A Rall-Road Strike.

8

The strike on the Grand Trunk ra continues and has extended over the road. Disturbances have occured at se places, and at Point St. Charles th gineers seized the turn-table and refu let any train pass. Engines and car cumber the road at intervals. One from Montreal was abandoned a few from Coburg, and the passengers, number, were taken to Coburg in sh The company any they can provide gineers for the passengers and most o freight trains, if the authorities will antee the safety of the substitutes an company's property. On the other the strikers are determined that there be no traffic on the road until their den are complied with, and their number attitude are so formidable that no att to move an engine has yet been made force of military has been sent to Bell Station to preserve the peace and pi passenger train to Montreal. It is u stood that negotiations are going or tween the authorities and the company reference to the protection of the la property.

Come now and let us Reason Togeth

Why do people so frequently say to Pierce, "I suppose your Golden Me Discovery cures every thing?" Be thas been the practice of knavish chi tans to manufacture worthless nest and attempt to dupe the ignorant credulous by recommending them to every form of disease. To such an ex-has this been practiced that it is no wo that many have associated that it is no wo has this been practiced that it is no wo that many have acquired prejudices ag all advertised remedies. But Dr. P does not advertise his standard pre-tions as "cure-alls," does not claim they will perform miracles, but sit publishes the fact that they have been valued as specifies for this veloped as specifics for certain forms disease for which he recommends the after having tested their efficacy in m hundred cases with the most gratifi-success. It is a fact known to every informed physician that many single in dies possess several different prope Quinine, for instance, has a tonic qui Quinine, for instance, has a tonic qua which suggests its use in cases of debi an anti-periodic, by which it is efficad in ague ; and a febriefuge property, w renders it efficacious in cases of fever, result of its administration will also result of its administration will also with the quantity given and the circ stances under which it is employed. likewise, the Golden Medical Disco possess both pectoral and alterative blood-cleansing properties of the big order. By reason of these two promi properties it curves two classes of disc. First, those of the sespiratory organs, throat, bronchial, and lung all et chronic coughs and asthma, and see diseases of the blood and clandular sea diseases of the blood and glandular sys in which affections all skillful physi employ alteratives, as in cases of blot employ alteratives, as in cases of block eruptions, ulcers, swellings, tumors, ab-ses, and in torpor of the liver or "bili ness." While its use is, by its comp tion, yet you need not take it expectin will care you if your lungs are half sumed, nor because it is recommended a blood medicine would its proprietor ac-tion to take it expecting it to be a sumed. you to take it expecting it to cure can It will not perform miracles, but it cure many grave forms of disease.

An Unpleasant Passenger.

The Wilmington, N. C., Star say The Norwegian barque Surprise, Captain Weigner, now in this port, had quite an exciting adventure lately. It appears that while the vessel was at some point in Africa, about six or seven months ago, a hugh snake, of the species known as the boa constrictor, some fifteen feet in length. by some means got on board of the ship without the knowledge of any of the officers or crew, and made his way into the hold," where he proceeded to enscone himself into comfortable quarters, with the view, we suppose, of taking a trip to see the world. The vessel sailed and his snakeship, not having his name registered on the passenare list, was not discovered until after landing at Liverpool, when upon proceed-ing to remove the cargo, which consisted of wool and other articles, the presence of the constrictor was made known, and then the stampede that occurred among the bewildered and affrighted stevedores, as well as all others on the ship at the time, constituted a scene long to be remembered.

Lost while going for a Fortune.

Enze, Pa., January 1 .- An Ashtabula special to the Eria Dispatch mentions the following incident of the railroad accident: Miss Mary Birchard, of Fayetteville, Vt. and cousin to Gov. Hayes, was on the illfated train. The uncle from whom the governor inherited most of his fortune also willed Miss Birchard $20,000. The three years allowed in which to settle the estate and divide the property having expired, Miss Birchard was on her way to take formal possession of her property. Her name does not appear in the list of saved, and she was probably killed. Her destination was Elyris, Obio.

Fran a well known Contractor and Builder, Mr. Wm. Ruch, 1886 Huichins in SL, Philadoiphia.

"Having received great benefit from the use of your valuable remedy, DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I feel it my duty to say something in its favor. For some time my two little boys were more or less afflicted with severe coughs, which at times were so violent that we were kept up with them all night. We tried many remedies with no effect. On hearing of WISTAR'S BALSAM, we gave it a trial, and can truly BALSAM, we gave it a trial, and can truly say it gave immediate relief. It being pleasant to take, the children would call for it every time they coughed, and before one week the cough had entirely left them. Since theo I have used it myself for coughs and colds, and have found it as effective with me as the children, and I can safely recommend it to the public." on cents and $1s bottle.
