Couldn't Behave Herself.

A Saratoga correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser overheard two young ladies talking, and this is what they said:

"Well, I'm going home to-morrow."

"What for pray ?"

"Because I can't behave myself." "Well, out with it, Jennie. What have you been doing.

"Lots of things."

"Well, give us the first ?"

"You know Frank Kennedy, Nell?" "That soft, simpering fellow that always tells you how 'charming' you look ?"

"Exactly. This morning I saw him coming, and made up my mind to take him down. I put my diamond broach in a chair, pin upwards, and asked him to sit down."

" He sat, of course, and what then ?" "He jumped up and yelled: "Oh, " "What's the trouble?" I asked. Nothing in particular, only I thought of an engagement at this very moment; you must excuse me." And off he went; and, would you believe it, Nell, the broach was sticking to him.

"That was awful, Jennie," and the two girls giggled together for five minutes. Nell broke the spell by demanding: "What next?"

"Why, you see, I was talking with that young sprig of a clergyman, the Rev. Tom Parsons. We had nearly talked each other to death, when, as luck would have it, he made some remark about mosquitoes. I was on my native heath at once, and began to tell him of my experience at Rockaway .-"Did they not bite very hard?" inquir-ed the Rev. Thomas. "I wish," Mr. Parsons, said I, "you could see my legs and judge for yourself."

"That was a horrid speech, Jennie. How could you say such a thing?" "Why, Nell, it popped out before I knew it." " And what did Mr. Parsons say?" "He blushed clean to the eyes, and I run away."

Be Reasonable in All Things.

As they were about to quaff, one of the party suddenly called out to another, "Hello, Dougherty, you drinking whisky? Sure it was only yesterday you towld me ye was a taytotler." "Well," said Mr. Dougherty, evidently somewhat disconcerted, "you're right, Misther Kelly-it's quite right ye are-I am a taytotler, it's true, but I-I-I'm not a bigoted one!"

A few months ago, one of the masters of a country grammar school died. The school building closed on the day of the funeral. Johnny Smith spent the time playing by a pond near his house. A few days since, his mother sent him to school as usual, but Johnny preferred playing by the pond, where he met his father. His father inquired why he was not at school. Johnny said there was no school, and when pressed for a reason, replied, triumphantly, "That man is dead again !"

Mistress of herself was the spouse of the old gentleman who contrived to tumble off the ferry boat into the Mississippi, and was encouraged to struggle for the dear life by his better half shouting: "There, Samuel; didn't I tell you so? Now, then, work your legs, flap your arms, hold your breath and repeat the Lord's Prayer, for it's mighty onsartin, Samuel, whether you land in Vicksburg or eternity."

A gentleman had occasion to complain the other day to his landlady that his milk was entirely deficient in cream, and seemed, in fact, little better than milk and water. The woman was quite indignant, and said: "Of course you can't see any cream in it if you don't look in the proper place! You ought to stir it up-there's plenty there, only it's gone to the bottom."

A Clergyman in Washington being about to baptize a child, asked the father, "What is your name?" "Thomas Maguire, sir," replied the man. "Well, Thomas, do you spell your name with a big 'G,' or a little 'g ?' " "I'd like it middling large, if you please sir," replied the parent.

A gentleman coming into the room of the late Dr. Barton told him that Mr. Vowel was dead. "What!" said he, "Vowel dead! let us be thankful it was neither u nor i."

Birds mit one fedder goes mit demselves," is the way a Dutchman re-
