Brief Items.

Court convened on Tuesday last at 1 o'clock for the transaction of Orphans' Court and miscellaneous business.

Attorney General Lear reiterates his opinion that Constables sworm in after the first Monday of April, 1876, hold over until April, 1878.

Mr. David Deckard of Montgomery's Ferry lost a valuable colt last Tuesday, which got loose in the stable and was kicked by another horse.

The jingle of sleigh bells were heard on our streets on Saturday and Sunday, about 5 inches of snow having fell on Friday and it is again snowing as we

The report that Washington Dill was drowned last week at Duncan's Island seems to be a mistake, as the young man is still on the move.

It is rumored that a man was drown ed in the Susquehanna at Duncannon, on Saturday night aweek, as cries for help were heard opposite the blast furnace at that time.

The Rev. Geo. Robinson, pastor of the has received a Commission as Post Chapiain, U. S. A. The Commission was signed by General Grant as President, on the 3rd of March.

One night last week, an infant child of Mr. Shatzers, of Chambersburg, while asleep was attacked by a rat. When the mother awakened by the child's cries, went to its relief, the rat had already bit-ten the hand of the child in ten dif-

On Tuesday afternoon a special train passed down the Cumberland Valley Railread, containing some two hundred and forty passengers en coute for Kansas and other Western States. The train was principally made up from Franklin county. Another train is expected to leave this week.

Fire.-On Saturday night, the house and basn, on the property of Wm. Cox, in Tuscerora twp., was entirely consumed by fire. Was partially covered by insurance. Cause, a defective flue.

Sudden Death.-Mr. Samuel Klinepeter of near Newport died very suddenly on Tuesday night last. He went to bed in apparently good health, but during the night his wife heard him moan and before she could get a light he was dead.

Grand Exhibition.—There was a grand exhibition held in the M. E. Church, in Blain,on the evening of March 9 and 10. The exercises consisted of Declamations, Dialogues, Essays, Tableaus, Dramas, Singing, etc., and were conducted with great success. The proceeds, which go towards buying a fibrary for the M. E. Sunday School, amounted in all to nearly fifty dollars.

X Horse Stolen .- On the night of the 12th inst., a large black horse was stolen from Mr. Wm. Kistler, who lives on the Spotts' farm near Blue Ball. A reward of $50 is offered for the recovery of the animal and conviction of the thief.

Mr. W. H. Rinesmith traced the horse and thief across the mountain at Waggoner's Gap and as far as Kingston. At that place thinking the thief had gone to Harrisburg, he took the train, but found on his arrival that the man had not come to that city. By telegraph it was learned that he had turned towards New Cumberland, and taking a policeman with him, Mr. R. hurried in that direction, and soon got on his track. But the horse they drove gave out and by the advice of the officer they then gave up the search, and hoping to secure his arrest by telegraphing, Mr. R. returned home.

The chase was, however, resumed that night by Mr. Kistler, but with what success we have not yet learned.

A Reform that is Needed.—There is great ery about civil service reform, and upon one point we think the people of the state who depend on the P. R. R., for mail service will with one accord cry out-" oh! give us reform :" That point is the carrying of the malls. The present arrangement is an outrage and we think must be the special device of the devil. Some of our subscribers living within 20 miles of our office recieve their copy of THE TIMES usually in four days but sometimes not at all and sometimes so mutilated and dirtled that when it reaches them it is of no use. If the postal department cannot remedy the evil, it ought to relinquish the business and allow private citizens to make some arrangements which will be an accommodation and not a nuisance to the people. If the new Postmaster General will correct these evils both Democrats and republicans will acknowledge he is the right man in the right place, and while the former will forgive him for accepting an office at the hands of a Re-publican President the latter will forgive the president for appointing a Democrat to office.

Court Proceedings .- Proceedings of the Orphans' Court held on Wednesday and Thursday, the 13th and 14th inst.

There being no exceptions to any of the accounts of Administrators, Executors or Guardians as filed they were confirmed by the Court.

In the matter of the certiorari to remove all preceedings had before Esquire Henry in case of W. Cree vs. Christo-pher C. Reen, and in which the justice had given judgment for Plaintiff, the Court reversed the jugdment for infor-on account of the extreme illness of C. A. Barnett. Mrs. Barnett, mother of C. A. Barnett, Esq., the court adjourned until Satur-day, March 24th.

Juniata County. - We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

Abeut nine o'clock on Monday evening, the building belonging to R. E. Parker, Esq., and occupied by S. B. Loudon, merchant tailor, John W. Muthersbaugh, hardware store, and B. F. Kepner, drug store, was discovered to be on fire. The fire was discovered in the middle partition upstairs, and how it originated is a mystery. The fire had made considerable headway between the plastering and the walls, and was extinplastering and the walls, and was extin-guished only after hard labor in cutting away the tin roof and plastering. The building is injured probably to the extent

Mr. Loudan had his cloths, cassimeres, &c., considerably damaged by the smoke and water. Mr. Muthersbaugh had his stock of hardware very seriously damaged by being deluged with water coming through the ceiling from the upstairs.

Mr. Kepner sustains no loss, the fire being put out before it had reached over his department.

The building adjoining belonging to Mr. Yeakley was somewhat damaged by having a portion of the tin roof torn off. The latest excitement was the dis-

The latest excitement was the discovery of a cave in Spruce Hill township. It was found by Mr. William Russell on the ridge between his place and where Mr. Harsman lives, about one-quarter of a mile worth of Centre school-house. The cave is about four or five feet square and five or six feet deep. It contained seven glass lamps, some with globes, and bears evidence. some with globes, and bears evidence of having been used; one large glass bottle, with silver top on it; one oil can, almost new, with the name of H. E. Oves stamped on the buttom; two large packs of cards; about one dozen slate pencils, and some copy-books.

Cumberland County.-We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

papers of last week;
In Lanuary last a horse was stolen from a gentleman residing near Stoughstown. Some few days afterwards the animal was purchased in a neighboring county by a Mr. Woodburn, who took it to Newville, where it was identified and returned to its owner. After an investigation into the theft and subsequent purchase, the crime was settled upon a man named Solomon Farner, who had disappeared about the time of the theft.—Careful inquiry was made and last week officer Byers received a telegram from officer Byers received a telegram from Dayton, Chio, informing him that Farner was in custody. Armed with the necessary documents, Mr. Byers went after Farner, whom he lodged safely in Castle Gill on Friday afternoon. Farner will be tried in April.

Dyspepsia Dyspepsia Dyspepsia.

Dyspepala is the most perplexing of all hu-man allments. Its symptoms are almost in-finite in their variety, and the forlorn and despondent victims of the disease often fancy despondent victims of the disease often fancy themselves the prey, in turn of every known malady. This is due, in part to the close smypathy which exists between the stomach and the brain, and in part also to the fact that any disturbance of the digestive function necessarily disorders the liver, the bowels and the nervous system, and effects to some extent, the quality of the blood.
