Brief Items.

Duncannon is hereafter to be a "Money Order" post office.

Come to the Soldiers' Reunion at Bloomfield on the 18th inst.

The Methodist Church of this borough purpose holding a Festival on Court week.

Gov. Hartranft has accepted the invitation to be present at the Soldiers' Reunion, in this place, on the 18th inst.

More improvement and building is going on in this town this season, than has been done in several years.

Mr. Daniel Foose of Spring twp., has cider which is pronounced by good judges to be equal to the best wine.

The crowd that had been borrowed from the stone church in Germany, has been returned in good condition.

A postmistress in Maine has been fined $117.80 for opening a letter passing through her office.

The farm of Benjamin Rice in Madison twp., was sold on last Thursday, by D. Kistler, Esq., Assignee, to William Rice, of Bloomfield, for $505.00.

On Friday morning a freight wreck occurred at Bally's, one freight train running into another that was standing there, wrecking the caboose and several cars. No person was hurt.

The hog disease has begun to kill off the hogs in this borough (we mean the four legged ones), Mr. Spotts and Mr. Michael Clouser have each lost a very fine one, and others are affected.

The Franklin County Fair opens today (Tuesday), and will continue until Friday. The trial premiums amount to $4.90. A novel feature is a premium for the fastest walking horse. This trial will take place on Friday at 11 o'clock.

Now comes the days when the sturdy farmers dump a load of dirt into some mudhole in the highway, yells, "Haw, buck!" at his off ox, preks the nigh one with a bradawl, and goes home under the impression that he has worked out his road tax in full.

Young man go West and buy a horse and dray. A drayman in Davenport, Iowa, who has been a hard worker for twenty years, and is still at it, owns eight good dwelling houses, and has $5,000 in the bank. Another drayman there, who got trusted for his dry 23 years ago, retired four years ago worth $30,000.

The Harrisburg Patriot says:—A verdant individual from Perry Co., applied for consolation at the Mayor's office last week. He stated that he had been robbed of a considerable sum of money in one of the dens of iniquity and wanted aid toward sending him home. The Mayor thought the Perry countian old enough to know better, and allowed him to depart in peace.

Next Week, Thursday, we want every man in Perry county to come to the Reunion. Bring your wife or sister, and if you haven't a sister bring some other man's sister, but come. You will have lots of music, and some good speeches and no doubt will have a good time generally.

Indian Balm.—This celebrated medicine is manufactured by D. B. Hurley, of New Germantown, Perry County, Pa. It is composed of herbs and is said to be a sure remedy for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Coughs, Liver Diseases, Loss of Appetite, Piles, &c. Try it. Price, 50 cents per bottle. $5 per dozen bottles.

The Schools of Spring twp., have been granted to the following named persons: Ellittsburg school, J. G. Snyder; Germany, S. A. Dum; Kansas, T. J. Bowers; Adams' Glen, Mollie Hall; Milltown, D. B. Kane; Springdale, J. C. Shibley; Union, A. H. Glenn; Quaker Point, Ida L. Evinger; St. Peter's, A. W. Souder; Oak Grove, A. D. Hager; Pisgab, Laura Gibson. Wages paid in that twp., range from $22 to $26 per month.

A Fish Story.—A Sandy Hill correspondent writes us to the effect that during the recent high water, Mr. Samuel K. Lynard caught an uncommonly large lot of fish, eels, pike, etc. The rain washed a lot of unslaked lime into Milligan's mill dam which caused the representatives of the finny tribe to come to the surface and gasp for breath when they were easily taken by Mr. L. The correspondent also insists that the potato story as published in the TIMES of last week was literally true, and that he is prepared to back up the statement by a "swear."

Greenback Convention.—The delegates elected to represent the several townships in a Greenback Convention, for the purpose of placing in nomination a ticket for the suffrages of the people at the November election, assembled at the Court House at 11:30 o'clock on Saturday morning last, and was called to order by W. W. Willis, of Penn twp., Chairman of the County Committee, who said: "We are assembled here today to nominate a full ticket and not to endorse any candidate already in the field. We want an independent ticket."

