Brief Items.

Country Cousin—your communication has rather too much in it that appears personal.

A Cumberland county exchange says the office of Sheriff in that county is worth $10,000 a year.

On Sunday night a week some chap broke into the cooper shop of Mr. Jonas Preisly, at Duncannon, and stole most of his tools.

The brag hog yet reported in this county was killed by Samuel Roads, in Blain. Weight, 611½ pounds. Who can beat that?

Mr. Ephraim Rider, in jumping from a train a few days ago, just above Newport, sprained his ankle and put his wrist out of joint.

A change came over the clerk of the weather on Tuesday night, and Wednesday old Boreas was engaged as a full hand at the bellows.

Mr. J. M. Toland, of Marysville, was bitten on the hand a few days ago, since by a dog belonging to Mr. Leiby. No serious results are, however, anticipated.

It is a mean scamp who will rob a widow, and yet that there are such chaps is proven by the fact that the chicken coop of Mrs. Holmes in Centre twp., was last week robbed for the third time this winter.

George Wells and Abner Lamp, two well-known citizens of Huntingdon, died within five hours of each other on Friday morning last of the small-pox plague prevailing in that town.

A few days ago, Mr. Frank Thomas, of South Middleton township, Cumberland county, shot a wild cat on the South mountain which measured almost five feet in length.

It has been discovered that the same drug is used in coloring whisky and striped stockings. Whisky, however, more visibly affects the legs, and the nose.

Mr. M. G. Wilson, of Duncannon, has been presented with $50 by the railroad co., as a prize for the best piece of track, he being foreman over one of the divisions between Harrisburg and Newport.

It rather surprised us, to see a man filling our ice house on Friday and Saturday last with ice from 5½ to 6 inches thick. Few persons we think supposed ice of that thickness was to be had.

The farm of Patrick McKenna, dec'd., in Centre township, has been sold by Westley Gantt the Administrator, to Mr. Millard Fusselman for $1,210, and the same party purchased the limestone lot for $11.50.

A Fishing creek party a few nights since while returning from a ball had a fall out among themselves, when one of the females got so spunky that she got out of the vehicle and walked over the mountain to her home, getting there in time to eat a hearty breakfast.

James H. Ferguson and William Ricksbaugh, who left this county rather unexpectedly during court week, spent Sunday a week in Gettysburg, and on Tuesday were on the train from Harper's Ferry, leaving the train at a station a short distance from that place.

A more outrageous mail arrangement as far as local mails are concerned could not well be devised than the present. Officials who are responsible for this schedule should be sent to the dead letter office and then be disposed of the same as is done with other mail matter that no one wants.

Another old resident has been taken from our midst. At about 7 o'clock on Sunday evening, Mrs. Sarah McClintock, relict of John R. McClintock, Esq., was released from her sufferings, which she has long borne with a Christian resignation and was called to her long and better home. The old lady was much esteemed by all who knew her, and the sympathy of many friends will be extended to the children. Her funeral services will take place on Wednesday at 11 A. M.

A Narrow Escape.—Last week, (Monday,) a boy named Elbert Huffard, residing in Millerstown attempted to board a freight train while in motion. He however missed his footing and was thrown to the ground, one of the wheels injuring his foot, so that Dr. Stites was obliged to amputate one of his toes. He was besides considerably bruised, and made a narrow escape from death. With the frequent warnings before them, it is strange that boys will run these risks.

Missing Horse and Buggy.—On Tuesday night after returning from church, Mr. Robert Reed, of Centre twp., hitched the horse he had driven, and went in to warm. Coming out in a few moments he found the animal and buggy gone.—Getting Mr. Sanderson's horse he followed the missing animal, (having learned that a buggy and horse answering the description, had been seen going towards Newport), and succeeded in overtaking it near Evarharts. Nothing was broken and the horse seemed to be making his way towards the home of its owner, who was Mr. Cook in Wild Cat Valley. It is evident that some person unfixed the animal and drove it as far as this place, as one of the neighbors saw it pass and was certain some person was driving. It was certainly a mean trick and might have resulted very disastrously.

