

THE TIMES. Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after June 25th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing stations and train times.

Notes regarding train schedules and express services.

Brief Items.

See the 8th page for some new and important advertisements. Friend Ferguson of the News evidently takes great interest in Croquet, but we wish he would call it by its right name—'Presbyterian billiards.'

Greenbackers in Council.—On Thursday afternoon last eleven faithful and devoted followers of Peter Cooper and his Greenback Policy assembled in convention at the Court House, in this place, for the purpose of delegating a representative to the State Greenback Convention which meets at Williamsport, Pa., on the 19th inst., and to transact other business.

H. B. Zimmerman, of Newport, was chosen to preside over the deliberations of the convention, and A. H. Stephens, of Penn township, elected Secretary.

On motion, H. B. Zimmerman, candidate for County Surveyor on the Democratic ticket, was elected delegate to the State Convention, and W. H. Willis, of Penn township, chosen Chairman of the County Committee with instructions to call a County Convention some two weeks subsequent to the meeting of the State Convention.

It is the intention of those citizens of our county who are apparently wedded in good faith to the Cooper Greenback Policy to nominate a full county ticket at their convention. If they so do the entire strength of the party will doubtless be developed at the election on Tuesday November 6th.

A Desperate Convict.—The Carlisle Volunteer says:—While Deputy Sheriff Shrom was on his way to Philadelphia on Tuesday of last week with the convicts sentenced to the Eastern Penitentiary, at the last session of court, one of them named Jos. Baughman, made a desperate effort to escape from the car that the party were in, on the Reading railroad, breaking two windows and the guard iron thereof, and lacerating his wrists, which were encircled with handcuffs, in a painful manner. After a hard struggle the prisoner was properly secured, and finally landed in Cherry Hill.

Court Proceedings.—Below we give a report of the proceedings of the regular Orphan's and Argument Court held on Tuesday 11th inst., and continued until noon on Thursday 13th inst., with the Hon. B. F. Junkin President Judge and the Associates, Hons. Jno. A. Baker and Jno. Bear, on the Bench.

MISCELLANEOUS. A decree of divorce was granted in the case of Elijah Wingert, libellant, vs. Addie Wingert, respondent.

Joseph Bowers, an applicant for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this Commonwealth, received his final discharge.

In the case of Reeder vs. Williamson, a new trial was refused on condition that Plaintiff accept a judgment for $185.30 otherwise a new trial granted.

In the case of Burnett vs. Rinesmith a new trial was granted.

A decree was made authorizing and empowering the M. E. Church, in Bloomfield to borrow the sum of $300, and execute a mortgage for security to the lender.

The case of John Raynard's use, vs. H. F. Drawbaugh and Aaron Egoft terre tenant was an application on the part of Defendants to have a judgment opened and they let into a defense. As Judge Junkin was formerly concerned as counsel, Judge Bucher heard the Argument and made the rule for the opening of the judgment absolute and directed it to be put down for trial at the January term.

The August term a jury was drawn for the purpose of disposing of three cases on the civil list. The jurors all answered to their names when called, except Jos. Sadler, of Marysville, who, on account of sickness, could not attend, and it was agreed by all parties that the cases should be tried before the eleven jurors present.

The first of these cases was that of Daniel Eter vs. Jno. Hartzell, def., and Geo. W. Zinn and Jno. X. Eichel, Ex'rs of Geo. L. Gebel, Garnishes. This case was settled by the parties.

The second case was that of A. W. Donaldson vs. Caroline Duncan. This was a judgment opened and the defense was a total want of consideration. Verdict for Defendant.—Spensler and Smiley for Plaintiff, Potter and Barnett for Defendant.

The last case was Mollie Keagy vs. the Administrators of Chas. Vanderae, dec'd. Plff. was the widow of Chas. Vanderae and this action was brought to recover different sums of money loaned to her former husband in his lifetime. Verdict for Plff. for $714.68%.

QUARTER SESSIONS. In the case of the Com. vs. E. K. Biting, Samuel E. Albright and John Sheaffer in which Defts. were convicted of larceny at the last Court motion was made for a new trial. In the meantime the two first named had been taken out of jail on their recognizances, but failing to appear, their recognizances were forfeited, afterwards however, they were respited until the first day of Oct. term. If the parties do not then appear their sureties will be compelled to pay the amount for which their recognizances were given.

In the case of the Com. vs. W. W. Farnsworth a new trial was refused and Deft. being unable to pay costs, bid farewell for a time to his old constituency and accompanied Sheriff Williamson to the stone jail where he will remain a guest of the County for the present.

The business of the Court having been mainly disposed of it was adjourned until the 24th inst.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

This community seems to be over-ridden by a pack of mean, unprincipled potato thieves. Several cases of theft and attempted theft has been reported, and just the other night between twenty and twenty-five bushels were taken from the patch of Constable Wilson, above Port Royal.

The saw mill of Joshua Roush, one mile South of Richfield, was stopped by a run of eels on Saturday. How many of the slippery fish got through between the wall and the water-wheel no one knows, but certain it is, only three large eels brought the machine to a stand-still. One of the eels was cut into pieces, but the other two were too tough to be cut, and slippery as they were, they made admirable wedges. It was no small work to remove the obstruction.—Sentinel.

On Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Samuel D. Kepner, of Turbett twp., was engaged in putting up tomatoes, and just after corking up a jug full, the cork was blown out, caused by a pressure of steam which had generated from the hot tomatoes, throwing about half of the contents of the jug over her face and breast, scalding her in a terrible manner. Dr. Sterrett was summoned and administered the necessary medical attention.—Port Royal Times.

On Saturday night, William Coulture, a saddler, who has been for some time under the employ of James Simons, of Port Royal, and brother of Mrs. Thomas Sherlock, retired as usual to his room for the night, and all was thought right until morning when he was called to breakfast several times and did not either answer or make his appearance. After repeated calls, Mr. Simons repaired to his room and after calling again and receiving no answer, he opened the door and entered the room, and there found him prostrated upon the floor with hands bleeding and one ear badly torn down and bleeding. He was immediately lifted upon the bed, but could not speak or give any account of what had happened to him. Medical aid was immediately sent for and rendered what help they could for the suffering man.—It is not known how long he had been in that condition. Whether he had been lying there all night struggling, and thus injured himself so as to cause the bleeding, or whether he had attempted to get up and was overcome by some mysterious powers, cannot now be told; but at all events, his is a singular case, and enough to alarm his friends.—He was, on Monday, removed to the residence of Rev. Sherlock, where he is now receiving the best of care and attention.

A few weeks since whilst workmen were engaged in excavating for the purpose of building a lime-kiln on the side of a hill on the farm of John Kurtz, near Lindsay's mill, in West Pennsboro' twp., they very unexpectedly opened up the mouth of a cave. The opening is large enough to allow a person of medium size to enter. The cave, we learn from Carlisle's who have visited it, is 15 1/2 feet wide, 8 1/2 feet high, and some folks have entered to the distance of twenty feet. The freaks of nature depicted on the solid rock in the cave are said to be grand. We shall have more to say about the cave in the future.

About a month ago we made mention of the fact that grave robbers had visited the Mennonite graveyard, on the Lisburn road, in South Middleton township, and desecrated the grave of a young man named Geo. Lucas. About a week or ten days since the same grave was again disturbed, the coffin having been broken open, and leaving the corpse exposed to the air. The parties engaged in this despicable business should be detected and punished.
