A month's worth of news from Maytown Elementary

by Brenda Gibble

October was a busy month for the gang in room 4b. The children were naturals at taping for a television show.

November 1 they started cursive writing.

November 6 report cards went home with a new grading system used.

The students are learning about antonyms, synonyms, and homonyms. They also started a unit on senses.

Everyone enjoys poetry and is preparing to recite and sing for Thanksgiving.

On November 17, Mill Nagle started teaching. She will teach through December 12.

Kraybill wins essay contest

Ron Kraybill, Elizabethtown, currently a student at Goshen College, is a winner in the 1975 John Horsch Mennonite History Essay Contest.

Ron won first prize in the division for college juniors and seniors for his essay, "Evaluations of the Mennonite Period of Change, 1870-1920".

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Kraybill, RR1, Box 612, Elizabethtown. He is a member of the Bossler Mennonite Church. The contest encourages Mennonite students to research congregational, institutional histories and biographies of past and present leaders in the Mennonite Church. It also encourages research on the rise of special organizations of the church and subjects related to the history of Anabaptism and the Mennonite Church.

The contest is named in memory of John Horsch (1867-1941), a leading historian and writer of the Mennonite Church.

Santa coming to Hostetter's

by Rev. Stephen Getty

Santa Claus will arrive in Mount Joy on Friday, December 5, at 6:30 p.m. Children may visit with him that evening until 8:30 p.m. and Saturday morning from 9:00 until 11:30 a.m. at his headquarters at Hostetter's Hardware Store, 93 E. Main St. He will be at Hostetter's each Friday evening and Saturday morning until Christmas.

Assisting Santa will be members of the Joyceettes and Jaycees. The Jaycees will take pictures of the children for those parents who desire them. These photos make excellent souvenirs of a big event in each child's life, and make excellent Christmas gifts for grandparents.

It is hoped that many boys and girls will be waiting on Friday evening at Hostetter's Hardware Store to welcome Santa when he arrives.

Julie Kanoff of Maytown joins United States Army

Miss Julie Kanoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kanoff of 9 West Elizabeth St., Maytown, has enlisted into the U.S. Army's delayed entry program. Julie will be graduating in June of 1976 and will be leaving for eight weeks of basic training at Fort McClellan, Alabama on July 14, 1976.

From there she will be going to a fifteen week course as a medical laboratory specialist at the Academy of Health Sciences, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. There she will be taught clinical chemistry, urinalysis, hematology, immunohematology, serology, parasitology, bacteriology, mathematics, procedures that include processing, testing, storing and issue of whole blood and blood components and virological methods as applied to a clinical laboratory.

Julie hopes to be stationed in Germany when the course is over. She also hopes to enter college under the Army's project AHEAD (Army Help for Education and Development) program.

DID YOU HEAR....

The Greater Lancaster Bicentennial walking tour put 700 school students through the tour in October. In November we put 880 school students through the tour.

The tour will stop for the season at the end of November
