this (Monday) evening at 7 o'clock in Presbyterian church. Cumberland county has already eight candidates put forward for the office of County Superintendent.

A fine black mare belonging to Mr. Shearer in Centre township was found dead in the stable on Monday morning.

The Assignee of George I. Ickes sold the farm of Mr. I., at Sandy Hill, last week to Mr. Adair for $8,125.

The oldest inhabitant can hardly remember such fine weather for the season as we have had this month.

Some chicken thief visited the premises of 'Squire Magee in Centre town-ship on Thursday night and took away a lot of fine laying hens.

Persons wanting Watch or Jewelry repairing well and promptly done, should call on George C. Henry, on Carlisle street, this borough.

Many of the farmers are wondering why pork is so low, when corn is poor and scarce. Perhaps it is because money is scarce too.

The Young Men's Christian Associa-tion of Duncannon have fitted up a reading room, and report their society in a flourishing condition.

The agony is over, and the applicants for the position of Deputy Sheriff are now at rest, the Sheriff having appointed his brother Wilson to that office.

A revival of religion is now in progress in the Lutheran Church of Elliottsburg. Several persons have presented them-selves at the altar of prayer as seekers for the Pearl of Great Price.

Work at stone breaking is provided to keep the tramps in proper excercise. They ought to feel thankful to the County Commissioners for this care, but if they don't the taxpayers will.

Sunday was the most remarkable day of this remarkable season. At 9 o'clock a. m., the thermometer was up to 64 de-grees in the shade and 75 in the sun. At 7 p. m. it was at 59 degrees.

Jonathan Keiser, of Delaware twp., Juniata county, has a hen that made her nest in a tree, thirty feet from the ground and in which she has just hatch-ed a brood of chichens. She is rather a high-minded hen.

Search for coal was made in Little Germany and its vicinity more than thirty years ago. Two shafts were sunk at that time, one of which was dug in Green Brier to the depth of 132 feet, which is still open. Since then several efforts have been made to search for coal in that locality, but with no success in that locality, but with no success

The best Alexander kid glove for sale by F. MORTIMER at $1 per. pair.

The Tramp's Welcome. - The Commissioners have had a large pile of stone hauled to the County Jail, and all tramps hereafter committed to that institution will be made break stone for the public. They are determined that these vagrants shall be made work whenever they visit Perry county. If the taxpayer must feed them they must work for the taxpayers.

Glad to Hear it. - We hear that John S. Demarce is soliciting stock to erect a telegraph line between Newport and New Bloomfield. The proposal calls for no more than one hundred shares at $5 per share, and no money will be required of the share holders until the poles are put up ready for the brackets and wire. when one-half of the subscription will be demanded, the balance when the line is in operation. We trust Mr. Demaree will meet with hearty support from our citizens. It is an enterprise that will readily commend itself to every business man in this place and there is no valid reason why the undertaking should not be a success.

Killed in a Fight.-On Monday night of last week, a fight occurred between two men in Chambersburg, named John Elser and George Rapp, in which Rapp struck Elser with a large stone in the forehead, crushing in the skull, from the effects of which he died on Tuesday night. From all we can learn, it was a fight brought about by a too free use of beer. Rapp claims that he done it in self defence, and is now in jail reflecting over a misspent life, with the gallows or a long term of imprisonment staring him in the face. Elser was a man of family and a butcher by trade. Rapp is a young single man and resided with his parents in Chambersburg. - Chambersburg Chronicle.

Narrow Escape .- Mr. B. F. Peters, clerk to city treasurer, while examining a breech loading shot gun, on Monday evening, at Peters' hotel, Market street, had the weapon in his had, showing the works to Mr. David S. Herr, his friend, who had just stepped into the hotel. In manipulating one of the triggers the hammer struck a cartridge and the contents of one barrel whizzed uncomfortably near to Mr. Herr's head, striking and passing through a screen and entering the wall. Mr. Peters was not aware that the gun was loaded when he borrowed it for the purpose of going on a shooting expedition next morning. Mr. Herr's escape was truly a miracle.-Har. Patriot.

Indexed Diary .- The Marginal Indexed Diary, or Daily Record Book, published by the Erie Publishing Co., Erie, Pa., is the best thing of the kind yet issued. It is convenient either for the pocket or desk, and being perpetual, is good for any year or at any time of the year. There is an index of months across the foot of the page, and an index of days for each month at the side which enables the user to turn instantly to any date desired. It also contains an Alphabetical Index for classifying the subject matter of the book, besides thirty pages of valuable tables and useful information. We have one and do not hesitate to say it is the best thing in the line of Diaries we have ever seen. The prices range from 75 cents to $2.25 per copy, according to style of binding; sent post paid by the publishers, also for sale by Court Proceedings .- In order to dispose of two cases on the trial list at the October Term last, a jury was called and instructed to be present at the opening of the December Term of the Argument Court at 10 o'clock, on Tuesday the 11th inst. Court opened at the time designated with the President Judge and both Associates on the Bench, and all the officers in attendance except the Crier .-The vacant chair of the genial, jovial incumbent who had for many years performed his duty with fidelity, and who was held in such esteem by both bench and bar, caused many a sad thought and wakened many a kind recollection of B. F. Clegg. As a change in the political status of the Bench would of necessity make another appointment at necessity make another appointment at the January Term, no new incumbent was designated for this Term, but Capt. Mickey the efficient Prothonotary, whose knowledge of the machinery of the court, and the manner of starting it to work, makes him such a valuable officer, performed the duties of Crier with the same case that he wades through the business at the Prothonotary's Desk.

