Table with columns for Westward and Eastward routes, listing stations like Harrisburg, Rockville, and Newport with corresponding times.

Express leaves Harrisburg at 10.00 P. M. Dunncannon 11.30 (Bag); Newport 11.57 (Bag) and arrives at Harrisburg at 1.10 A. M.

Brief Items.

Marshall furnace at Newport is again in blast. A rain which was much needed began here early on Saturday morning, and kept up most of the time through the day.

Some farmers will begin hay harvest this week. The crop promises to be a remarkably good one.

Six in a bed—was an incident of one of the cases tried in the quarter session last week at Snyder Co.

F. Mortimer is now in the city, attending an Assignee's sale, and on Wednesday will have a lot of new goods, at great bargains.

Speise, the Harrisburg lawyer, who was convicted of taking too large fee for collecting a pension, has been sentenced to eight months in the penitentiary.

The bark business must be good this season, judging by the large quantity which passes through this place on its way to market.

Linen Suits—Just received at M. M. GOTWALT'S an elegant assortment of LINEN SUITS from $3.75 to $7.75.—Give her a call within TEN DAYS. 24

A lad named Perry Sheibley residing at Newport was thrown from a mule, and kicked in the face while riding the animal to water. Fortunately the boy was not seriously hurt.

A Bucks county woman recently had to pay $500, for gossiping about a neighbor. Some old women, and some not so old, who reside in this county, might learn wisdom from this woman's experience.

At a meeting of the School Board in this borough, on Saturday evening last, the Borough School Tax was reduced 40 per cent, which will allow a six months' term, an increase of one month on the regular term.

One of the horses of a team belonging to Charles Bressler, got so badly scared in Newport on Monday, that it jumped clean of the harness, and was stopped only in time to prevent it from running into Musser & Allen's store.

On Thursday afternoon the horses attached to the stage running between Newport and Montgomery's Ferry, made a start from the front of B. M. Eby's drug store during the absence of the driver, and were making good time for home, when they were fortunately stopped at the Gant House corner.

The Airyview Literary Society is still flourishing, and for the purpose of varying their programme, their Factotum has been impeached with various high crimes and misdemeanors against the Society, and next Friday evening, June 14th, has been set as the time for his trial. Messrs. C. N. Rice and Jas. Shull have been appointed counsel for the Society, and Mr. George Barnett has been chosen by the defendant.

Reformed church—Lecture and prayer meeting on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Thrown from a Mule.—Mr. Isaac Etter while riding a mule from New Buffalo to Newport, was thrown from the animal and badly cut in the face. The accident happened in front of the residence of Mr. Good, in Buffalo twp., and was caused by their dogs causing the animal to kick, and while kicking to break the saddle girth. Mr. Etter's injuries were attended to by Mrs. Good, and he was able to continue his journey the same evening. The accident happened on Saturday a week.

May Bloom of 1834.—It is stated that the spring had been like this, a remarkably forward one, when on the 12th of May, there came a storm of snow and sleet, and freezing weather which even scorched the foliage of the forest trees, then almost in full leaf, and in many cases killed the trees themselves. An experience of this kind is a very wholesome discipline for sceptically inclined people who have begun to lose faith in the almanac.

There is an old saying, "for every fog in January there will be a frost in May." Some of our old people and farmers have observed it a safe rule to plant corn, garden vegetables and other tender plants late in May to escape frosts when it is preceded by a mild winter, and especially by January fogs. We are told by those who noticed it, that we had several fogs last January, and had the several parallel frosts this month, as may be seen on our young corn, planted before time, the grain and other tender plants.

Sabbath School Statistics of Perry county as Reported to the Secretary of the Union Sunday School Association show the following: Number of schools, 72; number of teachers and officers, 874; number of scholars, 4,873; average attendance, 3,410; number of schools open the whole year, 34; Schools using the International Lesson Leaf, 57.

Narrow Escape.—Harry Beam, a former employee of this office, made a narrow escape on Decoration Day. He had been attending a picnic at the Loop on Sherman's creek. The rain had caused the young folks to adjourn to Mr. Gelbaugh's barn, where they amused themselves by swinging, whilst Harry was getting off the swing, the rope broke and the heavy pulley to which it was attached, descended with great force, and came within an ace of striking him on the head, which would have been death to him.

Thieving Near Delville.—Some persons entered the granary of Mr. Andrew Loy, near Delville, on Wednesday night last, and took therefrom seven hams and four shoulders. They did not even leave enough for Mr. L.'s breakfast. To secure an entrance to the granary, they broke two locks. The thieves were tracked a considerable distance from the barn.

On Saturday night a week, the cellar of Mr. Samuel Comp, near the same place, was entered, and a lot of fish stolen therefrom. That vicinity appears to be infested with the petty thieves.

Delegates to the General Eldership.—The following is a list of the ministerial and lay delegates elected from the East Pennsylvania Eldership to the General Eldership of the Church of God, which convened on the 29th ult., in Syracuse, Ind.: Rev. George Sigler, Rev. B. F. Beck, Rev. C. F. Forney, Rev. J. M. Carvell, Rev. J. A. McDonald, Rev. W. L. Jones, Rev. D. A. Laverty, and Rev. I. S. Richmond. The lay delegates are Dr. Geo. Ross, J. Frazer, S. L. Hershey, H. J. Forney, D. C. Kolp, Z. Rice, J. S. Gable and S. Myers.

