Brief Items.

Miss Ella Burns' select school commences on Monday of this week.

Court is in session this week and the judges are all present.

More changes in residence were made in this county this year than has been made for many years.

Quite a large colony have gone from Penn twp., Cumberland county, to settle in Wilson county, Kansas.

Nice prunes, 10 pounds for a dollar at Mortimers. Peeled peaches very nice, also on hand at 14 cts., per pound.

The Franklin county sheriff now re-ceives thirty-five cents per day as com-pensation for the board of each prisoner,

There are now twenty teachers in Spring township who abandoned their profession several years ago.

The members of the Excelsior Literary Society, are already talking of having another picnic the coming summer.

Spring twp., contains five grist mills, nine churches, and eleven school houses. Why should the people of that township not live well, be good, and "smart?"

Preparations are now being made to put the furnace at Newport into opera-tion, and they expect to be ready by William Wooden of Newport was badly bruised by falling from a culvert near Haley's station, where he was at work replacing a tie.

Ash & Robbins are out with another circular trying to give publishers "fits," Ezekiel, you can't "fit" us unless you pay first.

Is your life worth twenty-five cents? If so get the Safety Valve put on your lamps. It can be applied to any lamp and makes it secure against explosions or accidents from poor oil.

Doctor Samuel Smith, a student of Dr. Fuget of Shermansdale, practiced a little in surgery the other day, by accidentally putting a pistol ball through his finger. The wound was not serious.

A fine bay mare belonging to F. Mortimer was badly hooked by a cow on Saturday last. The horn entered the breast of the animal, making a wound six or seven inches deep and tearing off the skin as large as a man's hand.

A farmer, who has just returned from a visit to Kansas, says it is a good State for a man who is willing to work, but the large number of Pennsylvanians who are now going there mustn't expect to loaf around and have a nice time.

A couple of swindlers gathered the false hair of about a hundred Pottstown ladies recently upon pretence of renovating it. Then they skipped, leaving an unpaid hotel bill and numerous indignant fe-

Some time during the last week, some person carried away a set of harness from the shop of Mr. Jonathan Weaver, during the temporary absence of the persons in charge, either forgetting or neglecting to leave the proper equiva-

There will be a Christian Temperance meeting, held in Markleville, next Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock. Speakers will be present to address the meeting, and the choir of the Bloomfield C. T. U., will conduct the singing. All are invited to attend.

A New York paper says: "Our people do not take to silver dollars." We are not informed as to public sentiment on that subject in New York, but as far as our observation in this lattitude goes we have not yet met with any who did not take all they could get, and look any journey. anxiously for more.

The Chambersburg Repository says: Our community was startled on Sunday morning by a report that Mr. John D. Jacobs had fallen down the stairs of his residence, producing injuries which re-sulted in his death a few hours after. It seems that Mr. Jacobs, about ten o'clock Saturday night, went down stairs for a glass of water, and on his return, had reached the top, when in some way he slipped and fell backward down the steep stairway.

Taken Possession .- Mr. George F. Ensminger has taken possession of the Mansion House, in this borough, and proposes to keep a good hotel, and we have no doubt he will do it. See his card in another part of the paper.

Stephens & Beetem, the well known carpet dealers of Carlisle, are now ready with their spring stock. For particulars see their advertisement and then go and see their goods.

A Serious Accident.-On Monday afternoon of last week the day express cast struck the market wagon belonging to Wm. Shearer, when crossing the track near Eshelman's Mill at Newport. The wagon was heavily loaded with nails, iron and a barrel of whiskey. The engine struck the vehicle at the hind wheel knocking it off the track and scattering the contents for a distance of about one hundred yards. The train was running at a very rapid speed, and the escape of th occupants of the vehicle from instant death is almost a miracle. Mr. Shearer was badly cut about the face by falling on the stones and Mr. Robert Hackett, who was in the wagon with him, was only slightly bruised. The cap on the front of the boiler was knocked off by the collision and the furnace doors were blown open carrying the burning coal gas back with such force as to burn the faces of the engineer and fireman, and singe their whiskers. The engine was so badly damaged that it could make but little speed with the train and another engine was sent to its assistance. The train arrived in Harrisburg an hour behind time. The three mules attached to the vehicle were not hurt, but the wagon was made into kindling wood and old Weather Report for March. - B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of March :-Average of the Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 390, 6', of Barometer 30 inches minus 7-tenths. Average of the degree of heat during the twenty-four hours 51°, 30', and of the lowest of cold 32°, 25'. Monday the 11th was the warmest day the mercury running up to 620 and Monday 20th the coldest the Thermometer sinking to 170 above Zero. There fell 5 inches and 6-tenths of rain. This was the warmest month of March for 25 years and the only one in which there was no snow.

