Brief Items.

As we go to press an adjourned court is in session.

The post office at Montgomery's Ferry has been re-established. Our thanks are due Mr. Fred Wardeck-er, of Carroll twp., for a nice lot of grapes and cabbages.

The Juniata County Fair is to be held at Port Royal on the third, fourth and fifth of October. The B. S. Rice farm in Saville twp., has been sold by the Assignees to B. F.

Rice for $3,880. Those interested in improving the grave yard in this place, are requested to meet at the grounds, on Saturday of

Our friends who wish us to publish reports of meetings, &c., should furnish us the reports in time, and not ask us to copy when a week or two old.

On Saturday aweek, William, a little son of Mr. O. P. Rider, of Newport, was run over by a wagon while playing in the street and somewhat injured.

XA few nights since, Mr. W. S. Hostetter, of Miller twp., suffered from a visit by thieves, who stole a lot of butter, canned fruit and other eatables.

Mr. Jacob Keefer, of Lykens Valley, Dauphin county, has raised a sweet potato on his farm that weighed four pounds and seven ounces. Who can beat it?

We wonder how many of our ex-changes, who are publishing the large, cheap jewelry ads., will ever see any money for it. "Pay in advance is our motto for these chaps.

On Sunday a week, the family of Mr. B. J. Cauffman, of Juniata twp., went to church and while absent their house was broken into and robbed of some clothing and food. Tramps are credited with this wickedness.

Some chap went through Mrs. Flemming's cellar in Carroll twp., on Tuesday night last. If Samuel Rice had wore boots that went on easier he is confident he would have caught the rascal. As it was he was able to track him and measure his foot prints.

We have a communication from Buffalo twp., which makes some very startling statements. Names, dates, etc., are given with such minuteness that we hand the matter to the authorities to in-Perhaps they can find out who killed the peddler.

Mr. W. H. H. M'Clintock, of this place, has a horse which may be considered remarkably safe. A few evenings since, Harry fell out of the buggy while coming up the narrows, but the horse came safely on to town without breaking anything, or even jostling the cushions off the seat.

A few nights since, Mr. Adam Clouser of this place, set some steel traps to catch an owl that was visiting his chicken coop. The next morning one of the traps was missing. A young man while hunting a day or two afterward shot an owl and was greatly astonished as the bird fell from the tree, to hear a clanking of chains. It proved to be the owl which had flew away with the miss-ing steel trap, fast to its legs.

Cut in Pices.-On Thursday a young man named John Moore, residing in Harrisburg, fell while trying to get on a moving freight train near Losh's Run, and was run over by the entire train .-He was not only cut in two, but had both arms cut off. The remains were gathered up, and taken to his home after an inquest had been held.

What is it? - On Saturday last, Mr. Wm. Askins whilst fishing for Bass, in Sherman's creek, below Dugan's dam, caught a strange looking creature, of a brownish color, shaped something like the common water lizard. It was 22 inches in length, had a broad, flat head, was as tenacious as a snapping turtle and active as an eel.

MENS' WEAR. you want some cheap goods for pants or suits? If you do, don't fall to examine the splendld assortment for sale by F. MORTIMER. You can suit yourself in style and price.

A Long Potato. - Our friend J. T. Robinson, of Sandy Hill, thinks he and Mr. Hollenbaugh has beat the world on sweet potatoes. He says that he pried one out with a boe handle that measured 43 inches in length. If he did not say he refered to the potato, we should think he was giving the length of the hoe handle, but he expressly says, that was the length of the potatoe. The circumference was 91 inches. Either the story or the potato is hard to beat.

Who Killed the Peddler ?-This is a question that is agitating the minds of people in the vicinity of Montgomery's Ferry. It appears that some time in July, 1876, a peddler stopped at a house in that vicinity, and rather mysteriously disappeared, leaving his horse and wagon, and has never returned. The body of an unknown man was some time afterwards discovered at or below Duncan's Island, and now it is thought by many persons that the unknown man and the peddler are the same individuals. At any rate, the talk warrants an investigation of the matter and the threats of certain persons " to tell who killed the peddler" makes It look as though there was a pretty fair chance to put a crime where it belongs, and clear up a mystery. As we have said before, we say again, that a good detective is sadly needed in the vicinity of Montgomery's Ferry. He might not only break up the stealing, but find out who killed the peddler?

The Pomegranate of the Bible .- Mr. John Olewine, residing on Front street, above Riley, has in his attractive flower garden a pomegranate 'tree, about ten years old, which has been bearing fruit for the past three or four years. The fruit is about the size of an orange, is quince shaped, with a smooth, pale green rind, hard to the touch, and is filled with numerous large seeds-the flesh being perfectly red, and tastes, when mature, much like a fresh fig. The fruit is frequently mentioned in the Bible, and the Israelites of today prize is very highly. An ornament resembling the pomegranate is placed on the robe and ephod of the Jewish high priest. Mr. Olewine's valuable tree, about three feet in height, bears eighteen specimens of the fruit this year. Last years it had twelve, and the year before eight.-Harrisburg Patriot.

John Tyson captured another bear yesterday in one of his pens on the Mountain but was compelled to kill him to prevent his escaping, he having gnawed one of the logs of the pen off and was nearly ready to decamp when they arrived at the pen.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

On last Thursday evening an unfor-tunate and fatal accident occurred at the tunate and fatal accident occurred at the Thudium House. A young man named Solomon Nickey was engaged in testing the pacing qualities of a young colt; but the animal becoming fractious and unmanageable, tumbled the young man. In falling, his head struck a stone, rendering him insensible. He was picked up and carried into the hotel, where the best medical skill was summond. But st medical skill was summoned. But he never rallied, and at 5 o'clock on Friday morning death ensued from congestion of the brain.

The residence of Mr. George Hauck, Sr., cerner of Main and Frederick streets was entered very early on Monday morning by some burglariously inclined individual. About three o'clock Mr. Hauck heard a noise in the back part of his house, and thinking it was a cat, he got up and stirred around to frighten it off. Shortly after returning to bed he was again aroused by a similar noise, when he arose and went into the room whence the sound proceeded, to try to find the intruder, which he still thought was a cat. The feline not being in sight, he stamped his foot on the floor, and in a tone which was not mild, said "Git!" when he was surprised by see-"Git!" when he was surprised by see-ing the form of a man rise before him and hastily jump out of the window. Mr. H. was unarmed, but he speedly went down stairs got his reacher. went down stairs, got his revolver, and returned in time to see the fellow slide off the edge of the roof of an adjoining building into the yard, out of reach of his weapon.—Mechanicsburg Ledger.

With their bloom of white and gold,
And our faces are hid from each other
In the church yard, so white and so coid,
Of the many dear ones who will never
See our faces or greet us again.
Are there any kind hearts in that day, love,
Who will think of us, care for us then?
