millions of dollars worth of goods, taxes are being reduced, a good piano can be brought for $100, and watermelons are down to five cents apiece, while all goods are remarkably low at F. MORTIMER'S, Store, New Bloomfield. If times don't get better now it is not our fault, anyhow.

Found Dead.—On Thursday last, W. H. Henderson, of Penn twp., was found dead, near the barn on his father's premises. He had eaten his breakfast in his apparent usual health, and had gone out to care for the stock. After a time some of the family went out and found him as above stated. His death was supposed to have been caused by heart disease.

[Reported for The Times by Chas. H. Smith.]

Adjourned Court.—Court was resumed on Monday 18th inst., and the Argument List was taken up, when the following cases were disposed of: P. K. Brandt, cashier of People's Bank, for use by G. Cary Sharp, vs. M. & T. Miller, Michael Miller, John Patterson and Philip Peters. This was a rule to show cause why judgment No. 183 Jan. T., 1878 should not be opened and Philip Peters who was surety for the other Deft's let into a defense. An execution within fifteen days and refrain from issuing an alias execution for six months then the rule to be discharged, otherwise the judgment to be opened as to Peters and he let into a defense.

David Shull, Garnishee of James Sykes Piff, in error, vs. Ann Miller and George R. Miller, Deft's, in error. This was a certiorari to J. D. Sechrist, Esq., to remove all proceedings on a certain judgment obtained before him. The case was continued for the purpose of having additional testimony taken before a final hearing.

Philip Kell and Simon Kell, vs. Benjamin Rice and B. F. Rice. Rule to open judgment and let Deft's into a defense. The judgment was originally given for part purchase money of real estate. The Court directed the judgment to be reopened to the amount of $400. The injury sustained will hereafter become a matter of settlement for a jury, and whatever damages they may adjudge will be deducted from the said amount.

Jacob Baltzer vs. Andrew Minich.—Rule to show cause why an appeal from a judgment on the Docket of J. Rickard, Esq., should not be stricken off. Rule made absolute and appeal stricken off. A number of applications to stay writs of execution in hands of the Sheriff, Auditors' Reports, etc., were argued.

Solomon Bigham was discharged as the Assignee of Andrew Burd and wife of Penn twp.

John J. Taylor was divorced a vincula matrimonii from Ellen Taylor.

A Preliminary Injunction was awarded to be heard on the 8th day of April, 1878, in re—Bill in Equity filed by J. B. Hartzel vs. Emanuel Wright, et al.

In re—Bill in Equity filed by Isaac Wright vs. Jacob Bixler, et al. W. N. Seibert, Esq., was appointed Master in Chancery.

Court met again at 9 o'clock A. M., on Thursday morning the 21st inst. The Argument List was again taken up until the jury empanelled to try the case carried over from the last general term had assembled. Two jurors having been prevented from attendance, the Sheriff was directed to draw talsmen, and Jacob Crist and Samuel A. Peide were selected in lieu of the absentees. The case alluded to was that of Jos. S. Laird's Administrator vs. W. A. Sponser Admr. de bonis non of Dr. Jas. Galbraith, deceased. This action grew out of unsettled accounts and complicated business transactions extending through a number of years between Jos. S. Laird and Dr. Galbraith, who were brothers-in-law. What created difficulty in this case was the fact that Mr. Laird was dead, and an administrator had arisen upon his estate. Dr. Galbraith not wishing to place himself in a position of advantage over his brother-in-law died also. An administrator was raised upon his estate, but he too wrapped his shroud around him and lay down in the slumber of the grave before the matter was adjusted, and an administrator de bonis non was forced to complete the work.

After a considerable amount of legal skirmishing an armistice was called, and a settlement effected upon the basis of an agreement upon the part of the defense to permit the Court to instruct the jury that they should find a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $250 00, which was done accordingly.

After the disposal of this case six jurors were drawn from the panel in attendance to pass upon the mental condition of Mrs. Elizabeth Albert, of Elliottsburg. A petition was filed by the daughter of Mrs. Albert, asking for a commission in lunacy. Mrs. Albert, on her part resisted the proceedings vigorously. It was alleged that although she enjoyed lucid intervals, yet she was incapable of managing her estate, and if permitted to go on without restraint would squander her property. A number of witnesses were called on both sides and after elaborate arguments by the counsel, the jury returned as the result of their deliberations that she was incompetent to manage her estate.

Samuel Sheller, and Dr. Swartz were appointed appraisers in the assigned estate of Wm. Musgrove of Duncannon.

An order of sale was granted to the assignees of Israel Lupier to sell the real estate assigned to them in trust for benefit of creditors.

An order was granted authorizing Leonard H. Swartz, Administrator &c., of Geo. Dunkel, late of Penn twp., dec'd. to pay out a balance of purchase money, and received a deed for real estate which said decedent had contracted to buy in his life time but died before the contract was completed.

An order of sale was granted to the heirs of John Wentz, late of the Borough of Blain, to sell certain real estate of the decedent situate in the said borough.

The sale of a house and lot by George W. Graybill and Chas. H. Smiley Guardians of the minor children of Silas Potter late of Wheatfield twp., dec'd. situate in Penn twp., to O. B. Ellis, Esq., for the sum of $345 was confirmed. A considerable amount of other business of no general interest was transacted and court then adjourned to the next regular term.

Marriage at an Insane Asylum.

TOLEDO, OHIO, March 18th, 1878. To the Editor of the Bloomfield Times:—A pleasing and happy event took place Tuesday eve, March 12th, at the North Western Insane Asylum, Toledo, Ohio, in the marriage of Dr. S. T. Dromgold, formerly of Leekburg, Perry Co., Pa., and Miss Maggie Adams, of Cleveland, Ohio. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert McCane, in the Chapel of the asylum and in the presence of the inmates of the Institution. Several handsome presents were presented the wedded pair by the officers and employees of the Institution, then an elegant supper followed, which was partaken of by the friends of the married couple, and music, greetings, congratulations, and a general good time was the order of the evening.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

Samuel Tyson, of Walker township, was quite seriously hurt last week by falling from a hay stack.

Last Friday David Deppen, residing in Walker township, while sawing lath in a saw-mill had his jaw broken, by a stick catching in the saw-frame and springing out and striking him on the jaw. He cannot take solid food; all the nourishment he gets he must receive in a liquid state.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

Mr. Samuel Beems, of Stoughstown, recently fell down a flight of stairs and fractured several of his ribs.

The Presbyterian congregations of Silver Spring and Hogestown have extended a call to Rev. F. J. Ferguson.

A young man named Rolland Burkholder, of Shippensburg, was accidentally shot in the calf of the leg at the Newville depot on Thursday evening. He and a companion named John Shambarger were walking together, when the latter, in endeavoring to put the pistol in his side pocket, it was somehow discharged, the ball entering Burkholder's leg in the manner stated. The wound was dressed by Dr. R. M. Hays. No dangerous results are feared, although the physician was unable to trace the bullet to its lodging place.