Bitten by a Dog. - On Wednesday last Harry, a son of F. Mortimer, aged eight years, was bitten very severely on the arm by a dog belonging to Mr. R. H. Minich, of this place. The boys were playing in Mr. Minich's yard with a son of his, when Harry asked if the dog was cross, and as he asked the question, patted the animal. Without a growl or any warning, the brute seized the lad by the arm, tearing the flesh in five places.

If Mr. Minich continues to keep such a dog, persons will prefer to go without meat rather than to venture into his premises to purchase.

Fatal Accident.-The Gettysburg Sentinel says: On Friday of last week about 12 o'clock, an aged man, Mr. Daniel Kohler, of Mountpleasant twp., near Hershey's Mill, while sitting on the flood gate fishing, was shot in the left leg with a bullet, by Mr. Henry Menges, who took an old rifle out of the mill to shoot the load out, and fired at an upright plank for a target, not seeing any person. There were two balls in the gun, one of which struck in the plank and the other passing through a rotten spot in the board, struck Mr. Kohler .-The place where Mr. K. wassitting, was about 185 yards from the mill. Mr. Menges went to the barn and after five or ten minutes returned, and hearing some one call, went to the place and found the old man (81 years of age,) bleeding profusely. He was then taken home and Dr. Kinser sent for, who probed the wound and found the ball, which could not be extracted from its position, on account of the great age of Mr. K., and his weakness from the loss of blood. Mr. Kohler died last Thursday of the injuries.

Death from Suffocation .- During Sunday night, or early on Monday morning the 1st inst., a sad occurrence took place at the residence of Mr. James Pond, on Paxton street near the bridge crossing the Pennsylvania canal. The family of Mr. P. slept in a room in which there is a coal stove used and sometime in the night the pipe accidentally became detached, allowing the gas to escape, and filling the room, made the entire family very ill. A little son of Mr. Pond's, aged between three and four years, was found to have died from suffocation .-Harrishurg Patriot.

Sudden Death of an Estimable Lady .-Mrs. Nissley, of Hummelstown, mother of John J. Nissley, Esq., cashier of the Hummelstown bank, died suddenly on Tuesday morning of heart disease at her residence in that borough. Mother Nissley rose early and was seemingly in good health. During the morning she had occasion to use some article she desired on the mantlepiece and while in the act of reaching for it she fell upon the floor and expired almost instantly.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

Dr. Samuel B. Crawford has been elected Representative Delegate to the State Convention; I. D. Musser, John Fink and Joseph L. Dearing Senatorial Conferees. County Convention will met on Monday, August 12th.

The body of John D. Hostler, who was knocked from the railroad bridge at Port Royal some weeks ago, was found on Thursday afternoon on an island in the river opposite Van Dyke's station.—An aunt of the deceased dreamed that she saw Hostler's body lying on an island, but she could not locate it. On Thursday a young girl passing Van Dyke's saw the body of a man lying on an island opposite, and she informed some persons of the fact, who proceeded to the place and identified it as the resome persons of the fact, who proceeded to the place and identified it as the re-mains of Hostler. It was removed on Friday, when Trainmaster Cramer, of Mifflin, had an inquest held. The place in which the dead man discovered was a little over five miles from the Port Royal bridge.—Democrat and Register.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

The Mechanicsburg "Journal" furnishes the following:—On last Sunday, a cow and bull belonging to Mr. David Bowman, near Gingrich's mill, com-menced fighting and in struggling for the mastery managed to get their horns so completely locked that it was found impossible to extricate them until the horn of the cow was sawed off.

Jacques W. Noble, of Carlisle, has been rearrested on a charge of arson. A warrant was also issued for the arrest of Wm. Noble, but he "lit out." Gone to meet Charlie Foulk.

On Saturday morning, while at breakfast, one of the family of Mr. D. S. Carbaugh, residing on East North street, detected a smell of smoke, and running up stairs, found the covering on a child's crib on fire. The child, an infant daughter of Mr. C., had been left in the crib, which, as preventive against cold, had been drawn near the stove pipe, which passes through the room, and, in some way, the coverlet took fire. Daye found way, the coverlet took fire. Dave found the room full of smoke almost to snifocation, but quickly threw the burning bedclothes out of the window and examine the child, which, was not injured in the least .- Mirror.