J. Jones Holland, of Penn twp., was chosen to preside over the deliberation of the convention and Lewis Bergstresser, of Duncannon, elected Secretary.

J. A. Bower, of Spring twp., and J. E. Cook, of Wheatfield, were appointed a committee on credentials and reported the following delegates as entitled to seats in the convention:

Buffalo—J. S. A. Potter, G. W. Myers; Duncannon—Abraham Roath, Louis Bergstresser; Marysville—Wm. Ansbach, P. J. Nevins; Newport—John Sheats, Samuel Dickey; Oliver—Jacob Bower, Samuel Haines; Penn—J. J. Holland, Cornelius Baskins; Spring—Dr. Wm. Hayes, J. A. Bower; Wheatfield—Levi Ebersole, John E. Cook.

Buffalo—J. S. A. Potter, G. W. Myers; Duncannon—Abraham Roath, Louis Bergstresser; Marysville—Wm. Ansbach, P. J. Nevins; Newport—John Sheats, Samuel Dickey; Oliver—Jacob Bower, Samuel Haines; Penn—J. J. Holland, Cornelius Baskins; Spring—Dr. Wm. Hayes, J. A. Bower; Wheatfield—Levi Ebersole, John E. Cook.

Convention re-assembled at 1:30 o'clock and the following preamble and resolutions offered by Jacob Bowers and P. J. Nevin, committee, were adopted:

WHEREAS, Past experience has fully demonstrated the policy, and impropriety of further continuing the corrupt practice of having the man seek the office, and thus bring into disrepute our whole political machinery.

And whereas, it is the honest desire of the Greenback Labor Reform party to sincerely bar the door of our party against the admission of any and all dead beats, and professional political wire-pullers into our ranks.

Therefore be it resolved that we will support no man as a candidate for office of whatsoever kind in Perry county, who does not receive his nomination as follows: That every election precinct in the county has the right, if it so desires, to name one man (as candidate for one particular office and no more), whose name shall be presented to the Convention by the delegates representing the candidate's district, and one or both of said delegates shall be required to state in open Convention, that the gentleman named did not seek the nomination, but that his name is announced as the choice of his district, and that no candidate shall be allowed to canvass or have his name announced before the Convention by any other district than the district in which the candidate resides.

Resolved, That we, the representatives of the United Greenback and Labor Reform Parties, in Convention assembled, do heartily and unanimously approve the platform and resolutions adopted at Williamsport, Pa., on the 19th of September, and that we leave nothing undone to insure the success of the State ticket then and there nominated.

Resolved, That the county ticket placed in nomination this day be given the full, free and hearty support of all in attendance at this Convention.

The Convention then proceeded to nominate candidates. For Associate Judge, Harrison McCracken, of Buffalo twp., received 14 votes, and Samuel Haines, of Oliver twp., 2 votes.

For Sheriff, Geo. W. Wetzel, of Penn twp., received 14 votes, and Geo. W. Kissinger, of Marysville, 2 votes. The name of J. W. Beers, of Marysville, was mentioned in connection with the Sheriffly nomination, but was subsequently withdrawn.

For Director of the Poor, Dr. Louis Ellerman, of Spring twp., was nominated by acclamation.

No nomination was made for County Surveyor, the Chairman of the Co. Com. being instructed to fill the vacancy at his leisure.

The following additional members of the County Committee were appointed: Buffalo—George W. Myers. Spring—Dr. W. M. Hayes, J. Bowers. Marysville—Jacob Walters, William Natchett. Wheatfield—C. J. Heisley, L. M. Ebersole. Miller—Jacob Peterman, Geo. Losh. Juniata—John Hogentogler, John Raffenberger. Tyrone—Aaron M. Egolf.

