Unfortunate Hunters. A hunting party in Mifflin county was recently quite unfortunate as will be seen by the following, from a correspondent:

Mr. Editor:—I will give you an account of a hunting party's experience while in the mountains about four miles south of Granville, St. P. R. R., on Dec. 20th last. The party consisted of P. Peffer, V. Auran, G. Bollinger, G. Burn, B. Brower, S. Jennings, J. Brehman and J. McNeimar. About midnight the straw in the cabin in which they were lodging, caught fire and the flames spread so fast that they had scarcely time to get out, leaving almost everything except what they had on, to the flames. There were three pair of boots, three coats, five hats, two guns, one watch, and all the provisions burnt. The balance of the night can better be imagined than described. The whole party sitting around a fire, some bareheaded, some bare-footed some without coats, and all waiting for day to dawn to tramp it home.

Junata County.—We copy the following from the Junata county papers of last week.

On Monday evening about 5 o'clock Mrs. Garver, wife of Dr. Garver, of Thompsonstown, went to the stable to milk, leaving two children, aged 2 1/2 and 4 years old, in the sitting-room of the house. When she returned to the house the older child was absent, and the younger one was lying on the floor of the room in which she left the children, with all its clothes burned off, and its body burned almost to a crisp. The unfortunate child lingered till 11 o'clock that night, when it died. The children, when the mother went out, played with the fire, and in the play the clothing of the younger one was set on fire, with the above results. The older child became frightened, ran out and left the younger one alone.—Sentinel.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

On Thursday last, Dr. A. Levette, a Homeopathic physician of this place, while at his stable looking after his horse, the animal kicked him in his side, breaking one of his ribs and otherwise injuring him.

One day last week the oldest son of our townsman H. C. Walters, met with an accident which might have proven very serious. He attempted to steal a ride on a buggy that was passing along the main street, and unfortunately got entangled in the wheel and was taken around several times before he was discovered. But for some passerby making it known to the driver, he certainly would have been killed.—Shippensburg Chronicle.

"Dollar Grabbers."

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh, and I fancy the "stuffs" and "inhalant tube" makers (mere dollar grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I have suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhalant tubes" and "sticks," would not work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh stuff, until I became a walking tankard for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package, and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Doncho, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

THE WORLD FOR 1878.

Since the change in its proprietorship (which took place May 1st, 1876) "The World" has become the brightest, sprightliest, most scholarly and popular journal in the metropolis. It is entertaining, interesting, bright, decent, fair and truthful. It does wrong willingly to no man; no creed, no interest and no party. THE WORLD believes the Democratic party to exist for the good of the public service. It does not believe the public service to exist for the good of the Democratic party. THE WORLD believes the Enemy of Mankind may be trusted to attend to his particular business of stirring up strife. It therefore seeks to promote peace on earth and good-will among good men. THE WORLD believes that even the Moon has two sides. It therefore gives every honest man credit for supposing himself to be right, no matter how wrong it may hold him to be. THE WORLD believes that sufficient unto each day are the evils thereof. It therefore considers it quite unnecessary to embitter existence to day by fighting over the rights of yesterday. THE WORLD believes there was some sense in the old superstition according to which every day's fortune was colored by the first objects seen in the morning. It therefore thinks that to lay on a man's breakfast-table sheets full of unclean things, angry words, personal squabbles and political spoils is about as likely a way to propitiate his good will as to put spiders into his coffee. THE WORLD believes that "man the hermit" is not to be trusted without the supervising and civilizing influence of woman, and it therefore holds that a public journal which fails to attract attention and enlist the support of the women of the community, will neither gain the public confidence nor give wise counsel in public affairs. As a mere matter of business, therefore, THE WORLD endeavors to be fair to its opponents in its politics, candid in its discussion of public questions, just to all men—and "up to the latest news."

THE DAILY WORLD. $10 00 a year, postage paid. $5 50 six months, postage paid. $2 75 three months, postage paid. THE WEEKLY WORLD. $1 00 A YEAR, POSTAGE PAID, contains all the news of the week; letters sent by able correspondents from all parts of the world; bright and entertaining editorials; and continued stories written expressly for THE WORLD by the best authors; full reports of the markets of the United States and foreign countries; a Farmer's Department, edited by D. D. MOORE, the founder and for many years editor of MOORE'S RURAL NEW YORKER. SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD. $2 00 a year, postage paid. $1 00 six months, postage paid.

CASH PREMIUMS.

To the person from whom THE WORLD shall receive, previous to March 31st, 1878, the money for the largest number of subscribers for one year to the WEEKLY WORLD we will give first prize of $300 00. For the next largest number, a second prize of $200 00. For the two next largest lists of subscribers, $100 00 each. For the two next largest list of subscribers, two prizes of $75 each. For the six next largest lists, six prizes of $50 00 each. For the eleven next largest lists, 11 prizes of $25 00 each.

These donors of competing for these prizes (which are offered in addition to the regular club premiums) will please write for full particulars to "THE WORLD," 35 Park Row, N. Y. January 8, 1878. 4t
