OUR CIRCULATION.

For the information of advertisers and others who may be interested in knowing, we will state that the present circulation of THE TIMES is between eighteen hundred and nineteen hundred copies each week.

FOUR TRAMPS fired a barn in Milford, Pa., on Wednesday last, and two of them gave themselves up confessing the deed and saying they did it on purpose to get sent to prison as they were tired of being out of work and food.

THE death of Brigham Young which took place on Thursday last, will not cause any sorrow to the hearts of the American people.

FOR the safety and comfort of travellers the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has adopted this rule: All passengers are expected upon leaving the car to go out at the front door, and all persons entering will go in at the rear door.

DON'T go abroad for work, is the advice of the American Consul at Liverpool to the mechanics of the country. His observation is that those who have left the United States within a year hoping to find employment in England, have been grievously disappointed unless they went out under contracts guaranteeing them work.

Startling Death Scenes.

NEW YORK, August 25.—Charles F. Potter, real estate agent, aged thirty-three years, who resides with his aged father and stepmother at No. 697 Butler street, yesterday morning plucked some flowers from his garden and arranging them in emblematic form went to the residence of John Freeman, No. 635 Butler street, for the purpose of placing them on the coffin which contained the remains of his (Mr. Freeman's) child.

More Railroad Slaughter.

About 4 o'clock Wednesday morning an accident, caused by the washing out of a bridge, occurred on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad at the east branch of Four-Mile Creek, seven miles from Des Moines, Iowa.

Epitaph on Judge Lynch's Victims.

The bodies of three men were found hanging to a tree recently, in Red river county, Texas, with a placard pinned to one of them bearing all the information that is known of them.

Dastardly Outrage by Thieves.

NEW YORK, August 25.—Mrs. Hannah Lane, aged thirty-three years, a seamstress, was taken with an epileptic fit in Central Park yesterday afternoon, and fell to the ground unconscious.

her shoes and underclothing. Officer England, of the Park police, found the unfortunate woman and called in the aid of several ladies who gave her clothing. Being still unconscious, Mrs. Lane was removed to Bellevue. She is a confirmed epileptic, and the exposure to which she was yesterday subjected has made her condition precarious.

A Brute Skinned Alive.

The Mayfield (Ky.) Democrat says: Several weeks ago an eleven-year-old daughter of a Ballard county farmer mysteriously disappeared, and all efforts to find her whereabouts were fruitless until ten days after her disappearance when a neighboring farmer, while out searching for his cow, heard the cries of some one in distress, and following the direction of the sound found the lost child in a dense thicket with both hands tied together with a rope, one end of which was tied to a tree.

A Mysterious Case of Murder and Suicide.

CHICAGO, August 28.—A mysterious case of murder and suicide occurred at a late hour last night. William O'Sullivan aged thirty, sexton of St. Jarlith's Catholic church, while visiting two young ladies at No. 62 Smith street, shot Katie Brannock, aged twenty-three years, over the left ear, killing her instantly.

A Man and Wife Shot by a Tramp.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., August 27.—Stephen Barber, and his wife were shot at their home in Belmont, near Malone, Franklin county, last night. Mr. Barber is dead and the wife, who is shot through the head, is not expected to live.

Impudent Robbers.

WHITE HALL, N. Y., August 27.—A box containing the notes stolen from the Keeseville National bank was returned to them by express to day. The robbers also enclosed a letter saying the money had been disposed of, and the bonds were where all the detectives in America could not find them.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 29th, 1877. When the regular army of the country was organized, after the war, Congress provided that 4 regiments, two of infantry and two of cavalry, should be composed exclusively of colored men.

House still goes on. Randall lately declared that he anticipated no rivalry, but considered himself sure of the chair. He has come out in strong favor of the Texas Pacific Railroad scheme and of Government, and for the leveling of the Mississippi and the reclamation of the waste lands on both sides of it.

We, who are staying at home this summer, are not utterly disconsolate. We have some good things if we can't dip in ocean brine and listen to the saying of the wild waves the whole day long. We have the most luscious of eating. Apples, pears, plums, peaches, melons and grapes are abundant and inexpensive.

Miscellaneous News Items.

Three more companies of regular troops have arrived at Wilkesbarre from Pittsburgh.

Three men have been arrested at Elk city charged with attempting to fire the town.

Smith Boyd, of West Nottingham township, Chester county, dropped dead while collecting eatables for a "harvest home."

A Chester county farmer is making anxious inquiries concerning the whereabouts of a flock of forty turkeys that immigrated the other day.

NEW YORK, August 28.—A dispatch from Chicago states that a large number of business men there went into bankruptcy yesterday.