Presbytery of Carlisle.—The fall meeting of this body was held at Gettysburg on Tuesday October 2nd. Rev. S. C. George of the St. Thomas and Rocky Spring churches preached on Tuesday evening, and Rev. J. C. Caldwell, of Chambersburg, on Wednesday evening. The items of interest most affecting this county were the appointments of the biennial committees of visitation.—For Duncannon, Revs. MacPherson and Edgar.—Shermansdale, Drs. Norcross and Murray.—Newport, Revs. Reigart and Wyeth.—Millertown, Revs. West and Vance.—Bloomfield, Dr. Erkine and Rev. Downey.—Landsburg and Centre, Revs. Mahon, Hays and Edgar.—Ickesburg, Revs. Downey and Logan.—Blain, Revs. Woodburn and McCane. Sessions of churches are expected to write early in season to these committees and arrange times of visitation to suit them, as committees have often several appointments. Their traveling expenses are paid by the churches they visit. Duncannon has called Rev. W. W. Downey on $800 and a free parsonage. Millerstown has a new parsonage. West end of county was not represented but it is hoped the officers of vacant churches in that section will soon assemble their members to devise measures, for keeping open God's houses and for continuous preaching of his word therein.

Run Off and Smash Up.—On Monday afternoon Daniel Smith and George Albright took George W. Charters' horse out of the latter's stable, and hitched it to the light market wagon for the purpose, they say, of bringing home a load of pine knots, with which to make light when fishing after night. On their way back to this place, later in the evening, near Eshelman's mill, they collided with William Toomey, who was driving home in a buggy, breaking the shafts of the later's vehicle, besides doing other damage to the buggy. The market wagon fared worse, having been upset, the top was torn off, one wheel was badly dished, and the shafts were broken, while the pine knots were scattered helter skelter. The wagon was left standing where the smash-up occurred, and Mr. Charters' horse ran home, where he was found, in the stable, with the harness badly broken and hanging in all shapes over the animal's body.—Newport News.

Very Singular.—The Duncannon Record says: Some three weeks ago there appeared, just under the right jaw of Arthur Toland, son of our postmaster, a lump about the size of a shellbark, which the boy's parents supposed to be a boil, and which his mother began forthwith to poultice. The lump continued to increase in size till it became almost as large as a hen egg, and on Sunday when changing the poultice, Mrs. Toland saw what she supposed to be the core of the boil, but what proved to be a hideous brown worm nearly an inch in length. The reptile is still alive at this writing (Monday), and is exhibited by Toland to all curious beholders.

Lucky Escape.—George Fasick, who now resides near Tyrone, Blair county, made a very narrow escape from being shot by two burglars. From the facts before us, we learn that last week two burglars attempted to break into a store or house near his residence, and, he hearing the racket went to see what it meant. When the men saw him and his wife they skulked away, but after moving away about fifty or sixty yards one of them turned and fired at Mr. Fasick, the ball passing so close to his head that he heard it whistle. We congratulate George on his narrow escape and hope he may never again experience the same.—Twice-a-Week.

A Curious Fact.—The Harrisburg Patriot says:—A well-known Market street jeweller gives the following curious fact in reference to the use of tobacco: He does not use the weed, neither does one of his workmen. One of the employees of his store uses tobacco almost to excess. The former two can handle any polished tool in the shop and lay it aside again, without wiping it off, and no injury will follow, while on the other hand, if the employee who indulges in tobacco, forgets to wipe off any of the tools of a fine finish, rust spots will invariably appear in a very short time.

Missing Letters.—Postmaster General Key has addressed the following letter to postmasters throughout the country, and they will be placarded conspicuously in the respective post offices:

"Postmasters are required to keep a complaint book in which all letters reported to them as lost are to be entered; and, after making examinations in their offices, they are required to report the loss with all particulars without delay. The public are also invited to report promptly all losses or irregularities in the correspondence to chief special agent, post office department, Washington, D. C., and investigation will follow. If all

