

THE TIMES.

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after November 29th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing stations like Harrisburg, York, and Pottsville with corresponding train times.

Philadelphia Express leaves Harrisburg at 11.00 p.m., Harrisburg at 11.30 p.m., and Harrisburg at 11.55 p.m.

Philadelphia Express leaves Harrisburg at 10.00 p.m., Harrisburg at 10.30 p.m., and Harrisburg at 10.55 p.m.

Brief Items.

Cumberland county has thirty-one criminals in the Eastern Penitentiary.

An Exchange says: Young men at York while away the quiet hours of Sunday playing cards in the cemetery.

The citizens of Little Germany, in Spring township, are petitioning for the establishment of a post office at that locality.

Rye (Wp.), will send two thousand tons of bark to market this spring, and the farmers in that township complain of scarcity of help.

Captain James Kaey a former resident of Elliptsburg has been appointed station agent at the Bird-in-hand Station of the P. R. R.

A few days ago a stallion owned by Francis Milliken, of Yeagerstown, jumped out of a barn through a door in the overshoot, killing himself by the fall.

Our Band is now improving rapidly. On Saturday evening it discoursed some most excellent new music, which was listened to with much satisfaction.

Mr. Jonas Long, of Turkey Valley, Juniata county, had a stroke of paralysis last Saturday, which it was feared would terminate fatally, but at last accounts he was improving.

Rev. George Robinson has accepted the position of Post Chaplain in the U. S. Army, and has been released from the charge of the Presbyterian church at Duncannon.

The new summer schedule for the running of freight and passenger trains, on the Penn'a Railroad, has been arranged and will go into effect on the 13th inst.

We sometimes run our job press by foot, instead of steam power, much to the disgust of one of our "devils," who insists upon it that it makes him bow-legged. So if the girls notice that defect in either of our boys they will know what causes it.

A horse belonging to Wm. Comery, of Blosserville, last Wednesday laid down in his stable when one foot got through a hole in the weather-boarding, and in his effort to extricate his leg it broke, the accident compelling his owner to kill him.—Carlisle Mirror.

On Saturday a week as Mr. Josiah Kreider, a farmer of South Annville township, Lebanon county, was driving a large boar into a pen, the beast turned on him, and tore a large piece of flesh from his thigh. Several doctors were called, but Mr. Kreider steadily sank, and died the next morning.

A safety envelope to prevent "tampering" with letters has been invented. On the flap the words "attempt to open" are printed with a double set of chemicals, the first impression containing nut galls and the second green vitriol. If the flap be steamed or moistened in any way the magic printing will appear.

Jos. Shuler, Esq., of Liverpool had a singular attack while walking up to this place, from Newport on Tuesday last.—He was near to town when his legs gave out entirely. He met Sheriff Williamson who brought him to town and when he arrived he was unable even to walk into the house without help. Next day, however, he was all right.

District Attorney McAllister and Wm. Weaver, went to Newport on Saturday night to a show, and had more show than was bargained for. While on the way down the perch of the buggy broke and let the vehicle spread over entirely too much ground. A stick of cord wood, some ropes and a few hard words fixed up things so that they were enabled to reach home in safety.

Fisherman's Luck has its changes and variations too. On Saturday last Hon. J. A. Magee and a friend went fishing to the Millerstown dam, and had unusual luck; not in what they caught but in what they lost. They had tied their horse to a tree in the woods, after taking him from the carriage. When they were ready to start home, the vehicle and part of the halter was there, but no horse. After a vain search for the animal they walked to Newport and hired a conveyance for home. The horse was found the next day at a farm house about a quarter of a mile from where he had been left.

Cheap Cards.—In referring to the advertisements promising cards at a very low price, the American Agriculturist says it has been discovered that the object is to secure list of names to be used in malling circulars for obscene books, lotteries, &c. Parents who have allowed their children to send for the cards, should keep a supervision over the mail matter received by them, and if they must have cards, patronize your home office, where a good job will be done at as low prices as can be offered.

A Woman incendiary.—The Bedford County Press says: On Tuesday night of last week, a double log barn with shed attached, the property of William Iams, was destroyed by fire, together with two head of horses and a lot of grain, hay and harness. It is stated that for some time a bitter feud existed between Williams Iams and his brother Hiram who resides near him. Suspicion fell upon Hiram, but investigating the matter it was ascertained that he was not at home on the night of the fire. Later in the day a foot print was discovered in the immediate neighborhood where the barn stood and shortly afterward, other tracks were discovered which it is claimed led to and from Hiram's house. The tracks showed that the boots or shoes had no heels or half soles. Hiram's wife was next suspected. Her house was examined and it is claimed that her shoes looked as though the heels and soles were freshly torn off. It is also said that the heels and half soles were found in her garden. Upon this circumstantial evidence she was arrested and committed to the Bedford jail. Her husband and a child about one year of age accompanied her to the County Seat. She as a matter of course, denies the charge and gave bail in $500 for her appearance at the Quarter Sessions.

Singular but Correct.—A setting hen, belonging to a lady of this place, having left her nest of fourteen eggs at the end of two weeks, and for some cause or other not returning for a day or so, the owner concluded to try an experiment. Taking the eggs which, after dipping in warm water and carefully wrapping in woolen cloths, were placed under a warm stove, she awaited results. At the expiration of five days, the experiment proved successful; fourteen young chicks making their appearance from underneath that stove, looking for their mother. They are in a healthy condition, and do not seem to be in the least concerned by what means they were saved from destruction.—Franklin Repository.

Death from a Kick.—Denton Mowan, a young man aged seventeen, died on the 30th ult., from the effect of a kick received, in the pit of the stomach, by a colt. The young man was visiting his brother, who resides at Mr. Sollenberger's near Chambersburg, and was putting the saddle on the animal to go away when the injury was inflicted.

Items from Blair. Mr. Editor.—Mr. G. W. Garber of this place has a bull which weighed 875 pounds on the day he was one year old. We do not think that this can be beaten in the county. Mr. Jacob Miller intends putting up a Cabinet maker shop in town. A Mr. Evans of Chester county is erecting a steam saw mill in town. The wheat crop looks promising in this part of the county. The Farmers have their oats all sowed, which is growing finely. The Temperance movement has reached our town. Miss Jane Weeden of Medina county, Ohio, lectured here on last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. A great many signed the "Murphy Pledge."

We have a great reformed whiskey drinker in this township. We think he is the champion drinker. He stated on a debate at the "Blair Excelsior Literary Society" on last Wednesday evening, that he drank whiskey for 15 years, and he drank a half gallon every day during that time. We made a calculation and allowing 31 gallons to the barrel, we find that John drank a little over 88½ barrels during that time, and he still lives. We think that John should have the barlow.

Ridpath's History brought down to date is just the book every American citizen should have who is not already supplied with a reliable History of the United States. We know of no work that compares with it in price, and for a one volumed History it is decidedly the best. It is published by Jones Bros. & Co., of Philadelphia. J. H. Young, is their regularly authorized Agent for this County, and he is now soliciting orders for their valuable work.
