Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing train numbers, departure times, and arrival times for various stations.

Brief Items.

Another Y. M. C. A. Entertainment will be held in the Court House, on Saturday evening, February 3rd.

Daniel Julius, of Centre twp., has sold his farm to Mr. John Darlington for $8,800.

Mr. Jesse Rice, of Elliptown has sold his store to a Mr. Fleckinger, late of White Hall.

Robert McCartney, of Carlisle, lately convicted of perjury, has received a pardon from the Governor.

The farm adjoining Z. Rice's, in Spring twp., owned by Rachel Green and her brother, has been sold to Wm. Rheem & brother for $2,500.

The rise in grain and the good roads have caused a large amount of grain to be moved towards the railroad the past week.

Mrs. Hensel, one of the oldest residents of Centre twp., died on Wednesday last. The day she died, her son, J. Adam Hensel, residing in New Kingston was buried.

Louis C. Clermont, of the Chambersburg, Pa., bank robber, who broke jail some time ago, was re-captured in New York last Thursday and awaits requisition at the police station.

A firm named George Stinson & Co., are getting a good deal of gratuitous advertising, ostensibly for the purpose of warning the public against a fraud. The dodge is rather thin, and we don't propose to take any of it.

Mr. William Neilson, of Centre twp., had a valuable horse badly injured a few days ago by a kick from another horse. The cork on the shoe of the animal entered the stifle joint and may ruin Mr. Neilson's horse.

On the 10th inst., John Specht and his two sons were walking from Centreville to Middleburg, and when within half a mile of the latter place the old man fell over and expired. He was about 70 years of age and leaves a wife and large family in destitute circumstances.

The following officers were installed at a stated meeting of Shermansdale Council No. 186, O. of U. A. M.

C.—A. B. Stouffer.—V. C.—Robert McDonald.—R. S.—A. H. Glenn.—A. R. S.—Samuel A. Smegh. F. S.—John F. Stouffer, Ind.—Wilson M. Foltz, Ex.—David M. Bailey. I. P.—Isaiah Foltz. O. P.—Thomas M. Stone. Trustee.—Geo. B. Souder.

How Did it Get There.—On Sunday Mr. David Spotts at Newport, found a scratch on the neck of his child.—Further investigation developed the fact that a long needle lay under the skin on the shoulder with the point projecting enough to make the scratch as the child turned its head. The needle lay full length in view under the skin, except the point, but how it came there or how long it has been in the child is a question not easily answered.

Singular Accident.—One day last week a small child of Jacob Zergler, Juniata township, met with a singular accident which resulted in its death on Sunday. The mother of the child had placed it on a bed, and by some means or other it fell through the cording with its body when its head became fastened between the ropes, straining its neck with the above result.—News.

Bound to go to jail.—About 11 o'clock on Thursday night, a tramp accosted one of our policemen, and requested to be taken to jail. Not being guilty of any offence his request was refused, when he informed the officer that he would smash the biggest show window in town and compel an arrest. Leaving the officer, he proceeded at once up town and deliberately broke the window of D. W. Diehl's saddlery, and returning so informed the officer. His request for imprisonment, under these circumstances was at once complied with.—Chambersburg Repository.

He Was Dead but now Liveth.—John Kelly, of Stoughstown, two years since received intelligence of the death of his brother Joseph, who settled in Arizona nineteen years ago. This sad news caused our friend Kelly to write to the postmaster in the region of his reported death of his brother. A letter was received detailing with minuteness the manner of Joseph's death, which was in substance that while out gunning he ac-identally shot himself. This was all that could be gotten. Though he was supposed to be in possession of considerable estate no further information could be obtained, and Mr. Kelly here settled down in the belief that foul play was at the bottom of the alleged death probably for the purpose of reaching his estate. Imagine the joy of Mr. Kelly who last week received a letter from his brother stating that he was well and prospering, proving the utter falsity of the information respecting his death. The letter stated that it was his purpose to visit the East in the spring.—Newville Star.

THIRD WEEK.

Thomas Reeder vs. J. W. Williamson, Sheriff. We made a brief mention of this case in our last issue, it being then on trial. This suit was brought to recover damages for certain personal property sold by Sheriff Williamson on Executions issued against Jno. Reeder, father of the above Plaintiff, Thomas Reeder, and which the said Plaintiff claimed was his, and not the property of Jno. Reeder. The true Defendants were Jno. Boyles and Bupp, who were the jail of Jno. Reeder in the judgments upon which the Executions as above stated were issued, and who gave to the Sheriff a bond of indemnity to secure him from any loss, by said sale, they believing that Thomas Reeder, Plaintiff, in this case had no interest in the property, but was only claiming it to prevent the creditors of Jno. Reeder from disposing of it to pay his honest debts. The Sheriff, after receiving the bond of indemnity, went on and sold goods to the amount of $441.85. After a long trial, the jury returned a verdict for Plaintiff for $285.30. A motion was made by Defendant's counsel for a new trial. W. A. & W. H. Sponsler for Plaintiff; McIntire and Barnett for Defendant.