Robberies.—The post-office at Mechanicsburg was burglarized on Thursday night last, and one box of stamped envelopes, about 60 cents in change, and a counterfeit $5 bill taken. Fortunately none of the mail matter was disturbed.

On the same night, and in all probability by the same party, the grocery store of H. H. Eberly & Co., in the same borough, was also burglariously entered and two boxes of cigars, some tobacco and several dollars in nickles carried off.

On Saturday morning between the hours of three and five, a robbery was committed in Dillsburg, York county, which, for cool-headed deliberation, is not often surpassed. A party of three, it is supposed from the neighborhood of Harrisburg, broke into the dry goods store of Messrs. Brindle & Metzgar, at the above named place, and after helping themselves to silks, laces, kid gloves, &c., to the amount of five or six hundred dollars, left without having their bills receipted, or even waked up the proprietors to thank them for the privilege of helping themselves. After sending the goods by wagon by way of Shepherdstown, in charge of a confederate the robbers broke the lock belonging to the hand car at the railway station, and deliberately pushed their way over the Cumberland Valley railroad, passing Mechanicsburg about 4:40 A. M., arriving at Bridgeport shortly after five o'clock. The watchman at Dillsburg heard the noise and looking out saw two men working the car most vigorously, while a third was calmly seated on the rear end watching for broken rails and other obstructions that might impede their progress. At Bridgeport they slowed up and very thoughtfully lifted the car over on the stock yard track, thus leaving the track clear for regular trains over the main line.—Such careful consideration on the part of these genteel thieves should be rewarded; and we doubt not the officers of the Cumberland Valley railroad will issue their life passes to the penitentiary if a proper explanation and request were forwarded.—Volunteer.

On Thursday night last, Miss Mary Reighter, who resides on North Bedford street, nearly opposite the Evangelical Lutheran church, was not a little frightened when it became known that a supposed robber was in the house. The previous evening a corn cob was thrown through a window in the rear part of the house. It was discovered that the key to front door of the house had been stolen, and in order to guard against any probable visit from a robber, a bolt was placed on the door. About the hour of midnight the neighbors were aroused by a scream from Miss Nellie Lamer—a niece of Miss Reighter—who discovered near the bedside. When Miss Lamer screamed she was struck a violent blow on the head. The robber then quickly left the premises, going out the back door. By this time several of the neighbors were on hand, and we believe they would have made it rather warm for the midnight prowler had he remained a few moments longer. Who the supposed robber was is a mystery yet to be unraveled.

On Thursday last, between 3 and 4 o'clock, as two colored men were driving a one-horse load of straw on the Walnut Bottom road, near town, they were met by two white men one of whom was seen to throw something, presumably a cigar, towards the wagon. An instant after the straw burst into a flame. The horse was immediately unhitched and desperate efforts made to save the straw by unloading it, but it was soon entirely consumed. The wagon escaped with little injury.

It was discovered on Sunday morning that all the gas contained in the large holder at the Gas Works had escaped. It was occasioned by the blowing out of a box in the purifying house.—Carlisle Volunteer.

Mr. John Zeamer, of Monroe twp., in this county, has in his possession a copy of the Holy Bible printed in Nurnburg, Bavaria, Germany, March 8th, 1665, John M. Billherr, printer. If there are any older copies in the county than this we would like to hear from them.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

The consideration of an important lawsuit was postponed in Judge Junkin's court last week, because the irregularities of the mails failed to carry a letter, relative to the case, of one of the lawyers to a colleague in an adjoining county. The fast mail delivery in the country disarranges all kinds of business. Give us mail on way trains.

A child of Mr. Cargill, who died of small pox, in Patterson, died of the same disease, and was buried in Union Cemetery on last Wednesday.

William Ego's horse ran away on Friday morning, from a wagon-maker's shop, where he had been stationed, with the expectation of hitching him to a bread wagon. The beast ran out by East Point, in the direction of McAllisterville.

