

THE TIMES. Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after June 25th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing stations and train times.

Express leaves Harrisburg at 11:00 P.M., Newport 11:27 (fast) and arrives at Pittsburg at 10 A.M.

Brief Items.

On Wednesday evening about seven o'clock some "thieving cuss" stole a large roast from Minich's refrigerator...

David Risser, of Lebanon Co., charged with the murder of Mr. Miller has been acquitted.

A little son of Maj. Griffith Jones, a former resident of Duncannon, recently lost an eye by the explosion of a torpedo, with which he was playing.

E. B. McCrum, Esq., has sold an interest in the Millintown Tribune, to Mr. J. M. Bowman of the Mt. Union Times, who will edit the paper.

A little three year old daughter of Joseph Boehm of Harrisburg, was run over and instantly killed by a street car on Wednesday last.

Messrs. George and Frederick Barnett of this borough have made a contract with Mr. Singer Whitmer to work their farm the coming year.

S. H. Galbraith, Esq., a former resident of this county, died at his residence in New Oxford, Adams county, on Monday of last week.

Among the notables in town on Thursday last, we noticed the editor of the Ledger. We wonder if he saw the terrible fighting he so graphically described.

Dr. Ellerman declines being a candidate on the Greenback ticket, and D. Morrison, Jr., of Tyrone twp., has been named as candidate for Director of the Poor in his place.

G. E. McClellan, one of the boys employed in THE TIMES office, cut an artery in his leg on Wednesday last, while cutting spruce for decoration, which has caused him to use a crutch for several days.

The Ledger has a very sensational report of the proceedings of last Thursday afternoon and evening in this place. It is evident that their correspondent had drunk more than his share of the fighting whiskey he speaks of.

Cranes seem to be very plenty this season. Already we have recorded the killing of several and now Mr. John Baughman reports the killing of one on W. W. Snyder's dam, that measured 5 feet 2 inches in height and 6 feet 1 inch across the wings.

On Thursday evening of last week Mr. Christian Kaufman, who resided in Latimore township, Adams county, about one-half mile from Deardorf's mill and about six miles from Dillsburg, suddenly dropped dead in his yard when on his way from his barn to his house.

On Saturday last Annie, little daughter of Philo Shively, residing in Fernmanagh tp., Juniata co., met with an accident by which she broke her leg. She was after chestnuts near the house and was in the act of getting off a tree and jumped lighting on the side of her foot with the result above mentioned. The distance she jumped was not more than five or six feet.

Horse Thief.—Chas. E. Wirt was arrested in Newport on Saturday last by Constable Leonard, charged with stealing a horse from his brother, David Wirt in Cumberland county. It is alleged that he stole the horse and brought him to Shermansdale this county, and traded with Mr. Dewalt, and shortly after he had left, his brother came and recovered his horse, leaving Mr. Dewalt short just one quadruped. His son immediately started in pursuit and overtook the lad in Newport, when he obtained a warrant and caused his arrest. The thief was brought to this borough and placed in Fort Williamson until the authorities of Old Mother Cumberland claims her own and takes him home.

Narrow Escape.—The Altoona Evening Mirror, of Monday, says: "On Saturday morning, as the pay car of the Pennsylvania railroad was passing Bell's Mills station some miscreant hurled a stone through the car window. Messrs. Wm. Cook and Wm. Trace, of Harrisburg, were in the car at the time. Mr. Trace was sitting with his back to the window, and the rock grazed his head in its flight. The difference of an inch might have made a very serious result. Who the miscreant was could not be learned, although the car was stopped and search made. We learn that Superintendent McCrea is determined to break up the practice of stoning trains, and that a reward will be offered for the detection of the rascals."

Soldiers' Re-Union.—Thursday last, was the day set for the re-union of the soldiers of Perry county. It was a pleasant day and at an early hour crowds of pedestrians were seen coming from every direction. Carriages and vehicles of every description also began to bring in their loads, and before eleven o'clock the town was packed with such a crowd as has not been seen in it for many years. There never was a town that was more tastefully decorated. In every direction were to be seen wreaths, arches, mottoes and flags that gave evidence of the fact that the citizens of the town had taken an interest in making the gathering a pleasant one, and one that would long be remembered.

Every one seemed bent upon making the day pass pleasantly, and the houses of many of the citizens were thrown open to friends and strangers, and all were made welcome.

At 11 o'clock the Court House bell rang for the assembling of a business meeting, which was called to order by Capt. F. M. McKeenan. A constitution had been prepared for the action of the members, who unanimously accepted it, and the association was named "The Veteran Association of Perry County." The committee appointed to select the place for holding the next reunion decided upon Millerstown as the place, and the time will be made known by the proper authorities at some future day.

The following officers were elected for the next year: Capt. G. C. Palm, Andersonburg, president; C. H. Smiley, Esq., New Bloomfield, secretary, and Dr. Joseph Swartz, Duncannon, treasurer.

At about one o'clock a procession was formed of the following detachments: J. W. Williamson, Chief Marshal, mounted.

Aids: D. C. Orris, C. H. Smiley, F. M. McKeenan, J. J. Sponenberger, H. Shearer, J. Weaver, and Dr. Joseph Swartz, mounted.

Duncannon Brass Band, 15 members, J. N. Gladden, leader.

Loyalsville Soldiers' Orphans, 33 neatly uniformed and well disciplined boys, Captain Edward Butler, commanding.

Detachment of the Ninth Pennsylvania Cavalry thirteen members, Maj. Shuman, commanding.

