Leon Good (left), Kraybill School administrator greets Fred Geib, the school's new development assistant. Mr. Geib is also pastor of Shenk's Brethren in Christ Church.

Fred Geib hired to raise funds for Kraybill

Enrollment is growing at Kraybill Elementary School. If new students keep arriving at the present rate, a new building will be needed to house them next fall.

To raise funds for a new building, the school board has hired Fred Geib, pastor of Shenk's Brethren in Christ Church, to work part-time as a development assistant.

Mr. Geib will help inform the community about the need for a new building.

The new building will be constructed in stages as enrollment grows and funds become available.

Eventually, the old building will become an auditorium and recreation facility.

Mount Joy BPW hears June Honaman on 'Today's Woman'

Amid all decorations of Indian corn, orange candles, and turkeys made of apples and adorned with raisins and cranberries, the November meeting of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club was held Monday at Hostetter's Banquet Hall.

June Honaman, Landisville, was guest speaker for the evening. Her theme, "Today's Woman", included remarks on how women have had to fight down through the years for equality. In her conclusion, Mrs. Honaman related, "Three things are important to a woman—Her family and home, her church and God, and her government. If she doesn't do anything about the third, she might lose the first two."

Entertainment was provided by Marilyn Strominger, soloist, who was accompanied by Mrs. Mary Ellen Kohler. Miss Strominger, dressed as "Mother Abyss" in "Sound of Music," sang three selections, "Climb Every Mountain", "My Favorite Things", and one in keeping with the season entitled, "Thanksgiving".

Jane Youtz was introduced as November's Girl of the Month by Mrs. Hazel Zeller. She was presented with a certificate and a charm. Her mother, Mrs. Ralph Youtz also was a guest of the club.

President Lillian Fry conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Helen Barto, chairman of the Senior Citizens Christmas Project, exhibited 70 knitted shawls made by club members to be distributed to the area shut-ins confined to nursing homes and hospitals.

Membership chairman, Mrs. June Whelan, presented membership awards to Mary Sheetz, Molly Hart, Helen Keller, Lillian Fry, and Mrs. Whelan.

The next meeting will be held December 8, with the Hospitality Committee in charge. The Milton Hershey Chorus will present, "Joys of Christmas." Mrs. Mary Sprecher and Mrs. Dora Wittle are co-chairmen of the Hospitality Committee.

Mrs. Helen Keller, chairman of the BPW Candlelight Tour, announced the tour was a success. A complete financial report will be made by the December meeting.

Marietta Community Chorus cantata Dec. 7

by Hazel Baker

"A Wonderful Story", a cantata by Robert and Shirley Bashan, will be presented by the Marietta Community Chorus on Sunday, December 7 at 8 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church, Marietta.

Mrs. Gerald Libhart will direct the performance. Featured soloists will be: medium voice, Rosalyn Barr and Frances Makle; soprano, Sharon Young; tenor Elvin Shanabrook and Jewel Schrimmer; and cherub voices, Amy and Julie Schrimmer.

Don Kugle will be narrator.

Mrs. Margaret Miller is organist, and Mrs. Claranna Bryant is pianist.

The chorus was organized in 1962 and presents concerts semi-annually. Invitations to join are extended to everyone over 16.

The chorus will begin practice for a Bicentennial presentation on January 11 at the English United Presbyterian Church.

Current officers are Thomas Price, president; Fred Reitz, vice-president; and Claranna Bryant, secretary-treasurer.

4-H Horse & Pony Club feast

The 4-H Horse and Pony Club Recognition Banquet will be held Friday, December 5, at 6:30 p.m. at the Farm and Home Center, Lancaster.

Bud Gochnauer will be master of ceremonies.

Reservations should be made with Jay W. Irwin, County Agent, 394-6851.