Exhibition.—The Blain band propose to give an Exhibition at that place on SATURDAY, February 2nd and WEDNESDAY, February 6th. They mean to give the people a pleasant entertainment and hope to have a good turn out.

D. Hohenshilt one that weighed 408lbs. Wm. Machamer killed the largest (?) of all. His porker was of the Essex breed, twenty months old, and weighed 815lbs! Whew! what a whooper, people exclaim up here.

The revival in New Germantown, led by Rev. W. C. Piper, still continues. It has been in progress for ten weeks, with grand prospects of continuing several weeks longer.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

On Friday night last our townsman Theo. Cornman, Esq., and his family made a narrow escape from suffocation, while asleep, in their residence on North Hanover street. During the night Mr. C. rose, conscious that something was wrong and that he was very much affected thereby. Upon rising he found Mrs. B. prostrate and insensible on the floor. He at once lifted Mrs. C. into bed and in a short time succeeded in restoring her to consciousness, when he discovered that the entire family was seriously affected. Dr. Dale, the family physician, was sent for and restoratives promptly applied. On searching for the cause of the misfortune it was discovered that one of the boys, who stayed up to read after the rest of the family had retired, had moved the lid of the stove and upon his retiring failed to replace it. From this open stove the gas escaped and passed into the bed-rooms through a register in the floor. All the members of the family have recovered, (except the canary bird which was stone dead when noticed) although they suffered severely for several days.—Carlisle Mirror.

Mr. Loech, of Hogestown, was stopped on the North Mountain in Wagner's Gap on Sunday morning by two highwaymen, one of whom held his horse while the other demanded his money. Mr. L. said he would hand it over, and reached in his pocket apparently to get it out; but instead of pulling out his money, he drew out his revolver. Upon seeing this, one of the villains shot at him, and he returned the fire hitting the fellow who was waiting for the money and making him exclaim to his companion that he was shot. The robber fired again at Mr. L. but this shot as well as the first one, failed to do him any harm, and he again returned the compliment of a shot when the robbers both fled. Mr. L. hastily drove out of that dangerous locality and soon reached a place of safety. This scene transpired in broad daylight, about ten o'clock in the morning, whilst Mr. Loech was on his way to visit friends in Perry county.

THE WORLD FOR 1878.

Since the change in its proprietorship (which took place May 1st, 1875) "The World" has become the brightest, sprightliest, most scholarly and popular journal in the metropolis. It is entertaining, interesting, bright, decent, fair and truthful. It does wrong nothing to no man, to creed, no interest and no party. THE WORLD believes the Democratic party to exist for the good of the public service. It does not believe the public service to exist for the good of the Democratic party. THE WORLD believes the Enemy of Mankind may be stirring up strife. It therefore seeks to promote peace on earth and good-will among men. THE WORLD believes that even the Moon has two sides. It therefore gives every honest man credit for supposing himself to be right, no matter how wrong it may hold him to be. THE WORLD believes that sufficient unto each day are the evils thereof. It therefore considers it quite unnecessary to embitter existence to day by holding over the evils of yesterday. THE WORLD believes there was some sense in the old superstition according to which every day's fortune was colored by the first objects seen in the morning. It therefore thinks that to lay on a man's breakfast-table a sheet full of unclean things, angry words, personal squabbles and political spines is about as likely a way to prophesying his good will as to put spiders into his coffee. THE WORLD believes that "man the hero" is not to be trusted without the supervising and civilizing influence of woman, and it therefore holds that a public journal which fails to attract attention and enlist the support of the women of the community, will neither gain the public esteem nor give wise counsel in public affairs. As a mere matter of business, therefore, THE WORLD endeavors to be fair to its opponents in politics, candid in its discussion of public questions, just to all men—and "up to the latest news."

THE DAILY WORLD. $10 00 a year, postage paid. $5 00 six months, postage paid. $2 75 three months, postage paid.
