Preparations are now being made to build a barn on the hotel property at Elliottsburg, owned by James A. Gray.

The Foundry at Newport has been sold to Jacob Frank, of Howe twp., for $2,175.

A letter from Kansas which will be of interest to many of our readers, will be found on the 6th page.

Miss Corbett, of Rockville, was blown off the canal bridge at that place on Friday last, receiving severe injuries.

On Saturday morning the thermometer registered only 10 degrees above zero; this with a high wind made March appear like "a roaring lion."

A few days ago some thief entered the wood house on the premises of Mr. Isaiah Foose and stole a double-barrelled gun belonging to his son James.

They are determined to have coal in Spring twp., judging from the fact that a shaft has been opened in Green Brier for that purpose not long ago.

The Centre, Germany, and Elliottsburg literary societies continue to meet weekly, and are in a flourishing condition.

A son of J. Weaver of this place fell while wrestling on Saturday last and broke his leg just above the knee. It is only a few months since his other son broke a leg by a fall.

A meeting is now in progress in Little Germany under the auspices of the church of God. As yet none have presented themselves at the altar of prayer as seekers of religion.

A hen's egg measuring 8 1/2 inches in circumference one way, 6 1/2 inches the other, and weighing 5 1/2 ounces, is a curiosity. Such a one was brought in to us last week by Charley McKeehan.

A young man named Baker, aged about 19 years, son of Wm. Baker of Miller twp., fell under a freight train he was trying to get on at Bailey's Station, on Saturday and had his head and one arm cut off.

Mr. M. C. Cleckner of Saville twp., when going home from Bloomfield about two weeks since, fell and dislocated his shoulder, and on Saturday last while on his way to Bloomfield again fell hurting the same shoulder.

A dwelling house, on the farm of Rev. Samuel Zook, in Southampton twp., Franklin county, on Wednesday night a week, with its contents, was entirely destroyed by fire. The house was occupied by Mr. Jacob Nallor, who, with his family, barely escaped from the burning building with their lives. Not a single article was saved, and Mr. Nallor's loss in household effects is entire.

On the night of the 22nd inst., some greasy rascal stole two cans of lard from the premises of Thos. McElvey near Gerty's Notch. The citizens of that portion of the county have been sadly troubled with sneak thieving.

Miss Maggie Murphy, of Boiling Springs, while out riding with a friend a few days ago, lost her pocket book containing $20. The money was found by two gentlemen who returned it to the owner.

The Patriot says: It is now a certainty that the Pennsylvania railroad company will build a new bridge across the Susquehanna River at Rockville, but the precise time when the work is to begin has not been stated.

Mr. R. A. Murray a freight conductor on the Northern Central R. R., was run over by the cars near Williamsport, on last Friday receiving injuries resulting in death. The deceased was a resident of Harrisburg, but a native of this county, his friends residing at Landisburg.

All the Buildings burned by the fire at New Germantown last week were insured in the Madison, Jackson and Toboynne Insurance company. The insurance is estimated at $7,000 on buildings and store goods. About $3,000 of store goods, and furniture were saved, leaving the company liable for about $4,000.

Death from a Kick.—On Saturday aweek, Mr. David Swartz of Jackson twp., was kicked in the stomach by a colt. He suffered until Thursday last when death came to his relief. This is the third death in that twp. from a similar cause within two years.

An Accident.—Mr. John Fry in the employ of the Germany Valley coal company, almost met with a serious accident a few days ago. The end of the shaft in which he was working, was left unbridged for several yards, in consequence of which the slate and rock overhead suddenly gave way, rolled down, prostrated Mr. Fry, and covered up the lower part of his body in such a manner, as prevented him from moving from a very perilous situation. Mr. Thomas Anderson, and Mr. Ira Weaver being near by they soon removed the debris, and Mr. Fry, fortunately escaped with but a few slight bruises.

