the itinerary for the "Christmas by Candlelight", a tour of buildings in the Marietta area sponsored by the Marietta Restoration Associates. The benefit will be Sunday, December 7, from 2 to 7 p.m. with hosts and hostesses extending holiday greetings to tourists. Light refreshments will be served at the Marietta Community House.

Tourists may start at any point along the route but the price of admission is the same for all or part of the tour. A brochure including a map is included with the ticket or may be obtained by contacting Mrs. J. R. Baker, Marietta.

Proceeds from the walking tour will be used to further projects of the above group. A bazaar will be conducted in the Sultzbach House, Waterford Avenue, Marietta, where handmade and baked goods will be offered for sale. Mrs. Aldus Baum, Mrs. Eloise Aurand, Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Robert Lombard are co-chairmen of this project.

The tour was arranged by the house committee: Mrs. Robert Cresswell, Mrs. Robert Vanderslice, Mrs. Robert Spangler, Mrs. Eloise Aurand and Mrs. James Baker.

(continued on page 16)

Tom Spangler's new Marietta apartment is built into the attic of an old warehouse.

"I wanted it to be earthy," says Tom. "There's no real theme to it."

To keep the appearance of the apartment down to earth, Tom used only one coat of paint of the ceiling boards, which surprised the carpenter who was helping Tom fix the place up.

The attic was filled to the roof with old junk when Tom began rehabilitating the place. He salvaged some barrels to make furniture, and used a Zink's Cigar Store sign to decorate a wall.

The apartment is paneled with rough-cut spruce and features a loft that must be reached by ladder.

An impressive-looking stereo system sits on the bar. Photo shows Tom in his doorway.