The Huntingdon Journal advocates the passage of a stay law by the legislature. Eight business houses were closed by the Sheriff in the borough of Huntingdon recently.

THE UNITED STATES COURT at Albany has decided that college students cannot gain a residence in their college towns, and fined several students of the Catholic College in Allegheny $100 and costs each for voting at the late election.

THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION has finally decided that the vote of Florida was cast for Hayes, and have so reported to congress. The joint convention will now go on counting the vote by states alphabetically until the "L" is reached, which in this case stands for Louisiana, when another trouble will arise which will be referred to the commission for settlement.

OUR READERS will do well to beware of investing in stock of the "Silver Mountain Mining Co." a stock which purports to have great value, and is offered to the unwary as something really worth having. This stock may be very good, but any stocks offered in small amounts through the county are generally frauds, as if really a good investment the money will readily be found among the city capitalists.

THE GREAT hue and cry of those who favored a commission to count the electoral vote was, that it was putting too much power in the hands of one man to allow the Vice-President to declare the vote. They feared the one man power. So far the action of the commission has shown that party preference has governed every decision and ruling, and that the one man who constitutes the majority in that board, is really the man who will decide the presidential question.

THE Supreme Court of this state has decided that a dead man can inherit the insurance on his own life. A man named Haas insured his life in favor of his wife for $1,000, but the wife died before him, when he married again, and died not long afterward. The second wife brought suit for her share of the $1,000 realized from the policy on the life of her husband, on the ground that when his first wife died the husband became from that moment one of her heirs entitled to a third of her estate. The supreme court endorses this theory of the second wife holding that "It is not stretching the construction of the statute beyond what is legitimate to hold that her [the first wife's] estate included for purpose of distribution not only what was then her own estate, but what might become so on a contingency thereafter happening. The death of her husband and the payment of the policy on his life was such a contingency, and hence his executors are entitled on one-third of the fund thus realized."

Dull Times in France.

VERSAILLES, February 6.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday M. Ordinaire, member for Lyons, questioned the government as to what steps it intended to take to alleviate the distress among the workmen of Lyons. M. Ordinaire stated that 50,000 operatives were thrown out of employment in consequence of low wages and dearness of raw silk which had risen eighty per cent. in price. M. Simon, the president of the council, replied that the government would do everything in its power to assist the local authorities. It appears from an article in the Economiste Francais that two thirds of the silk works are unemployed, and manufacturers declare that work cannot be resumed until the price of raw silk falls 15 per cent. The Prefect of the Rhone has devoted $53,000 from the local funds to the relief of the sufferers.

A Steamer Sunk—All Hands Lost.

NEW YORK, February 6.—The loss of the steamship Geo. Washington, of the Cromwell line, which has been missing for about two weeks, with all on board, has been rendered nearly certain by the discovery, yesterday, at Cape Race, of various articles from that vessel. There were only two passengers on board, who, with the crew of 33, are supposed to have perished.

A number of sailors who have worked upon the George Washington during past trips declared yesterday that she was a very good, staunch boat, and ought to have been able, unless she struck a heavy field of ice, to encounter any sea. The George Cromwell, of the same line, has not been heard from since January 3rd, the day of her departure from Halifax for St. Johns.

Fools not All Dead.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., February 9.—Notwithstanding the general scarcity of work in the Schuylkill region and the fact that many workmen are leaving for the southwest, particularly to settle in Texas, for want of employment here, the miners and boys engaged at the Stanton colliery at Mahanoy planes, numbering over 1,100, struck against a small reduction of wages. Last night, after holding a mass meeting, they notified the operators of their action and their colliery to-day was idle. In other portions of the region the men are generally at work. There is much surprise manifested here that such a large number of men should strike in the middle of winter, especially in these depressed times.

How to Manufacture Russia Leather.

Ex-Postmaster General Jewell, while minister to Russia, investigated the business interest of the country, and was rewarded by the discovery of the secret of making Russia leather. There is no secret in the tanning, but the peculiar scent of the genuine Russia leather is what troubled the Yankee tanners to imitate. Governor Jewell found it to be imparted by the use of birch bark tar in dressing the skins instead of tallow or other grease. It is not an expensive article, costing about $10 a barrel, and Mr. Jewell sent ten barrels of the tar to various leather manufacturers in this country, with instructions, and the result is that genuine Russian leather goods are now made in America, and doubtless will soon be sold at nearly fifty per cent. below former prices.

A narrow escape from a horrible death, in a manner similar to several that are recorded in railway annals, is given by the New Haven Palladium:—While a woman was walking up from the steamer at Belle dock, last week, on Monday night, both her feet became caught in the rails of the railroad, at the Bridge street crossing. The switch engine was approaching, and fright deprived her of the power of speech. Fortunately the engineer saw her soon enough to stop before reaching her, and by unbuttoning her gaiters she was released from her perilous situation.

Boston, February 7.—The following card is published to-day:

I am glad to announce to the Christian public that the contributions for the family of Mr. P. P. Bliss have been so liberal that, with the addition of what he left, they are well provided for, and collections should now cease. (Signed) D. L. MOODY.

The court-room in St. Louis is infested with thieves and last week the overcoats of two lawyers were relieved of their contents, while another had his head-gear stolen.

