An Infernal Machine in a School.

Joseh Van Noy, of Port Jervis, is a teacher in the district school at Logstown, in Greenville twp., Delaware co., N. Y. Certain of his boy scholars being detected at various times throwing a baseball from one to the other, the teacher announced that he would confiscate all balls he found in the possession of any scholars. On Wednesday last he saw a ten-year-old boy playing with a ball and threw it in the stove.

On Friday last the same boy was discovmaking a display of another ball. This the teacher took and was about to throw it in the stove when the manner of the boy and others about him struck him as peculiar and he laid the ball in his desk. He subsequently took it apart, and was startled to find that the ball cover contained a sealed tin box filled with powder in quantity sufficient to have demolished the schoolhouse.

Groundless Objections.

Some having tried "put up" medicines without obtaining the relief promised, indiscriminately condemn them. Is this fair? Suppose a judge should argue that because the last three prisoners had been found guilty, he should condemn the fourth without trial. Is not such reasoning absurd? And yet are not those who condemn all medicines, because they have been deceived in one or two, equally as unjust? The family medicines manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., are the purest and best in the market. His Golden Medical Discovery has, for many years, being the standard remedy in all affections of the liver, stomach, and blood, and when used in connection with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy effects a speedy cure of catarrh. While his Favorite Prescription is the only remedy offered, deserving of confidence, for the cure of those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. Are you skeptical concerning its power to cure? If so, address any of the following named ladies: Mrs. Francis Huswick, Versailles, Ohio; Mrs. Leroy Putnam, North Wharton, Pa.; Mrs. Mary A. Hunolt, Edina, Mo.; Mrs. Mary A. Frisbie, Lehman, Pa.; Mrs. D. L. Gill, Chillicothe, Ohio; Mrs. Harriet E. Malony, West Springfield, Pa.; Mrs. R. Hiatt, Emporia, Kan.; Miss Louise Pratt, Dodgeville, Mass.; Mrs. L. A. A Berks County Pot-Pie for Paupers.

Occasionally a pot-pie dinner is served at the Berks county Almshouse, which requires the following ingredients: The slaughtered calves, making about 260 pounds of veal, eighty pounds of beef; one and a quarter barrels of flour, and from eight to ten bushels of potatoes. This is decidedly a Berks county pot-pie, and is regarded by the inmates of the Almshouse as a boss dinner, the aroma of which is diffused throughout the long halls of the numerous apartments of the institution.—For the seasoning of this pot-pie several pounds of pepper, a large quantity of salt, and about a bushel basketful of parsely, celery leaves, sweet marjoram and other herbs are chopped up together and mixed with meat and potatoes, contributing largely to the savory ordor.

A Case of Consumption.

EAST STONEHAM, ME., May 12, 1873.
Messrs, Seth W. Fowle & Sons:

Gentlemen—I feel it my duty to write a few words in favor of Dr. Wistars Balsam of Wild Cherry. In the early part of last Winter I took a severe cold, and shortly afterward a distressing cough was added to it. My friends did everything they could for me, but without avail. The best physicians that could be procured did not relieve me, and my cough continued with me all through the Winter with increasing severity. I spit blood three or four times a day, and my friends considering my case hopeless, gave me up as a confirmed consumptive. I was in this condition when I heard of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I began its use, and before I had taken half a bottle of it my cough and all my other troubles left me, and I was cured. I feel so truly indebted to this great remedy for what it has done for me that I send you this voluntary testimony, hoping it may be the means of inducing others, who are suffering as I was, to make use of it. It is the best remedy for lung complaints that I have ever heard of, and I am constantly recommending it to my friends.
