Brief Items.

Mr. Israel Lupfer and family have left this county for the West.

What are eggs per doz. when 2 more for 12 cts. lowers the price 1 cent per dozen?

Some person rolled a barrel of whiskey from a freight train when near Cove Station a few nights since.

Mr. Daniel Shatto of Penn twp., recently captured a snapping turtle that weighed twenty-five pounds.

Newport is putting in a claim for the new penitentiary to be located at that place. We think it a good suggestion.

The last day of February was as pleasant as a May day. The mercury for several hours was up to 62 degrees.

High water last week compelled the rolling mill at Duncannon to suspend operations for a time.

A son of Mr. J. B. Toland of Duncannon made a narrow escape from drowning by falling in the river while playing a few days since.

A photographic car has been over the P. R. R. taking views of prominent places. At Newport they took a picture of the Messrs. Bechtel & Son's tannery and of the Episcopal church.

Some time ago a person, whose name is known, entered Mr. John Spahr's field near Duncannon, and carried off a lot of corn fodder. Mr. Spahr would like him to fetch it back or pay for it and save further trouble.—Record.

A young chap living in Tyrone twp., was unfortunate enough to get his girl fast in the mud last week, near Ellitsburg, while taking her home, and the result was the loss of her over shoes. She has a new pair now at his expense.

We never grawl about our neighbors taking our local items without credit, and in fact are so used to it that, we would not feel happy did they fail to make such use of us. But when they take an article so troublesome to arrange as the list of officers elected throughout the county, common honesty would suggest the propriety of giving the proper credit.

At Shelby, O., on the 18th ult., Elizabeth Sutch, formerly of this place, was found dead on Gamble Street, near the gate of Oakland cemetery. A jury was immediately summoned by H. W. Hildebrandt, J. P., acting as coroner. After having heard the evidence and examined the body, they found that the deceased came to her death by some form of heart disease; the form to the jury unknown.

Kansas Lands.—While so many persons are turning their steps westward we think a few articles on the resources of Kansas will be acceptable. We therefore call attention to an article on that subject which will be found on the 6th page.

Old and Faithful Officers.—Watts township has had the same Constable for thirty-three years, and one Justice of the Peace that has, with the present term, served for forty years, and one School Director that has served in that capacity for twenty four years.

Real Estate Changes.—Several changes and sales of real estate were made in this borough last week. The house and lot owned by Mr. Thomas Sutch, on Carlisle street was traded to Lewis Potter, Esq., for his interest in the Perry House property. Mr. Sutch will again occupy that hotel, and Mr. Potter will remove to his new house, having sold his property on Main street to F. Mortimer.

Barned Burned.—Shortly after 7 o'clock on Monday evening of last week a bright light was seen by the citizens of this borough, which many thought to be from a fire at Landisburg. It proved, however, to be the barn belonging to Mr. Joseph Lightner, in Sheaffer's Valley, Tyrone township. The building and quite a quantity of hay and grain were destroyed. Previous to the fire all the cattle and colts were turned out of the building, showing that the fire was intentional. Some arrests are talked of by the insurance company of that township, in which there was an insurance of $600, but when our informant wrote us there had been no arrests made. Mr. L. was on his way home from Carlisle when he saw the light, and by taking a horse from the team reached home before the fire was over.

The Band Exhibition on Friday and Saturday night last was well attended by audiences who could hardly have failed to feel that they had got the worth of their money. The programme was good and all acted their allotted parts in an exceedingly creditable manner. We learn that it is proposed to select the best from the two programmes and give one performance at Duncannon before long. If that is done, we can assure the citizens of that place that they will find it an entertainment worthy of their hearty support.

Caught in a Man Trap.—On Saturday evening shortly after seven o'clock, when it was very dark, Mr. J. W. Spangler, of York, in turning the corner of Carlisle and Main street, in this borough, turned too soon and thus walked into the cellar of the burnt building that has so long been allowed to remain without being guarded by any enclosure. Mr. S., although badly stunned by the fall, managed to get back upon the sidewalk where he was found and helped to Williamson's hotel, where he was stopping. Medical aid was procured and his injuries were attended to. He had received several very severe cuts on the face, which, though painful wounds, are not dangerous, though they will probably cause marks that will ever remind him of his severe fall and narrow escape from more serious injury. It is strange that the owner of the lot has not enclosed it ere this, or failing to do so that the borough authorities did not cause it to be done. No doubt some person will have to pay damages now, and in addition will still have to bear the expense of putting the location into such condition that further accidents will be prevented.