About a third of one of Mrs. Flori's legs was cut off by a locomotive in St. Louis, and a jury awarded her $4,166,666 damages. The amount indicates that the jury estimated the entire leg as worth $12,500.

An aged woman in Indianapolis is supported in luxury by her wealthy son, but he will not provide her with tobacco to smoke; and consequently she knits stockings, sells them, and thus obtains the one thing that the son denies her.

A Birmingham, Mass., dog who had for a year or two regularly run to the train on hearing the whistle, for the morning paper, has died, and a coach dog who had frequently been his companion has succeeded to the work, doing it faithfully.

In England the average temperature of last December, was not many degrees below that of the preceding June, while on several days the minimum temperature was higher in December than in June. In London last month six inches of rain fell.

A novel sleighing party started from Scranton the other day. It was composed of ladies, who, in order to be eligible, had to tip the beam at 200 pounds, and before they had gone far they "tipped" the sleigh, and were all dumped down the bank on to the frozen surface of the Lackawanna.

The iron trade of England, especially that branch of it which is most interested in the manufacture of rails, is in very low state, with the probability of its continuing so indefinitely, unless a means of producing a better quality of iron can be devised.

A gentleman named Allen, in Paulding county, Ga., while seated in his house one night last week, was shot at through the crack of the house, the lead lodging in his face, terribly wounding him. He was living at last accounts. The would be assassin is unknown.

A new material in preparation for over-dresses only, and as yet unknown outside of the factory at Lyons, will be ready for the spring trade by the name of "coat-of-mail." This fabric is described as at once firm and supple, and somewhat resembling the steel armor of olden times, from which last fact it takes its name.

Mrs. Hale, of east Reading, aged ninety-eight years, walked on Saturday a week from her residence to the Court-house, where she transacted business and then walked home again, the distance being over two miles. She was accompanied by a son aged sixty-five years, and has four older sons.

J. K. Osgood, of Gardiner, Me., a reformed drunkard who had spent a large fortune in dissipation, commenced giving temperance lectures at Trenton a couple of weeks ago, and has continued every day since. His audiences have steadily increased, till now the large hall is nightly filled, all classes flocking to hear him.

Mansfield Island, in Lake Erie, has been bought by a man who intends to stock it with black cats and kill their progeny for their fur. He will feed them at first on fish caught off the shore by men who will live on the island, but after the enterprise is well started he will utilize the meat of the slaughtered cats as food for the living ones.

A frightful accident occurred at the iron ore mines of Daniel Lauer, at Hensinger'sville, Lehigh county, Pa., on Monday last. While workmen were digging over the ground caved in on them, burying Henry Hunsberger, Lewis Eagle, Reese Lewis and David Frederick under ten feet of earth. The first-named three were killed and Frederick sustained very severe injuries, but will probably recover.

Peter Norke, of Shenandoah, borrowed a percussion cartridge on Sunday a week and took it home. He wanted to know all about the composition of the rather innocent looking object, so he took a pin and picked the head off the cartridge. Upon taking an account of stock a moment or two afterwards, he found that on one hand there was no thumb and only a very bad wreck of a second finger, while from the other hand one joint of the thumb was missing, the forefinger in need of repairs, the second finger minus a joint, and the third finger shattered.

A sharper was standing at a street corner in Cincinnati. A man who looked unsophisticated approached with a sealed package, and asked the sharper to read the address for him. On the package was written, "$1,000 Government bonds," with the name "James Harper," and a number. "I'm James Harper, I'll take the package," said the sharper, thinking that he had a chance to swindle. The other handed over the package, after simulating hesitation, and said that two dollars were due him for carriage. The money was paid, and the package was subsequently found to contain blank paper only.

A snow storm such as has not occurred in the memory of man began on the 19th of December, in Schleswig, Jutland, the Danish islands and Sweden and Norway, and continued till Christmas. During all this time travel by ordinary roads and by railway was greatly impeded, and finally at many places suspended, and the steamboats between Copenhagen and Stockholm were obliged to discontinue their trips for some days. On the Danish State railways the snow lay twelve feet deep between Fredericia and Aarhus, fourteen feet deep between Aarhus and Randers and Randers and Aalborg, and seventeen feet deep at Vendysael.

The Gospel of Merit.

Where there is so much rivalry as in the manufacture of family medicines, he would succeed must give positive and convincing proof of merit. This is an age of inquiry. People take nothing for granted. They must know the "whys" and "wherefores" before acknowledging the superiority of one article over another. Among the few preparations that have stood the test, those manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D., of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., have for many years been foremost. The truth of any statement made concerning them can be easily ascertained, for Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are now prescribed by many physicians in curing obstinate cases of Catarrh and incipient Consumption. The Discovery has no equal in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchial and Nervous Affections. It allays all irritation of the mucous membrane, aids digestion, and when used with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets readily overcomes torpid liver and Constipation, while the Favorite Prescription has no rival in the field of prepared medicine in curing diseases peculiar to females. If you wish to "know themselves" procure a copy of "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," an illustrated book of nearly 1000 pages, adapted to the wants of every body. Price $1.50, postage prepaid. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
