

A Singular Escape.

On Friday night when the mail train came into the station at Gaysport, persons standing on the platform heard an unusual grating noise which on investigation proved to be caused by a new railroad tie tightly wedged between the cowcatcher and front pony wheels of the engine, which had to be cut with an axe before it could be removed. Saturday morning S. Barr started over the track to make an investigation, he found small fragments sticking in the joints of the rail to the Bennington bridge crossing, a distance of over two miles, at which place it had been taken from a pile of new ties and placed in the centre of the track by some wretch. The tie not being thick enough to be struck with the cowcatcher it passed over it and was thus pushed by the front wheels of the engine along the track, fortunately it kept a perfect centered position, had it got one foot to either side it would have come in contact with the bridges and a terrible loss of life would have resulted as over one hundred persons were on the train.—"Altoona Tribune."

Ancient Castles.

What appeals to the imaginative and reflective powers of man more than the ruins of some ancient ivy-covered and forsaken castle? Poets have invited the muses to elp them weave into verse the legendary chivalry and bravery that history accords to their former owners and occupants.—Painters have vied with each in portraying the grandeur of their solitude and decay.—But is not premature and social wreck of thousands of young people, annually, a theme that should appeal much more keenly to the reflective faculties of man? Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., prescribes his Golden Medical Discovery in such affections with the most gratifying results. No known remedy equals or compares with it in purifying the blood strengthening and invigorating the nervous system. If the bowels be constipated, use his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In the more complicated cases, Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter, and will generally be able to prescribe medicines especially prepared for each individual case that will speedily restore nervous vigor and perfect health.

The following parties, among thousands of others, have either been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Medicines or have observed their wonderful curative properties on friends:

- J. K. Seitz, Cairo, Ky.; Mrs. A. M. Williams, Claverack, N. Y.; C. T. Hubbs, Randolph, Pa.; C. R. Canfield, Chatham Four Corners, N. Y.; Albert C. Baston, Washington, Ohio; Mrs. E. R. Daly, Metropolis, Ill.; John B. Lederman, Pekin, Ill.; R. A. Johnson, Buffalo, New York; A. McClure, Albany, N. Y.; L. W. Griswold, Brackville, New York; J. W. Bayer, Vermillion, Ill. For further information see "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," an illustrated work of over 900 pages, sold post-paid, for $1 50.—Address the author, R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, New York.

The Richmond Resurrection.

RICHMOND, Va., April 26.—The greatest excitement has prevailed all day at the "Home of the Little Sisters of the Poor" over the strange case of Mrs. Helliz, who came to life Sunday night after being dead twenty-four, and who died again last night. The Sisters and four physicians Drs. Massie, Cowan, Smith, and Joseph, who were watching beside the bier this afternoon, were startled to see the dead Mrs. Helliz raise her right hand and wave it in the air. The corpse did not speak, but only motioned the right hand. At least thousands have visited the house to-day.—Twenty-five physicians have examined the corpse. The priest in charge of the Little Sisters has given orders not to bury Mrs. Helliz for ten days.

Bronchitis.

From John Flagg, Esq., of Bennington, New Hampshire.

"Three years since I was very much reduced with a dreadful cough, which resulted in Bronchitis, affecting me so severely as to render it difficult to speak in an audible voice. To this was added severe night sweats and I was fearful of going into a decline. After recourse to various remedies, to no purpose, I made use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a few bottles of which fully restored me to health. Since that time I have had several attacks of cough, but the Balsam has always removed them. I always keep it by me, and should not know how to do without it.

50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

In Philadelphia a few days since a tinsmith living up town answered the advertisement of a person desiring to purchase a set of tinsmith's tools. In due time the advertiser appeared and was taken into the cellar to be shown the articles. After a long interval, as they did not return, some of the family went down into the cellar and found the stranger holding up the head of the tinsmith, who had fallen, as he supposed in a fit, but which proved to be an attack of paralysis.

HO! FARMERS, THIS WAY! AND EXAMINE LIGGETT'S IMPROVED TRIPLE GEARED IRON HORSE POWER
