OUR CIRCULATION.

For the information of Advertisers, and others interested in knowing, we make mention of the fact that we begin this year with a circulation of NINETEEN HUNDRED copies.

New Hampshire Election.

The election on Tuesday last in New Hampshire resulted in the success of the Republicans. One hundred and eighty-five towns give Prescott, Republican, 35,664; McKean, democrat, 32,864, and scattering, 392.

Terrible Colliery Explosion.

LONDON, March 13.—A terrible colliery explosion occurred in the Unity Crook Pit, Kearsley, near Bolton, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Destructive Wind and Snow Storm.

SHERMAN, W. T., March 13.—At midnight on the 7th inst., a storm of snow and wind set in continuing until the 10 inst., covering the entire country from Green river, Wyoming, to North Platte, Nebraska, a distance of 550 miles.

Mulcting a Church—A Curious Lawsuit.

At Bryan, O., Joseph Lichty brought suit against John Holdeman and others for $10,000, for enticing his wife to abstain from marital relations to him.

ble Methodist Church in Hunterdon county, where George Rounsaville, becoming aggrieved at the pastor adopted a unique way of 'getting even.' He caused to be made for himself a suit of calico trousers and roundabouts, with a hat of the dimensions of an umbrella, and a crimson band in proportion.

Foreign News.

LONDON, March 13.—The Times of this morning, in its financial article, alluding to the failure of Verner Brothers, the stock brokers, which was announced yesterday, says: "Verner Brothers were short about $500,000 in stocks."

The same article says: "Nothing could speak more eloquently to the deadening effect of the apprehensions which will fill Europe for many months than the cheapness of money in the continental markets.

The rooms in course of erection at Woolwich dockyard, covering an acre of ground, suddenly collapsed to-day while the laborers were at work. Hundreds of workmen were buried in the debris.

A special dispatch from Berlin to the Morning Post says that Prince Bismarck will not go to his Lauenburg estate for the benefit of his health, as was stated in a Berlin special in the Standard, and that the German government will not issue invitations to the congress until all difficulties about the subjects to be considered are removed.

"These difficulties," says the dispatch, "appear more serious than was anticipated. The general prospect in well informed circles is far from encouraging.

LONDON dispatches says that trustworthy private advices from India state that the Mohammedans are greatly excited in consequence of the overthrow of Turkey.

Serious trouble is even apprehended unless the government takes some anti-Russian action shortly. It is believed that 200,000 Moslem volunteers could be raised to serve against Russia without difficulty.

A Berlin dispatch to the Times says: "Even governmental newspapers, such as the Post, National Zeitung and others heretofore favorable to Russia, deem it necessary, since the terms of peace are known, to take precautions for the protection of European interests.

A Slow Couple.

For seventeen years Mr. David H. Johnson uninterruptedly courted Miss Rachel McCracken, both of whom are residents of Greenwood twp., Clearfield county, Pa., and then they got married.

Miscellaneous News Items.

Twenty-five locomotives were shipped from Philadelphia for Russia on Saturday a week.

Gold has begun to circulate. A resident of Montgomery county was robbed of $300 in gold a few days ago.

Seventy-six thousand dollars is claimed by the Pullman Palace Car Company from Allegheny county, for cars destroyed during the July riots.

There are eight men to be appointed on the police force of Allegetown at a salary of $30 per month and sixty applicants are seeking the position.

A curious accident took place at Grand Rapids, Mich., the other day, when John Coleman was instantly killed by the premature explosion of a blast, which blew a piece of stone about as big as a walnut in at his mouth and out through the back of his head.

A heavy storm passed over Jefferson county, West Virginia, on Monday night. Hail stones larger than eggs fell for an hour, breaking glass and killing cattle, hogs and sheep.

A Virginia negro boy, who professed to be dreadfully afraid of cholera, took to the woods to avoid it, and there was found asleep. Being asked why he went to the woods, he said: "To pray."

"But," said the overseer, "how is it that you went to sleep?" "Don't know, massa, 'zactly," responded the negro, "but 'speak I must have overprayed myself."

One day last week the boys of Mr. Wiley Winkle, who lives seven or eight miles south of Corvallis, Or., while breaking sod in front of the house plowed up a lot of old silver coins, the latest bearing date of 1848.

An engine and seven cars of a freight train bound north on the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad ran through a bridge at Marsh Creek, between St. Charles and Saginaw, Mich., last week, killing the fireman and badly injuring the engineer.

A woman with a very singular history died last week in the Blackwell's Island Almshouse. She was one hundred and four years old, the widow of one of the Irish rebels of 1798, who fought at Oulert Hill.

A man named G. W. Petty, who has been in Texas eleven years, was arrested in a field near Prairie Lea, upon a requisition from the Governor of Kansas. Thirteen years ago, in that State, Petty and another man rode up to the house of a man named Clark, Greenville county; called him out, and while with two children in his arms he was pointing out the road to them, Petty shot him dead and escaped to Texas.

A heavy snow storm set in at Cheyenne, W. T., on the 8th inst., continuing until noon on Saturday, the wind attaining a velocity from fifty to sixty-four miles per hour, carrying snow with it, and drifting it in banks ten to fifteen feet high.

PHILADELPHIA, March 11.—Robert McAdams, twelve years old, and Charles Patton, about the same age, quarreled to-day near Thirteenth street and Lehigh avenue over the possession of a stick of candy. Patton threatened to shoot McAdams if he did not divide with him, and as the latter refused, Patton drew a pistol and shot McAdams through the head, killing him almost instantly.

A supplementary telegram from Harrisonburg, Va., where Charlotte Harris, colored, was hanged, the other night, on a black jack tree, by masked men, says it took five men to bend the sapling down, to which, being accomplished, the rope was fastened to the woman's neck and the tree then allowed to go up again.

A romantic story is told of Martin Mix of Northfield and Ellen Manough of Middlebury, Vt., who have just got married after a long separation. Many years ago they quarreled and broke their engagement.

Captain Harrison, who was a passenger on the wrecked steamer Metropolis, and who subsequently made himself conspicuous in rescuing and caring for the passengers, was arrested in Philadelphia a few days ago, on the grave charge of appropriating such of the effects of the victims as were washed ashore.

Wonderful!

The need of healthful blood becomes apparent by cold extremities; by frequent flashes of heat; by ulcers and eruptions; by general lassitude and a revolution from former pleasures.

the resulting evil effects. It infuses heat and warmth to the system, and never fails to do what it promises. Like the galvanic current, which permeates every fibre of the body, it reaches every spot in the system; but unlike that current, its virtues remain to cheer and strengthen. All dyspeptic hypochondriacs and invalids generally are recommended to try this Syrup, which can be had of any druggist.

A Book That Everybody Wants.

We have received from the National Publishing Company of Philadelphia the advance sheet of their new work, entitled 'The Pictorial History of the World,' by James D. McCabe, a well-known historical writer. It is the most valuable book that has been published in this country for many years.

It is for sale by subscription only, and agents will find that this book will sell readily when all others fail, from the fact that it is a work that the people really want. See the publishers' advertisement for agents on 5th page.