W. H. Minick's use vs. Esther Meyers, administratrix of Daniel Meyers, Sr., deceased, with notice to the heirs of said Daniel Meyers, Sr. The actual Defendants in this case were Henry Meyers and Daniel Meyers, Jr., and suit was brought by W. H. Minick, one of the creditors of the late Daniel Meyers to test the title to two farms in Centre township, worth about $5,000, formerly owned by said Daniel Meyers, Sr., but now claimed by his sons, Henry Meyers and Daniel Meyers, Jr., by virtue of certain agreements made in the year 1866 between them and their father, by which they were to go into actual possession of said real estate upon complying with certain conditions during the life time of their father, and at his death, each to pay to the other heirs $1,000. After this agreement Daniel Meyers, Sr., became involved and gave his judgments for his debts. There were fifteen other suits against same Defendant, involving same facts and by agreement by parties to be tried by same jury. The jury rendered a special verdict sustaining the contract between Daniel Meyers, Sr., and his two sons Henry and Daniel as above stated.—Barnett and Selbert for Plaintiff; McIntire and Sponsler for Defendant.

Christian B. Leiter vs. the Township of Howe. This was an action brought by the Plaintiff to recover damages for the loss sustained by him by reason of the negligence of the Supervisors of said Township of Howe, in keeping in good repair the road known as the "River road" in said Township.

The Defendants took defence that they had given warning of the unsafe condition of said road by obstructing the same at each end with a pair of bars, also by posting up notices setting forth the danger of traveling the same.

They also averred their inability to keep the said road in repair. It was proven on the trial that Plaintiff was cognizant of the dangerous condition of the road prior to the time his alleged damages were sustained.—Verdict for Defendant. W. A., & W. H. Sponsler and Selbert for Plaintiff; Barnett for Defendant.

Jacob T. Kling vs. Franklin Spotts. This was an action to recover for brick furnished by Plaintiff to Defendant and which Defendant alleged were not the kind and quality he had contracted for and therefore refused payment.—Verdict for Plaintiff, for $239.34. Barnett for Plaintiff; W. A., & W. H. Sponsler for Defendant.

This was the longest Session of Court ever held in Perry County, being in continuance 15 days. The cost for jurors during the term was $1498.28. A very large number of cases were disposed of and much business was transacted.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

On Wednesday of last week Mrs. Felzer, an aged lady living in Mechanicsburg, slipped and fell on the porch at her residence breaking her leg at the hip joint. She suffered severe pain until Saturday, when death relieved her.

On Monday morning of last week, Miss Martha Whorley, daughter of Mr. Christian Whorley, of Penn township, died very suddenly of heart disease. She had been sick for a long time, and on Monday morning the family left her room for a few minutes and upon returning found her a corpse.

Mechanicsburg incendiary fiends have again tried their infamous work of burning property. At a late hour on Saturday night the stable belonging to Mr. Hartzell, situated in the southern part of the borough, was fired, but the fire went out after doing some little damage. The parties engaged in this work in our neighboring borough will eventually pull up in our Court of Quarter Sessions.

The six young men arrested in Carlisle in December, charged as being implicated in the incendiaryism which has been so common in that section, had their trial last week. One of the parties (Grove) plead guilty, two, Weidner and Dehuff were found guilty in the manner indicted, and Henley found guilty of furnishing material.

Judge Herman sentenced them as follows: Dehuff, ten years and nine months; Weidner, seven years and three months; Hendel, six years and nine months; O'Donnell, three years and six months; Grove, four years and six months.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

On Sabbath morning at Mrs. Christian Neff, of Turbett township, was on her way to attend church in Port Royal, the sleigh was accidentally upset near the residence of Judge Koons, and in falling Mrs. N. broke her left fore-arm.

On Saturday evening last some villains stole Mr. William Noble's mare from the stable, and hitching her to a sleigh, drove round through the country, greatly abusing the animal. They drove her so hard that the skin on her shoulders adhered to the collar when it was removed.

On Friday last, two men, who to all appearances, were professional tramps, called at the residence of Judge Oles, in Beale township, this county, and inquired of the Judge if he had a horse which he wished to sell, saying that they would like very much to buy one. The Judge told them that he had no more horses than he needed at present, therefore, could not sell any. They insisted on him selling them one, when the Judge told them it was useless to talk about it, for he would not. Shortly after this they left, but only to return again later in the day, when they went into the house, and, after talking awhile, one of them drew a revolver, pointed it at the Judge, and said, "Will you sell us a horse or not?" The Judge, not being easily frightened, answered, "No, I will not," whereupon, the other fellow walked up to him and struck him on the head with a "billy," knocking him down. Immediately after the Judge was struck he called for help, but before any one arrived the men made good their escape, and nothing has since been heard of them. These attacks upon farmers by tramps are becoming quite numerous; hardly a day passes but what we read of some villainous acts committed upon unsuspecting persons by these vicious fellows.—Democrat & Register.

A Word About Boots.—Good boots are the most important article of men's wear. After trying several makes, we have concluded that the boots made by the Watsonetown company are the best in the market. They are hand-made and manufactured from the best stock of any we can get while the shape is better adapted to the general trade. Their goods are for sale by the stores generally throughout this county, and a full supply can be found at the store of