Paul Schoeppe Turns Up.—The Cincinnati Commercial of a recent date publishes the following paragraph under the caption of "Adventures of a Bogus Count": "Many will remember the then notorious case, several years ago, of Paul Schoeppe, who was tried in Pennsylvania for poisoning a Miss Stelmecke, who was very wealthy. He was twice convicted of murder in the first degree, and on the third trial was convicted in the third degree. Through the influence of friends he was soon pardoned out of prison. Subsequently he came to Cincinnati, and under the name and title of Count Schulenburg, figured in an engagement of marriage with a well known German actress. On the day the marriage was set for, he encountered a former eastern acquaintance, who recognized him, whereupon he immediately fled. Under the same name he was convicted of forgery in Chicago and served two years in the Joliet penitentiary. Afterwards he obtained a position as a German writer on the Courier newspaper in St. Louis, but was soon identified and dismissed. Thence he went to New York city, where he was known as Count Schmettow. As Count Schmettow he recently applied for by letter and obtained a position on the editorial staff of one of the Cincinnati morning dailies. Yesterday he arrived here. He was not long in the city before he met an old St. Louis acquaintance, who threatened to expose him. The last known of the Count was his taking an afternoon train for the west."

Losses should be promptly reported it will be the means of correcting the irregularities, and the interest of the public, as well as the efficiency of the postal service, will be enhanced in a most important degree. The omission of the county in the address of letters is one of the great causes of delay and mis-sending."

The Game Laws.—The game laws of Pennsylvania limit the period for the shooting of game, as follows: Wild turkeys, from October 1 to January 1; plover, from August 15 to January 1; woodcock, from July 1 to January 1; quail, from October 1 to January 15; pheasants, from October 1 to January 1; rail and reed birds, from September 1 to December 1; rabbits, from October 15 to January 1; deer, from October 1 to January 1. Insectivorous birds, not at all.

Gumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

Rev. J. M. Mickley, of McKnightstown, Adams county, has accepted a call from Newburg charge, Reformed church.

The residence of David Cocklin, in Hoguetown, this county, was entered and robbed of $90, on last Saturday morning.

On Monday evening, between eight and nine o'clock, the brick stable belonging to Mr. Charles H. Mullin, at Mt. Holly, was discovered to be on fire and was entirely consumed. Mr. Mullin's "Maud," a thoroughbred mare valued at $1,000, (dam of "Papermaker"), with a blooded colt by her side, were both consumed by the flames. The loss is supposed to be about $3,500 to $3,800—insured I have been informed. The place, it was thought, was set on fire.

Yesterday noon as E. B. Long, son of our townsman David Long, Esq., was walking up Main street, he stopped at the corner of Frederick, and while in conversation with a friend suddenly dropped over, his head striking a stone, cutting it somewhat. He was carried to the residence of his brother-in-law, J. M. Seuseman, near by, and Dr. M. B. Mosser, summoned, who pronounced it a case of sun stroke. Mr. L., was similarly affected about a month ago, while walking the street; and, in fact has been in ill health pretty much all summer. He was quite ill some time ago, but was convalescing when the accident occurred.—Mechanicsburg Ledger.

On Friday last, Samuel Rupert, an aged citizen of our borough, while walking on the railroad track a short distance above the depot, made a marvelous escape from being killed. The Dillsburg freight was backing up the main track, and Mr. R., being very deaf, did not hear the approach of the train in his rear, and would have been struck by the first car had not Mr. Beatty, one of the train men, observed him, and failing to attract his attention by calling to him, jumped from the train, ran ahead and pushed him off the track, just in time to save his life, being slightly struck by the bumper himself.—Id.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

On Monday morning, just as Mrs. Solomon Books stepped into her garden, a pheasant flew into the garden.—Mr. Books was called, and without any trouble the bird was captured alive, it being entirely overcome by its long flight. The pheasant may be seen alive by calling on Postmaster Books.

A son of Edward Warner, of this borough, had a gun to explode last Friday, while in the act of shooting at a fish-hawk. The explosion blew the end off the second finger of the left hand, and otherwise injured the hand. The boy is aged about 15 years.—Millintown Sentinel.

Jonas Reno, of Fermanagh township, this county, sold between 300 and 400 pounds of grapes at the Millintown fair last week.

Last Saturday Robert McMeen, Assignee of J. W. Sartain, sold the farm of the latter for the sum of $2,861, to Geo. Herr, of Mexico.

Mr. John Robinson, residing near Academia, has lost about thirty shotes by death this season, and there are still more sick. Cholera is the disease.