Counterfeiters Arrested.—At Lebanon recently John A. Miller, of Union twp., Lebanon county, was arrested while standing on the platform of the car attached to the Lebanon and Tremont passenger train and was taken by Chief Tice to the lockup on a charge of having attempted to pass counterfeit money at the City hotel last Friday. Directly after his arrest a large roll of counterfeit bills on the Hanover (York county) bank was picked up where he stood, the accused evidently having dropped the notes to screen his guilt. The Daily Times says: "There are quite a number of persons in this county under suspicion of having been guilty of shoving the 'queer.'" Miller will have a hearing to-day.

The authorities of Tremont, Schuylkill county, on the same morning arrested a man named William Nye, of Indiantown Gap, Lebanon county, for passing counterfeit money and lodged him in the Pottsville jail. Since his arrest he has implicated another confederate who furnished him the counterfeit money. The authorities will endeavor to arrest more.—Patriot.

February Weather.—B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of February:

There fell only 2 inches and 5-tenths of rain, and 3 inches of snow. The warmest day was Thursday the 28th, the mercury running up to 49° above zero, and the coldest was Tuesday the 5th, the Thermometer sinking to 3° below zero.

SAM'L. ROATH, P. M.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

Charley Braun, of Shippensburg, has been arrested for being implicated in the Reeder robbery in that borough.

On Monday afternoon last a very painful accident occurred to Robert Thompson, colored, while engaged at work in excavating the well in the rear of the Court House. A large wooden bucket was used in lifting the broken stone from the well, and when the men above were about reaching for the bucket, it slipped from the hook and struck Thompson (who was at the bottom of the well) on the head, knocking him senseless. His fellow-workmen hurriedly made arrangements for getting the injured man from the well. Drs. Krise and Zeigler were immediately summoned, and dressed the unfortunate man's injuries. At first it was supposed the skull had been fractured, but such is not the case.

A few minutes before 6 o'clock on Thursday morning of last week, the Court House bell sounded the fire alarm. The fire was found to be in the large three-story brick building on the corner of Hanover and South streets, and occupied by Mr. William Blair as a residence and grocery. The first indication Mr. B. had of the fire was at 5½ o'clock, when he awoke, and found the house filled with smoke. Proceeding down stairs he found the store room filled with fire and smoke. The alarm was given, and the fire department was not slow in responding. Until the steamers were ready for service the store room was kept closed tightly, so that the fire could get no draught. By this means the fire was confined exclusively to the store room and cellar, and was soon extinguished by the heavy streams of water that were pouring into the room. The fire originated in a small drawer under the counter, in which were kept loose matches. Loss, $1,500; fully insured.—Volunteer.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. John Jones, a colored woman, residing in Port Royal, left her home at 7 o'clock to fill an engagement at house work at Mrs. McCulloch's. About midnight a railroad track patrolman found the colored woman, dead, in a sitting posture, against the wall of the road bridge which crosses the railroad at the lower road crossing in Port Royal. It is conjectured that she missed the bridge in the dark, walked over the abutment and was killed by the fall. She was not killed outright by the fall, for by the appearance of the track she had dragged her body to where it was found.

A serious trouble between a man named Vaun and two Wilson brothers took place a few nights ago at Waterford, this county, during the holding of an exhibition at the village just mentioned. Some sort of a feud has been in existence between the parties for some time. The men met outside of the building while the exhibition was in progress. Vaun was knocked down by a club in the hands of the brothers, and while he lay on the ground, was shot. A bullet from a pistol knocked off a middle finger at the hand joint, and an ugly bullet wound was also made in his cheek, but the bullet so struck his face that it glanced off instead of entering his head.—Sentinel.

On Sunday night last some villainous thieves broke open the door of Dr. Beales smoke-house, and carried away four large hams belonging to Mrs. F. M. Pfahler, and hams and shoulders to the amount of eight belonging to the Doctor.