Blain Cornet Band, eighteen members, W. S. Dunbar, leader.

Company I, Pennsylvania Reserves, 33 men, James Hahn, commanding.

New Buffalo Cornet Band, 19 members, Nelson Graham, leader.

Detachment of the Fourth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, 52 men, David McCoy, commanding.

New Bloomfield Cornet Band, 15 members, S. H. Beck, leader.

Company I, 208th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, 8 men, John Ayle, commanding.

Company E, 208th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, 20 men, E. B. Weise, commanding.

Newport Germania Band, 15 members, W. A. Zinn, leader.

Company B, 7th Regiment, P. R. C., fifty-six men, Captain H. C. Snyder, commanding.

After marching over the route previously selected, the parade ended and the crowd gathered in front of the stand beside the Court House and listened to some excellent speeches. Letters of regret at their inability to attend were read from General Sherman and Gov. Hartranft. After the speeches, the different bands that were present delighted the people with their choice music until near sunset when the visitors began to leave for home. We doubt whether any pleasanter gathering was ever held in the county, and as such seemed to be the opinion of all present, we presume that re-union day will in future be looked forward to with pleasant anticipations. Delegations were present from Cumberland, Juniata and Snyder counties, and from Altoona. It is thought that over three thousand persons were present.

Sheriff's Sales.—The following properties were sold by the Sheriff on Friday last:

A lot of ground situate in Marysville, seized as the property of Sarah and John H. Longsdorf, sold to Marysville Building and Loan Association for $600.

A tract of land situate in Juniata twp. containing 65 acres, more or less, seized as the property of Jerome M. Wise and Andrew J. Wise, sold to A. M. Markel, for $651.

A lot of ground situate in the borough of Liverpool, seized as the property of John Neagley, sold to A. M. Markel for $801.

Defendant's interest in a lot of ground situate in Liverpool borough, seized as the property of John Haas, sold to G. Cary Sharp for $67.

A lot of ground situate in Saville twp., seized as the property of J. R. Smith, sold to W. A. Sponsler, for $720.

A lot of ground situate in Saville twp., seized as the property of J. R. Smith, sold to W. A. Sponsler, for $61.

A tract of land situate in Wheatfield twp., seized as the property of H. B. Ebersole, sold to W. A. Sponsler for $11.

A tract of woodland situate in Miller twp., seized as the property of Wm. C. McFadden sold to Wm. A. Sponsler for $100.

A tract of land situate in Tuscarora twp., seized as the property of George D. Robinson, sold to W. A. Sponsler for $5.

A tract of land situate in Rye twp., seized as the property of Geo. Leighty, sold to John Frymier for $865.

A tract of land situate in Carroll twp., seized as the property of Stephen Fenicle, sold to W. A. Sponsler for $951.

A tract of Woodland situate in Liverpool twp., seized as the property of Jacob Hoffman, deceased, sold to C. A. Barnett, for $30.

The Synod of the Potomac, of the Reformed Church, convened in annual session on Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th, in the First Reformed church, Calvert street, Baltimore, and organized, after an able sermon by the Rev. Dr. Gans, by the election of Rev. J. A. Peters, of Alexandria, Pa., as President, Rev. J. S. Keiffer, of Hagerstown, Md., Cor. Secretary, and Elder Louis H. Markel of Frederick, Md., Treasurer, and Rev. Wm. M. Deatrick of Mercersburg as Stated Clerk. The Revs. Herbert of Landsburg, Lindman of Blain, and Kretzing of Newport, together with Messrs. Hager, and Hench were present from Perry county. The attendance and interest was encouraging.

Another Railroad Bridge Across the Susquehanna.—The Waynesboro' (Pa) Record, of last week, says: "The success of the Harrisburg and Potomac railroad is now assured. The Messrs. Dacy, of Boston, have articulated for the building of the bridge between New Cumberland on the Cumberland county side and Ewington on the Dauphin county side of the Susquehanna river, below Harrisburg, and the completion of the road is as far as Waynesboro'. In addition," continues the Record, "it is the purpose to extend the road from that place, via Hagerstown or Boonsboro', to Virginia to make connection with the Shenandoah Valley railroad, thus affording an outlet to Baltimore and elsewhere for all farm products, manufactures, etc."—Patriot.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Mary Dyaroth, eldest daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Yaiser, was found dead in bed at her mother's residence, on East Main street. She had been ill with chills and fever, and had retired to bed, where, in an hour afterwards, she was found by her mother cold in death.

Mr. Alex. Huber had a valuable sorrel horse stolen from his stable on last Thursday night. The thief was followed into York county by Mr. H., on Friday morning but he soon lost trace of him and returned home again. A reward of $25 is offered for the return of the horse, and $20 additional for the capture of the thief.

Sunday afternoon, a horse belonging to Mr. John Moyer, of Silver Spring township, ran off and badly broke the buggy to which he was attached. The horse had been hitched to a post in front of Eli Moyer's, and was frightened by some means, when he dashed out the Silver Spring road, and soon caused a complete wreck.

A large barn on the farm of David Hays, near Eyster's hotel, on the Walnut Bottom road, was burned with its contents on Wednesday of last week. The men were engaged in threshing, and the fire caught from the machine, blazing up into the mow, and almost instantly getting beyond control. We are informed that the insurance on the barn had expired a few days before, and the loss is a total one. The crops, including the grain in bags and the threshing machine, were burned. The latter belonged to Mr. Eyster. A Mr. Long resided on the farm.
