HOUSE, FARM AND GARDEN.

We invite communications from all persons who are interested in matters properly belonging to this department.

Healthy Poultry.

The birds of the air are never sick; they die either of old age or natural casualties. They choose their food according to the season and their actual wants. Poultry at large upon a farm are supposed to have at command all they need for health and business...

When a man knows what his farm lacks for his poultry, it is generally easily supplied; but few persons can tell exactly what is lacking. There is one thing, however, which is very important, which nature does not supply, and which civilization makes necessary...

Charcoal made of wood does not answer the purpose; it has no taste of food is not attractive to the fowl and is seldom eaten. But if any one will put an ear of ripe corn into the fire till the grains are well charred and then shell off the corn and throw it to his flock...

Feeding Soft Corn.

Feed the soft ears of corn to milch cows. A grain in the flow of milch follows. Now stop feeding these soft ears, and give them the big ears, set with hard kernels and it will at once be seen how much more good the soft corn does them...

Tree Planting in New York.

A law of New York State runs as follows: Any inhabitant liable to highway tax who shall transplant by the side of the public highway any forest shade-trees or fruit-trees of suitable size, shall be allowed by the overseers of highways...

The Farmer's Grindstone.

There is no tool as essential on the farm as a good grindstone; it is therefore necessary that every farmer should have one and know how to take proper care of it. A grindstone should always be kept under cover, as exposure to the sun's rays hardens the grit and injures the frame...

For Cleaning Jewelry.

There is nothing better than ammonia and water. If very dull or dirty, rub a little soap on a soft brush, and brush them in this wash, rinse in cold water, dry first in an old silk handkerchief, and then rub with buck or camels skin. Their freshness and brilliancy when thus cleaned cannot be surpassed by any compound used by jewelers.

THE SUN.

1877. NEW YORK. 1877.

The different editions of THE SUN during the past year will be the same as during the year that has just passed. The daily edition will on week days be a sheet of four pages, and on Sundays a sheet of eight pages, or 56 broad columns...

The SUN will continue to be the strenuous advocate of reform and retrenchment, and of the substitution of statesmanship, wisdom and integrity for hollow pretence, inebriety, and fraud in the administration of public affairs. It will contend for the government of the people by the people and for the people as opposed to government in the ballot box and in the counting of votes...

The WEEKLY SUN, eight pages of 56 broad columns, will be furnished during 1877 at the rate of $1 a year, post paid. The benefit of this large reduction from the previous rate for THE WEEKLY can be enjoyed by individual subscribers without the necessity of making up clubs. At the same time, if any of our friends choose to aid in extending circulation...

New Pension Law.

UNDER an act of Congress approved March 3, 1875, widows of officers who were killed, or died of disease contracted in the service, are now entitled to $2.00 per month for each of their children. The guardian of a minor child of a soldier who heretofore only received $5.00 per month pension is now entitled to $10.00 per month. Soldiers who receive invalid pensions can now have their pensions increased to any sum or rate between $5.00 and $15.00 per month...
