

An Old Bank Deposit.

Twenty-seven years ago a lady now living in Nashville, Tenn., deposited $100 in a savings bank in Philadelphia, and had the amount regularly entered in a bank pass-book. She subsequently lost the pass-book, and believing that she could not draw the money in consequence of the absence of this evidence of her deposit, never again went to the bank. In looking over some old papers not long since the book was found, and efforts were made to find out whether any of her kinspeeps were yet living, but this proved unsuccessful. At last she was traced to Nashville. Letters were accordingly written to her, and she was informed that if she would send a power of attorney to the bank she would receive in return the $100 principal and the accumulated interest—$327. She did as directed, and was the happy recipient of an order for $327 and a few cents. The lady is now verging on seventy years of age.

Burning of Insane Poor.

CORNING, N. Y., April 7.—About one o'clock this morning the Insane building connected with the Steuben county Poor-house, two miles north of Bath, was fired by L. C. Ford, of Hornellsville, an inmate confined in the institution with fits. He had been considered trustworthy, and was allowed liberties which enabled him to destroy his own life together with fourteen others. The Bath Fire Department was called to the scene of the conflagration too late to be of much service. The building was of brick with iron grated windows and doors, and the inmates were unable to escape. There were sixty or seventy inmates altogether. The details of the terrible accident are blood curdling. One man was badly injured, over forty were rescued and several escaped. The scene presented by the charred remains and the debris is sickening in the extreme.

It Sustains Its Reputation.

For nearly a quarter of a century it has been acknowledged that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has no equal in speedily and permanently curing "cold in the head" and all catarrhal affections of the nasal cavities. Its immense sale and great popularity are dependent upon and entirely due to its merits and superiority over all other similar preparations. Very many physicians, having thoroughly tested it, are now prescribing it in their practice.

HALBURTON, Ont., Jan. 1, 1877.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y. Dear Sir—For years I suffered with chronic catarrh. Last winter it became more severe, seriously affecting my throat and lungs. My stomach and blood were also sadly out of order. I tried many physicians and several advertised remedies, obtaining but temporary or no relief. My general health became worse, so that I despaired of life. Seeing favorable notices of your medicines, I procured one-half dozen bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery and a supply of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. The Discovery purified my blood and restored my general health, the Catarrh Remedy gave immediate relief, and after a little perseverance, a radical cure was effected.

Thankfully yours, ROBERT McCORMICK.

A Dove of Hogs Ablaze.

The Quitman, Ga., Free Press says: A very excellent farmer living in the Marven District, undertook, a few evenings ago, to cure his hogs of vermin by rubbing them with coal oil. He provided himself with a fat lightwood torch, and commenced work. Unfortunately, just as he had gotten them well greased a spark from his torch fell on the back of one of them, and in an instant he was in a light blaze. The flames communicated to the others, and in a few moments the drove was running wild, leaping with lightning speed, appearing in the darkness like fire fiends. The next day the farmer found his bacon not only cured but done up brown.

The ghost of Mr. Bumble will regret to learn that the beadle of St. Jude's has been fined half a crown and costs for assaulting a boy of nine. The daring offender went to sleep in church and dropped a prayer-book, whereon the beadle rushed at him, lugged him into the porch and whacked him twice with his cane. The magistrate told the beadle that "conviction did not import anything disgraceful on his part, but simply that he had been guilty of an error of judgment." The story shows how time-honored customs often rest only on tradition. From time immemorial beades have enjoyed the privilege of correcting inattentive boys and awakening them when overtaken by slumber in church by means of a cane. This, it appears, is illegal, and boys may henceforth during a sermon sleep in peace, which, as a distinguished bishop once remarked, is often "perhaps the best thing they can do."

Debility and Nervous Headache.

Chronic, sick or nervous headache is generally dependent on, or accompanied by, impaired digestion, by which the circulation and nutrition of the brain are deranged, and the nervous centres vitiated. The Peruvian Syrup, by reinvigorating the digestive powers, lays the axe at the root of the tree; the brain is duly nourished, the nervous symptoms cease, and the headache disappears. Sold by all druggists.