Ralph L. Rolland, whose name has been before the people for the past year in connection with the robbery of the Chambersburg bank, etc., was convicted, the other day, in the court of Franklin county, of the crime of burglary, and was sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the eastern penitentiary for a period of eight years. The grand jury of that county also found two new bills against Rolland—one for larceny and one for breaking jail. From the Public Opinion, of last week, we learn that Rolland has made several attempts to gain his liberty—the one attempted on last Wednesday night nearly proving a success. With several watch spring saws, a gimlet, and a three-quarter inch augur, he had almost completed a square hole in the floor under his couch, which was discovered in time to frustrate his plans. How the tools came into his possession is at present a mystery.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

On Thursday last as Dr. Elder and Miss Julia Sulouff were driving from the Horningtown school house where they had been attending a prayer meeting, to the residence of her father, Mr. Henry Sulouff, the single tree broke, which caused the horse to run away, throwing the occupants out. The Doctor escaped without receiving any injuries, but Miss Sulouff received an ugly cut under the chin and had several of her front teeth knocked loose. The buggy was completely demolished.

Last Wednesday morning hot ashes were taken out of a stove in the house of Mr. Jonathan McCoy, who resides at the first lock north of town. The ashes were put into a coal bucket; the bucket was put under a bench close up against the weather-boarding on the back porch. About dark on Wednesday smoke was smelled in the house. The family were quite uneasy. They had a vague understanding that a fire smouldered somewhere in the building, but a search that lasted till after midnight failed to find it. About 1 o'clock all lay down to sleep. About 2 o'clock the fire broke out in a sleeping room occupied by a portion of the family. The alarm was given. Neighbors rushed to the scene with buckets and water, and, most remarkable to relate, the house was saved from destruction.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

On Monday last while Mr. Samuel Firestone, of this place, was assisting in hauling lumber from the north mountain, and while attempting to get down off the wagon when near Doubling Gap, his foot caught in the strap attached to the lock of the wagon and he was thrown to the ground, dragged some distance, and his right arm broken near the shoulder. He was otherwise bruised, but none of his injuries are dangerous. Dr. Stewart attended to his injuries. —Newville Enterprise.

Last week Mr. A. C. Oiler, residing in Green Spring, was considerably puzzled to understand the movements of some unknown parties about his premises.—One morning he discovered that a quantity of Hungarian grass seed was missing from his barn, and the next morning he found that every door in the barn was standing wide open, and all the stock had been removed. It is evident that the latter movement was a preliminary to firing the barn, but for some reason the attempt was frustrated. As no further disturbance has occurred the affair has a mysterious look.

Dyspepsia Dyspepsia Dyspepsia. Dyspepsia is the most perplexing of all human ailments. Its symptoms are almost infinite in their variety, and the forlorn and despondent victims of the disease often fancy themselves the prey, in turn of every known malady. This is due, in part to the close sympathy which exists between the stomach and the brain, and in part also to the fact that any disturbance of the digestive function necessarily disorders the liver, the bowels and the nervous system, and effects to some extent, the quality of the blood. E. F. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron is a sure cure. This is not a new preparation, to be tried and found wanting, it has been prescribed daily for many years in the practice of eminent physicians with unparalleled success; it is not expected or intended to cure all the diseases to which the human family is subject, but is warranted to cure Dyspepsia in its most obstinate form. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron never fails to cure. Symptoms of Dyspepsia are loss of appetite, wind and rising of the food, dryness of the mouth, heartburn, distension of the stomach and bowels, constipation, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness and low spirits. Try the great remedy and be convinced of its merits. Get the genuine. Take only Kunkel's which is put only in 2 1/2 bottles. Depot 259 North Ninth St., Philadelphia. Advice by mail free, by sending a 5 cent stamp. Try one bottle of Kunkel's Iron and be convinced of its merits. Sold by druggists and storekeepers everywhere.

The Doctor never fails to remove Tape, Seat, Pin and Stomach Worms. Ask your druggist for a bottle of Kunkel's Worm Syrup. Price, $1. per bottle. It never fails, or send to Dr. Kunkel, 29 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa., for circular with full instructions, by enclosing 5 cent stamp for return of same.—Kunkel's Worm Syrup is used for children or adults with perfect safety, as it is vegetable.