Franklin County Republicans.—The Franklin county Republican convention met at Chambersburg on Tuesday last. Judge Rowe, the present incumbent, was re-nominated for president judge. Thad. M. Mahon, who was defeated by the Hon. Wm. S. Stenger in the last congressional fight, was again put on the ticket for congress to be treated accordingly at the coming election. H. C. Greenawalt, of Fayetteville; Wm. Burgess, of Richmond Furnace, and Washabaugh, of Waynesboro', were nominated for assembly. The balance of the ticket is as follows: Boyd for treasurer; Haulman for clerk of courts, M'Dowell for prothonotary, and Sollenberger for register and recorder.

A Terrible Accident.—John White took his place as brakeman on first union line west on Wednesday morning of last week, and when the train approached the iron bridge that spans the canal just east of Rockville the warning ropes suspended from a beam across the track overhead warned him to lie low, which he did until the bridge was passed, when he started over deck for the rear end of the train, forgetting that not a hundred yards distant stood another "warning." The train was increasing in speed with each snort of the iron horse, and all at once something struck brakeman White a severe blow on the back of his head knocking him violently down on to the narrow bumper below, where he lay, strange to say, without rolling off, in an insensible condition, while no bones were broken and the flesh escaped uncut or mangled. His hat fell to the ground, a circumstance noticed by some of the track hands, who notified the conductor of the train, who immediately repaired to the scene of the mishap. The temporary shock to the injured man's reason was of short duration, and he climbed on deck again and ran back to the cabin, where reaction took place, producing sickness. He accompanied his train as far as Bally's, where he took Johnstown express and went to his home in Harrisburg.—Newport News.

Fatal Accident.—We have received the following account of a sad and fatal accident at Orrstown. On Saturday last Mr. Joseph Strawbridge, an old and highly respected citizen of that place, was driving through the town when his horse frightened, at a brass band playing and ran away. Mr. Strawbridge was thrown from the vehicle and so badly injured that he died from the effect on Sunday evening.—Franklin Repository.

List of Unclaimed Letters remaining in the post office at New Bloomfield, Perry Co., Pa., June 10th, 1878:

Mr. James Kacy, Miss Bella McKee, Miss Ellen Rice, Dr. A. C. Turner. Persons calling for the above letters, please say they advertised. S. ROATH, P. M.

CENTRE TWP., June 5th, 1878. Mr. Editor.—Permit me to ask through your paper whether School Directors are guardians of "Public Instruction," are justified in granting the use of the school houses to a set of strolling play-actors for the performance of comic farces, negro sketches, jig and clog dances, &c., &c.

If such things are promotive of proper education my ideas must be very much bewildered on the subject. I am willing, however, to cover with the mantle of charity the action of the Directors by supposing that they had not seen the bills of the performers, or certainly, aside from the duties of their office as heads of families and some of them members of Christian churches they would not have countenanced such things. CITIZEN.

Trustees' Notice.

The undersigned Trustees of the German stone church, request all persons who have friends or relatives buried in the grave yard at said church to meet there, on Saturday, the 15th day of June, 1878, at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of fixing up the graves. It is to be hoped that all interested will comply with this request without fail. WILLIAM FOOSE, Sen., J. W. MESSINGER, G. W. REEDER, Trustees.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

Tuesday morning Mr. John M. Railing, near Keller street met with an accident at the factory of Mr. Joseph Elcock, which almost proved fatal. Mr. Railing was ripping boards on a circular saw, when by some unaccountable means a piece of the board which was being sawed was hurled backwards violently, the end striking him on the neck with such force as to cut a deep gash, just escaping the jugular vein. He was standing sideways toward the saw, which position saved his life, for had he been facing the saw the board would have struck him fairly and certainly killed him. Dr. E. N. Mosser attended the injured man, and gave him proper treatment.

The detective having charge of Charlie Foulke, the notorious fugitive from Colorado, started east with his prisoner on Monday. At North Topeka, Kansas, the party were stopped by a writ of habeas corpus in the hands of the prisoner's friends. It is believed Foulke has some desperate friends out there who will do their utmost to secure his release before he reaches Chicago. Foulke had $2,300 on his person when arrested, and money will work wonders in such cases as that sometimes. The detective telegraphs to Harrisburg that the prisoner is safe, and cannot get away, and further that he claims his name is not Foulke, but "G. M. Sturgis." It is hoped he will be landed safely in Carlisle jail before the close of the week.

Mr. Jacob A. Burkholder's store was broken into on Friday night, and was robbed of about thirty dollars in money and some goods. An entrance was effected by climbing a ladder to the second story and prying open a window with a jimmy, and the door leading down to the store was also pried open. All the money drawers were pried open with the same instrument. The query that now agitates the people is, "Who did it?"

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

One night last week, a cow owned by Mr. Jonathan Okeson, of this place gave birth to twin calves. They are both healthy and growing finely.

Yesterday, Orrin, a little son of Mr. James P. Emminger, of Patterson, had one of his feet smashed in a terrible manner by a large road wagon passing over it. Dr. Burns was summoned and found that several bones had been broken and the foot terribly lacerated.

On Monday evening Mr. W. D. McCormick, of this place, while assisting in handling a large iron wheel, the wheel slipped, falling on his left hand, smashing the second finger into a jelly. The hand is much swollen but the wound gives him very little pain.

A few weeks ago, Mr. A. J. Ferguson, of East Waterford, lost a valuable mule by death, also a young heifer. He informs us that he has lost seventeen horses and mules by death in the last 25 years, together with an unnumbered lot of cows and hogs.

Last night the freight warehouse was robbed, the thieves gaining an entrance by prying open one of the large doors on the west side of the building. Boxes were broken open and ransacked, and some of the contents, consisting of dry goods and notions, taken, while other boxes were broken open but the goods were not disturbed. About $1.25 in money was taken. No estimate of the amount of stuff carried off can be made until the owners of the goods are heard from.—Port Royal Times.