The accounts presented by the Orphans' Court Clerk were taken up in regular order and confirmed, all but one in which exceptions were enclosed. A very considerable amount of miscella-neous business of no public interest was disposed of until 10 o'clock when court was adjourned for one hour. Upon re-assembling all twelve jurors were found in their place ready for work, under the instructions of Judge Junkin they were sworn to well and truly try the issue joined between Wm. Mertz, Plff., and Wm. J. Graham, a lunatic, with notice to Wm. McClure, his Committee, deft. The case was founded upon the following circumstances: For a number of years Wm. J. Graham carried on tanning in the vicinity of Landisburg.— Mertz, the plff., was taken into his employ, as he alleges, at a salary of $800 per year. He remained in the employ of Col. Graham for some time, receiving his pay in money, provisions and various ways with no final settlement up until the time he left Graham's employ, and moved to one the Eastern countles of the State. The plff, claimed a balance due him of about $1,100 and Mr. McClure, the Committee of Graham, refused the Committee of Graham, refused to pay anything except the amount which should be assessed by a jury. After a bitter contest, elaborate arguments by the counsel, and a lucid charge by the Court the jury went out to deliberate, and in a little while returned with a verdict of $150 damages for plff.

The next cases called up by the court were those of C. Thudium vs. The Commissioners of Perry county. Robert were those of C. Thudium vs. The Commissioners of Perry county, Robert Taylor vs. same, and John Bechtel & Son vs. same. These cases were appeals by the Plaintiff's from assessment determined by the County Commissioners at the last triennial assessment. They were taken in pursuance of a recent Act of Assembly which provides that any parties dissatisfied with the assessments as made by the Commissioners may appeal to the Court of Common Pleas, which shall hear them in such manner and at such times as the court may deand at such times as the court may de-termine, and raise or lower them as may seem just and proper, taking into consideration the assessments of other properties in the same district. It was contended in this case that the Commissioners exceeded their duty in fixing the assessments in the presence of the parties and afterwards raising them without notice upon the statements of other parties. The Commissioners claimed to have the right to fix the assessments according to their own judgment and information, without having the matter inquired into by the court, except for the reason of its being too high or low. Upon argument in each case the court made an order that the assessments of the Commissioners be confirmed. Sponsler for Appellant—the assessments of the Commissioners be confirmed, Sponsler for Appellant—Smiley for Commissioners.

Before the conclusion of the arguments above stated the jury had returned, and the next matter taken up was the second jury trial to wit: John S. McClintock vs. Moses Hess, Adm., with the Will annexed of Mary McClintock, dec'd. This was a contest between a son and Adm. of his mother's estate.—John S. McClintock claimed to have loaned the mother money at different times aggregating $1,800, which had been reduced to about $800. The Adm. objected to paying anything except objected to paying anything except what could be proven satisfactorily to a jury to be due, and after a full investigation of the matter the jury returned a verdict of $345 damages for the plff. Sponsier for pff.; Smiley for deft.

This verdict was returned late at night and the Argument List was taken up, and the certiorari cases to wit: Simon S. Charles vs. Jacob W. Holman, in which the judgment of the deft. was affirmed, and Christian Derrick & wife (not decided) were disposed of. These cases in connection with some miscellaneous business brought the night session of Wednesday to a late hour when the court adjourned until 22 inst., to which time all business unfinished was carried Juniata County.-We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

When the mail eastward bound comes by, all citizens of Patterson who may chance to be on the porch of the Railroad House, run away, or run in doors, with as great haste as if death itself were coming riding on a rail. When the reason for such a scene of consternation among the natives, is asked, the answerls promptly given, "that they do not wish to be killed or maimed for life by the mail bags that are pitched out of the swiftly-running train." Who is to blame for such a reckless and dangerous delivery of the mails in front of the Railroad House,—Sentinel.

On Saturday evening about 6 o'clock, a fire broke out in a pile of clothes, ready for the wash, in the upper story of the house, in this borough, occupied by the family of William M. Allison, Esq., of the North Carolina New Era. The fire was seen by Mr. Charles Allison. He was in the garden and saw the light shining through the dormer window. light shining through the dormer window. It was a most timely discovery. A strong breeze from the northwest prevailed at that hour, and if the west prevailed at that hour, and if the fire had got out of the roof the eastern part of the town would have been put in danger by the sparks from the burning house. How the fire got into the clothes is not known. There was no insurance on the house.
