Walt Price dinner

Asked to comment on the Intel's article, Walt said, "The schools have been dragged through enough." A public dispute on the resignation will only hurt Donegal athletes, Walt feels.

Over the years, Walt Price has made an impressive contribution to Donegal athletics. Besides coaching the most successful team in recent DHS history, he founded the Donegal Coaches Association and was one of the main organizers of the DIG gym effort.

Jr. troop holds 'Indian Feast'

by Sharon Maley

Junior Troop #331 completed their Indian Lore Badge by having an "Indian Feast." The menu consisted of: Beef jerky, sassafras tea, maple sugar candy, baked dried corn, cornbread, popcorn, succotash, assorted nuts, chestnuts, and currants.

The troop worked on the badge for two months, learning customs, religion, songs, and dances. Each girl made a headband and a necklace and some kind of musical instrument.

The girls also made pillows for Needlework Guild.

Each girl made a get-well card to send to a boy from Millersville, who is bedridden.

The whole troop is now busy preparing for their combination Court of Awards and Christmas Party. The twelve girls will receive a total of 52 badges and awards. Eight girls will be receiving the Sign of the Arrow.

Water treatment plant site approved by Boro Authority

Mount Joy Boro Authority approved the site for building its new water treatment plant at its December 2nd meeting. The land is along Carmany Road about 1/2 mile from the west of Mount Joy. The plans call for a 3-bay garage that would serve also as a storage area. The garage plans have not received final approval since the Authority feels the quoted estimated cost is excessive. They will look into other plans before a decision is made.

In other business, the authority granted a 7 and 8 1/2 per cent raise for the authority employees.

The special program will be in two parts, with the first including "The Shepherd's Story", "Nazareth", "Carol of the Little King", "Gesu Bambino", and "Christmas Day", a choral fantasy on old carols.

The second part of the program will feature "The Shepherd's Chorus" from "Amahl and the Night Visitors", "Caribbean Carol a West Indian Christmas spiritual; and "He Is Born", a French carol. The "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "The Messiah" will conclude the program.

Special instrumentalists will be Mrs. Jackie Roberts, maracas; Miss Sandra Heisey, finger cymbals; and Ron Meckley, drummer, who will accompany the chorus in their presentation of "The Little Drummer Boy" by Simeone.