CITY OF MEXICO, August 19.—A dreadful fire has occurred in the Rosaria mine. Twenty-four lives were lost. Many persons were severely injured.

Judge Henderson, of the Lebanon County Court, announced that the special term for the trial of David E. Risser for the murder of Joseph T. Miller will be held October 8.

Mr. Hugh French, of Mount Olivet, died of hog cholera last Wednesday. The disease was contracted while drenching a hog. The attending physician says the disease was the same as that which affects hogs under the name of hog cholera.

Four young men have just arrived at Greencastle, Ind., direct from Japan, to attend the Ashbury University. They are bright fellows, though extremely odd in their manners. The institution is to educate them to do mission work.

A New York telegram says that a New Haven freight engine No. 18 of the Port Chester branch, was thrown into the Bronx river yesterday at West Chester turnpike drawbridge, the draw being open to allow a sloop to pass.

Jacob Greene, of Clearfield county, while returning home in the cars, which were running rapidly, deliberately got up in a half somnolent state and walked off the platform. With a drunken man's usual luck he escaped unhurt.

A freight train on the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroad ran off the track on Tuesday at Hansell's station. Four tramps were stealing a ride, and two of them, George Hoyle and Fillmore Fagley, were killed, and the other two badly hurt.

An old lady of 60, poorly clad, was put off the train at Hillsburg, Clinton co., Ind., because she could not pay her fare. She instantly threw herself under the trucks of the caboose, which severed her head from her body. Her name is supposed to be Wells, of Chatsworth, Ill.

The District Attorney of Blair county, James F. Milliken, has been arrested at the instigation of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, charged with having on Saturday, July 21st, at Altoona, made a speech to the strikers for the purpose of getting them to strike.

Mrs. Fanny Bauers, of Easton found her husband in the company of another woman. She determined to commit suicide and threw herself into the Bushkill in their presence. She was rescued by some men, and while they were so engaged her husband cried out, "Let her go."

Hiram M. Trout, of Reading, a member of the City Council, had a quarrel with William Stott, which ended in the latter plunging a knife into the abdomen of Mr. Trout, inflicting a serious if not fatal wound. Stott was arrested after a severe struggle and committed to await the issue of the injury inflicted upon Mr. Trout.

The ladies of Suffield, Mass., held a sewing society the other day. One was accompanied by a dog. A lady objected to the beast's familiarity, and its owner stood by the dog. The company joined with the complainant, and words were soon succeeded by blows. The dog came to the rescue of his mistress, and finally with her remained in possession of the field. The others had run away.

Thomas Lowndes, who was convicted in 1874 of the murder of his wife in Williamsburgh, has sent to his counsel, Mr. A. W. Gleason, a box of his own handwork, made in prison.

A madman, almost starved, was discovered in a box car on the Western bound freight train at Goshen, Ind., last week. He was crouched at one corner of the car, stark naked, grinning hideously at passers-by.

While a train on the Michigan Southern was approaching Abonia near Allegan, a few days ago, the engineer saw a woman about midway of the railroad bridge, but was too close upon her to stop. She took in the situation, and got down on her hands and knees at the end of the ties and lay there until the train had passed, the car tops just brushing her clothing.

A citizen of Washington, N. Y., lost a cow recently in a singular manner. In going down a hill she attempted to pass between two small trees that stood about fifteen inches of each other, and her hips struck between the trees holding her fast in this position.

The unusual scene of three hod carriers in a fierce fight on top of a three story brick building upon which they were at work was witnessed recently at Bellows Falls, Vt., each trying to throw the other over. They might have succeeded had not the local police climbed to the roof and arrested them.

A party of emigrants from Ohio, named Wilson, en route in a wagon to Kansas, met with a sad accident 6 miles from Fort Wayne a few days since. Their horses, becoming frightened, dashed over a high bank into the Maumee river, seriously injuring Wilson and wife and killing their five year old son.

One man was killed and another was seriously injured by a freight train running into the sleeping car of a passenger train at Hudson, New York, on Tuesday night, and this loss of life and maiming of limbs was caused by the negligence of a flagman in displaying the wrong light.

Some time ago an aged man who had lost his wife came into our sanctum, and with tears standing in his eyes, eulogized the memory of the deceased, and asked us record the death in our next issue. "And," said he, "while you are about it, make an item about one of my Brahma hens laying an egg, measuring seven and a quarter by eight and three-quarter inches in circumference."

The Working Men of Duncannon and Penn Township in Line.

DUNCANNON, August 31st, 1877. The working men of Duncannon and vicinity assembled according to notice yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, in P. F. Michener's Hall. Seventeen additional names were added to the roll, we had a couple of short but spirited speeches, which added much to the interest of the meeting.
