PENNSYLVANIA R. - MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after June 15th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward routes, listing stations and train times.

Notes regarding train schedules and service changes.

Brief Items.

Some farmers who planted corn early re-planted it last week. Revs. Cleaver and Edgar one day last week succeeded in catching over three dozen fine trout.

The verdict of the jury in the Gallagher case, that was on trial before Judge Rowe, at Chambersburg, was in favor of Mrs. Gallagher.

We get a Paris letter every week, but as yet none of them have been of sufficient interest to warrant us in their publication.

Wanted—A supervisor who can put the road between this place and Newport, in such a condition that it is not a punishment to have to travel over it.

Decoration day was not noticed in this place. We never could see why one day should be set apart for the memory of departed heroes, but think they should be remembered every day in the year.

Harry Smith raised the frame work of his large blacksmith and coach shop, on Wednesday last, and the building will soon be ready for occupation.

James B. Spiese, a Harrisburg lawyer, and formerly of Juniata county, has been convicted in the U. S. Court of charging more than the legal fee (which is $25) for collecting a pension for an old woman whose husband was killed in the army. Sentence deferred.

On Sunday night a week some flour was stolen from the mill of Jonas J. Smith in Juniata twp. On Monday he got a search warrant from Esq. Smith, of this place, for the purpose of searching the house of another of the Smith family.

Health Committee.—The Town Council of this borough has appointed the following named gentlemen, a Health Committee; Dr. M. B. Strickler, Wm. Grier and W. H. Sponsler. The committee will enter upon their duties, Monday, June 11th.

How to Borrow Money.—"Can you give me a ten dollar bill for silver?" asked a miller last week of a citizen of this place. Mr. S. being glad to accommodate a person whenever he can, consented. The hard money man counted out $5 in silver, and as he handed it over said, "there is $5 and when I come over next week I will bring you the balance." We consider that about the coolest way to borrow money that we ever heard of.

A Singular Case.—We learn from Dr. Geo. D. Carl that, on the night of Friday last, Mrs. Hezekiah Berry, residing near Canebroke School house, gave birth to two still-born daughters that were joined together in one body commencing at the clavicles and ending at the bottom of the pelvic cavity, bringing the babes face to face, with their arms clasped around each other. Half an hour afterward, Mrs. Berry gave birth to a well formed and living boy baby. These cases have attracted the special attention of our medical men.—Greencastle Echo.

A Horse Narrowly Escapes Drowning.—John Peters' mare was turned out to pasture in Phillip Peters' meadow on last Saturday evening. The inclination of the animal being to break down fences and enter forbidden ground, she was hobbled to prevent her engaging in such mischief. The hobbling near ended the mare's existence, she falling into a run that runs through the field, in which she was grazing, and the hobbles so encumbered her that she was unable to help herself. By a streak of good luck Mr. Peters happened that way, just in time to prevent the beast's life from ending. He procured a rail, placed it under her neck to prevent the water from strangling her, and then with help, which came to hand, the animal was safely landed on terra firma.—Newport News.

Weather Report.—B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of May last:

Average of Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 54° 13'; of Barometer, 30 inches minus 5-tenths. Average of greatest degree of heat, 62° 46'; of lowest degree of cold, 48° 50'. There fell 4 inches and 6-tenths of rain. The warmest day was Saturday the 4th, the mercury running up to 60—the coldest was Thursday the 14th, the Thermometer sinking to 32.—On night of the 12th, the Thermometer sank to within 3 degrees of the freezing point, being colder than any night in April, all the tender plants and the spring growth of the forest trees were frozen.

