The wife of Mr. J. W. Frank, of Newport, was seriously bruised by falling down stairs a few days ago. The fall was caused, it is supposed, by a fainting spell attacking her as she was starting down.

A fatal mistake was made recently at Middletown by a young lady who at-tempted to give a little child, belonging to her sister, a dose of cough syrup, and got hold of some laudanum instead. The child died and was buried on Wednes-

| Smash Up .- On Sunday morning a horse belonging to Wilson Gray, broke away from where he was hitched in front of the Lutheran church at Ickesburg, and started to run, following the buggy just driven past by Rev. J. W. Cleaver. Mr. C. turned into a cross street, thinking the run-away horse would keep up the Main street, but he turned after him, and overtook him just after getting around the corner, the wheel striking the perch-pole of Mr.

Gray's horse was knocked down by the collision but before he could be secured he got up and kicked himself clear of the wreck. Mr. Cleaver's horse did not get away and no damage was done to the animal or the occupants of the buggy.

Incendiary Fire.—At about two o'clock on Thursday morning fire was discovered in the barn belonging to Mr. John Boden, in Saville twp. The alarm was at once given by the girl who made the discovery, and every exertion was made to save the stock. This they succeeded in saving except two young cattle which were burned. Two mowers, a four-horse wagon, two sleds,a good horse power, two hay ladders, gears, about thirty tons of hay, a large quantity of grain and many other farming instruments were also destroyed.

While the barn was burning, fire was discovered in the house, in such a place that it must also have been fired at the same time as the barn. Most of the furniture and much of the wearing apparel was saved, but it was found that some of the most valuable articles had been stolen, proving that burglary had been committed too.

The smoke house was also fired, but most of the meat had been previously stolen. The loss by fire is about $7,500, two-thirds covered by insurance. Mr. B. and his wife were at Waterford. Juniata county on the night of the fire.

Attempt to Kill. - A few days ago Mr. Milton B. Eshelman, of Newport, was shot in the arm by a young man named Harry B. Townsley, while at Intercourse, Lancaster county. Mr. E. had advanced money to the mother of the young man, and had recently taken steps to secure the debt. This had made bad feeling and was the cause of the attack, which was cowardly in the extreme, the shooting being done while Mr. E. was shaking hands with a friend. The position the arm was in, caused the bullet the take effect there, and saved him from a more serious injury. Though making a painful wound, it fortunately caused no dangerous one. The young chap was arrested on the charge of attempt to murder and his mother and step-father were arrested as accessories, as it is considered there that they were the instigators of the crime.

Road Engine .- On Thursday a week, considerable excitement was occasioned in town by the arrival from Waynesboro' of a steam road engine, built by Frick & Co., and drawing a Geiser Separator. When it arrived on the Square, the engineer run his engine two or three times around, making turns almost as short as could be done by a carriage. Long before it arrived, Baltimore street, from Long's hill to Imbrie's, was lined with people to see the coming wonder, and when it put in an appearance over Imbrie's hill, the large crowd was excited intensely. A troupe of small boys followed it through the street, shouting and yelling and appeared to enjoy the entree as if it had been a circus. The machine was stopped long enough on Centre Square to give the citizens a chance to inspect it, when the engineer pulled his throttle and steamed away on the return to Waynesboro .-Greencastle Echo.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

"Baby-farming" is carried on extensively among residents of this place, irrespectful of color, says the Herald. Likewise irrespective of season.

The rumored finding of a new born babe in a lot on East South street, has occasioned considerable talk. Another case of "baby-farming," we presume.

The name of the post-office in this county known as Mountain Creek has been changed to Pine Grove Furnace, and John D. North has been commissioned post-master.

On Tuesday of last week, Milton Negley, son of John Negley, of Mifflin twp., shot a large eagle on a tree top near Bridgewater school house. The eagle was one of a number that had been in the vicinity. It measured seven and a half feet from tip to tip of its wings. Adam Koons brought the bird to town, and Frank Baker will mount it in taxidermist style as a permanent curiosity.

The people of Mechanicsburg were startled on Monday morning by the announcement that Mrs. Mary M. Moore, widow of Alfred Moore, deceased, had hanged herself during the night. It appears that ever since the loss of her residence by fire last winter and the loss of the insurance thereon, Mrs. Moore has suffered greatly in mind. She had re-built her house and had it nearly completed, boarding, during its building pleted, bearding, during its building with Mrs. Lindsey, on Locust street, three doors from her new house. At her usual time on Sunday night, Mrs. Moore retired but got up about twelve o'clock and went out. Her prolonged absence alarmed the family and search was made for her, and about an hour thereafter her lifeless body was found hanging to an apple tree in her own lot, upon which she had hanged herself.

The Newville Star says: "A strange freak of nature is to be seen in the yard belonging to Harry Curry, at the head of Main street. Some time during Saturwheel striking the perch-pole of Mr.
Cleaver's buggy breaking and bending it, then running up over the seat and generally demoralizing the vehicle. Mr.

of Main street. Some time during Saturation of Mr.
day the earth sank in a space about six feet square, leaving a dark and dismal cavern where had been a bed of vegetables. The ground for yards around is seamed and cracked, and trembles as it is stepped on, giving indications of sinking at every moment. The hole is not perpendicular, but sinks in a slanting direction, and, although probed with a long pole, no bottom has been found. It is supposed to have been caused by an underground stream of water washing out a cavity, as Harry Curry says that while digging a cellar near that place some years ago, he distinctly heard the sound of rushing water.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week

Mr. Samuel Hoke of Academia, had one of his feet badly hurt on Tuesday by a horse tramping on it. He is not able to go about.

Mr. George Fisher, of Spruce Hill, who was so unfortunate as to inflict perhaps fatal bodily injuries upon himself last fall while in the act of climbing over a fence, is in a very precarlous condition, and little hope is entertained of his recovery. Dr. Graham has been adminiscovery. Dr. Graham has been adminis-tering to his medical wants, doing all in his power to relieve him, but with little effect. He is a great sufferer.

J. Howard McFarlane has a short-horned bull, which weighed the day it was sixteen months old 1,110 pounds, and a helfer twenty-three months old weighing 1,000 pounds. No light weight for young stock. James McFarlane's helfer at twenty months old weighed 930 pounds, and another at twenty-three months 950 pounds. David McAuley is possessor of the first short-horned calf born in this county. born in this county.

Mr. James North, of Patterson, visited his farm in Walker twp., on last Saturday. In his hurry to reach the Mexico station to be in time for the train to come home on, in crossing over a fence his foot caught in some way on the rails, which caused him to fall violently to the ground. Although not seriously hurt, the fall caused him much pain, and his back and shoulders are much bruised. much bruised.

An Enterprising Firm.—During a recent visit to Carlisle we examined the Carpet Stock of Messrs. Stephens & Beetem, and were surprised to find that they carried so large and complete an assort-ment. Their stock of Tapestry, Three-Ply and Ingrain Carpets is equal to any in the State, while their assortment of Home Made Carpets is the best we ever saw.

This firm has built up a trade not only in Cumberland county, but in all the surrounding counties, that they have reason to be proud of. Their success shows what energy, capacity and fair dealing will accomplish, and we can heartily recommend our friends who are visiting Carlisle in search of Carpets, Wall paper, or Curtains, to call on Stephens & Beetem. They will find what they want and at right prices.
