

Another Cyclone in Missouri.

St. Louis, June 1.—A special from Richmond, Mo., to the "Times" says: "A terrific cyclone passed over this place about four o'clock this morning leveling to the ground over half of the buildings in the town. Over one hundred houses were totally destroyed, and the loss of property will reach a quarter of a million dollars. Whole blocks were completely swept away and the debris scattered for miles. The storm came from the southwest, passed to the northeast and was preceded by a heavy fall of rain. Trees were uprooted and carried through the air like feathers, as were also the fragments of houses, and in fact nearly everything that it struck. The Shaw House, a large brick hotel, was demolished and the inmates buried in the ruins. So far as known, nine persons were killed, and between thirty and forty seriously injured. Horses and stock of all kinds in the track of the storm were swept off the earth. A train load of citizens of Lexington has arrived to render aid, and physicians from all the surrounding towns have been summoned to afford medical attention to the wounded. Patrols have been detailed to guard the town."

St. Louis, June 2.—The Mayor of Richmond has called for aid for those whose homes and property have been destroyed, and telegrams have been already received tendering assistance. The funeral of several victims took place this afternoon, and the Masons of Lexington were present to assist in the interment. The remains of Captain William Jacobs were found this morning buried in the ruins, and Judge Donaldson, who was reported wounded last night, is dead, making so far fifteen deaths. Many strangers are rendering all the assistance possible. Advices from the country in the track of the storm northward state that growing crops are badly injured, trees prostrated, stock killed, bridges blown down, but no houses are reported destroyed or lives lost.

A Boy's Logic.

The boy at Sunday School, when asked who made the beautiful surrounding hills, replied that he did not know, as his parents had only moved into town the day before. Equally sensible are those who persist in using the unwholesome, disgustingly-large and drastic pills, while Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, which are sugar-coated, and little larger than mustard seeds will, by their gentle, yet positive actions upon the stomach and liver, specially correct all indigestion and torpidity of the liver, thus permanently curing constipation.

SAN LEANDRO, Cal., Jan. 9th, 1877. DR. PIERCE:—Dear Sir—I have employed your Pleasant Purgative Pellets in my practice for the last four years. I now use no other alternative or cathartic medicines, in all chronic derangements of the stomach liver, and bowels. I know of nothing that equals them.

J. A. MILLER, M. D.

ALMA, Iowa, July, 10th, 1875.

DR. PIERCE:—Dear Sir—Your Pleasant Purgative Pellets are all you claim them to be. I also regard your Golden Medical Discovery, Favorite Prescription, and Sage's Catarrh Remedy, as very superior medicines.

A Resolute Woman's Fight.

Friday night a week a plucky young widow living near Tazewell court house in Virginia defeated two tramp ruffians after a fight which cost all three their lives. About 10 o'clock at night two men went to the house of Mrs. Becky Baldwin and asked her to give them some silver in exchange for notes, offering $7 of the latter for $5 of the former. They soon left, but returned after she had retired and broke open the door and entered her bed room. She jumped from the bed and told them to leave the room. They demanded her pocket book and threatened violence if she did not give it. She went to her dress deliberately took the pocket book from it, containing $21, and threw it in the fire. One of the tramps stooped to get it out and she snatched an ax and dealt him a terrific blow, knocking him down and, quickly following with other blows, dashing his brains out on the hearthstone. The second tramp then drew a dirk knife, rushed at her and stabbed her twice in the left breast. She dealt him a fearful blow with the ax, nearly severing his right arm near the shoulder. The miscreant then fled, leaving a trail of blood behind him. His dead body was found on Saturday morning two miles from the place. A young white man came by Saturday morning and found Mrs. Baldwin dying. She told her story and died two hours afterward. The dead bodies of the tramps were thrown in a hog pen, so great was the indignation of the people in the vicinity. There were no papers upon them by which they could be identified.

From Rosewell Kinney, M. D., of Mannsville, New York.

"I do not hesitate to say that the Purgative Syrup has claims to confidence equal if not superior to those of any medicine that has ever come to my knowledge. I have used it with great success for Dyspepsia and Epilepsy."