Reaping as He Sowed.—The Rev. C. L. Vance, M. D., referred to in the following paragraph, taken from the Chambersburg Record, will be remembered by many of our citizens to have offered his medical services to this community, as an Indian Physician, a few years since:

"The Rev. C. L. Vance, M. D., who four years since was sent from our courts to the Eastern penitentiary, under sentence of seven years for an attempt to outrage a little girl, is dying of phthisis, and cannot long survive. His life is a singularly forcible illustration that the way of the transgressor is hard. The son of pious parents, with good natural powers of mind, supplemented with a university education, he passed from a Baptist minister to the Methodist, left that and made a fortune as a quack doctor, in East Tennessee, and while on a summer visit to Chambersburg, committed the crime for which he is imprisoned. On entering prison, he declared himself an infidel, but now when earthly life is vanishing, he professes faith in God, and acknowledges his punishment as the reward of his sins. Truly there is something in the touch of death which causes the stout heart of infidelity to shudder and call for mercy."

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

Jacob Dunkle recently sold his farm of sixty acres a mile west of Carlisle for $9,000, or $150 per acre.

Thomas McKee, an aged and highly esteemed citizen of Millfin township, is lying quite ill, with no hopes of recovery.

A bull belonging to Sam'l. Senseman, of Silver Spring twp., broke into the horse stable on Sunday and gored a valuable mare to death.

Otterbein Chapel, situate near Newburg, on the State road, was broken open by some scoundrels, one night last week, who helped themselves to some thirty yards of carpet.

On last Friday Mr. Charles Railing, living near Leesburg, was working about his horses, one of them kicked him on the left arm between the wrist and elbow, breaking the arm.

A second attempt was made to fire the extensive paper mills of Hon. A. Wither, at Middlesex, on Monday night.—Several bundles of paper were perfectly saturated with coal oil and a lighted candle placed on top of them. The candle burned until within an inch of the oil and then went out, and thereby the well-planned job was frustrated.

In the early part of Spring a newly married couple left Middlesex, this county, for Kansas. Arriving there penniless and homeless they soon became disgusted with the country and started for Old Mother Cumberland, walking all the way a distance of sixteen hundred miles.—Echo.

On Saturday last an accident happened near Stoufferstown, resulting in the death of an interesting child of Lewis Stepler, a tenant on the farm of Samuel Mehaffey. Workmen were employed in the construction of a stone fence, when a large rock in the hands of a colored man fell from his grasp, rolling down a bank and striking the child, which was at the foot of the hill, in the head. Death was the immediate result.

On Wednesday a rather unaccountable incident happened under the notice of Adam Bentz of this place. He with a hand was breaking up an old ore washer for the purpose of getting the old iron in an ore bank just beyond Big Spring on the turnpike. While hammering away to detach the iron from the wood, the wood suddenly took fire and burned so fiercely that it was impossible to get it out not having any water convenient. What is a mystery to the ordinary observer can be explained in a scientific way. It is taught in chemistry that water confined with oxidized iron and the smallest amount of sulphuric acid, will produce hydrogen gas. The beam through which the iron ran was water-soaked, and when the iron was struck ignition took place and the gas being highly inflammable as a matter of course took fire and will explain the mysterious burning.—Newville Star.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

William Van Sweringen's store, at Bealetown, was robbed of between one and two hundred dollars' worth of store goods, on a night last week.

We are informed that at the raising of a barn on Mr. Calvin Watts' farm, in Fayette twp., on Friday last, a Mr. Bender was very seriously hurt, by being knocked off the frame.

On Tuesday of last week Mr. Eli Noon, of Turbett twp., while standing on a scaffold trimming trees, the ax slipped and struck him on the left wrist, inflicting a severe wound. It bled profusely and it was feared he would bleed to death before the flow of blood could be stopped.

On Tuesday afternoon Benjamin Moore, attempted to board a freight train going west, which was traveling at a lively rate of speed. He did not succeed in getting aboard, but was thrown violently to the ground, and in falling struck a car wheel, cutting an ugly gash in his head and another in his right hip, besides sustaining other injuries.

On Friday evening last, Mrs. Elizabeth Hamlin, mother of O. W. Hamlin, met with a painful accident. She went into the stable for some purpose, and while there tripped and fell over a box fracturing her right arm at the wrist. Dr. Beale was summoned and attended to her wants. Mrs. H. is getting along well, considering her advanced age.—Port Royal Times.

On Saturday night or Sunday night, May 25 or 26, 1878, the following articles were stolen from the jewelry store of J. W. Wagner, in this place: One American gold watch case, one open-face silver case, one ladies' gold case with Elroy movement in it—this case has a bird engraved on the front lid; one silver watch, (2d-hand) owned by Michael Stoner; one silver Swiss Patent Lever watch (2d-hand) belonging to ex-Sheriff Loudon; one old silver case that will be sold for old silver—the bezel is broken to pieces; one gold open-face case, one gold-plated Swiss watch, one gold-plated flat case, owned by Postmaster Books. Also one hundred 3-cent postage stamps and fifty 1-cent stamps were taken. The articles enumerated were taken from their proper places in the Post-office room, in the one side of which Wagner does business as watchmaker and jeweler. The entrance, it is believed was made by shoving up the lower sash of a window in the southeast corner of the room. A store box stood against the wall under the window. On the box were a number of clocks. One of the clocks was standing outside of the building alongside of the window, the others seemingly had not been displaced. Highly finished knives, silver spoons, and valuable jewelry were left untouched in the show cases.—Millfin-town Sentinel.

Doings in the Register's Office.—Since our last report the following business of interest to the public has been done:

Deeds of Assignment were placed on record as follows:

Jacob Kremer and wife, to W. N. Seibert, Esq.; Wm. Snyder and wife, to Jacob Kremer; F. W. Gibson, to A. M. Markel, Esq.; Wm. Musgrove and wife, to John G. Herizer; G. W. Crosby, to Henry Gamber; John Beaton, to Geo. Lacy. Letters of Administration have been granted to W. W. McClure, on the estate of Margaret Graham; to Henry Benzel, on the estate of William Fennelle; to Frank D. Yost, on the estate of Geo. Yost; to Solomon Bower, on the estate of George Harper; to D. M. Garland, on the estate of Mary Garland; to Aaron Kline, on the estate of Sam'l. Kline; to H. M. Harper and John Harper, Jr., on the estate of John Harper.

Letters testamentary have been issued as follows: Elizabeth Sweger and W. H. Sweger on estate of David Sweger; to Adam Rice on estate of Daniel Rice; to Nicholas Hench on estate of Mary Harter.

LITTLE GERMAN, Pa., May 30th, 1878. MR. EDITOR:—With your permission I will furnish THE TIMES a few items of news from this section.

This valley contains two blacksmith shops, one wagonmaker shop, marble shop, saw mill, gun smith's shop, two churches and one school house.

Since Mr. Rice's two little daughters ornamented their mother's grave, many others have followed their example, and have ornamented quite a number of graves. It would look well if still more persons would show respect by decorating the graves of their deceased friends here.

The Trustees of the Germany Stone church have employed a man to dig out the briars and brush from the grave yard, which no doubt will make it appear more as it should be.

Mr. Daniel Foote, residing here, has three sons who have never served an apprenticeship to any trade but still they are master mechanics.

William is foreman in a large blacksmith shop in Decatur, Ill. Jacob is superintendent in one of the largest carpenter shops in Harrisburg, Pa., and James is a scientific gunsmith, and has recently constructed a miniature steam engine.

Some are talking of digging for iron ore here instead of for coal. We would be pleased to hear news from other correspondents from other parts of the county, through the columns of THE TIMES. BETA.

A Wise Deacon.

"Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family so well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors running to us so long?"

"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy. I used Bro. Bitter in time and kept my family well and saved large doctor bills. Three dollars' worth of it kept us all well and able to work all the time, and I will warrant it has cost you and most of the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time. I guess you'll take my medicine hereafter." See other column.
