

THE TIMES. Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after June 25th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing stations like Harrisburg, Rockville, and Altoona with arrival and departure times.

Pittsburg Express leaves Harrisburg at 11:00 P.M., Duncannon 11:35 (fast), Newport 11:57 (fast) and arrives at Pittsburgh at 5:10 A.M.

Pacific Express West will stop at Duncannon at 4:30 and at Newport at 5:17 a.m., when flagged.

Going West, the Way Passenger leaves Harrisburg Daily—the other trains Daily except Sunday.

Coming East, the Atlantic Express leaves Altoona Daily, the other trains Daily except Sunday.

Mr. John Swartz formerly a resident of Duncannon, died a few days ago at Altoona, from heart disease.

The Examination of Teachers in Cumberland County, commences July 8th and ends August 7th.

The Sheriff of Cumberland county offers for sale on the 28th of June, 85 tracts of land, as the property of D. V. Ahl.

Hold silver three cent pieces having holes in, or otherwise mutilated will not be received for postage at the post office in this place.

Linen Suits—Just received at M. M. McGOWAN'S an elegant assortment of LINEN SUITS from $3.75 to $7.75.—Give her a call within TEN DAYS.

A little son of Mr. James Clark, of this borough, was bitten in the thigh by a dog belonging to Esquire Clouser, on Saturday morning. The lad was not much hurt.

Something new and novel is the musical entertainment to be given on Saturday, June 29th, in the Court House, in Bloomfield. It comes to us highly recommended. Tickets 25 cents, children 15 cents.

On Monday evening two thieves entered the premises of Chas. Raub, in Penn township, but were discovered before they had time to take anything. A son of Mr. Raub's fired six shots at them but it is not known whether any took effect.

On last Tuesday night some scamp broke the lock off the door of the spring house belonging to Mr. David Holmes, Jr., and took therefrom about five pounds of butter and a crock of new milk. The same night Clark's mill in Centre twp., was entered and a quantity of flour was stolen.

On Saturday night a week a disturbance took place in Duncannon, which resulted in the arrest of B. H. Noss, and a young man named Adams, charged with disorderly conduct and assault. They were committed to jail on Monday, but escaped by rushing out as Mrs. Gray opened the door to allow a tramp to enter on Wednesday. A dispatch was sent to Duncannon and they were again arrested the same night, and re-committed but have since been liberated on bail.

Church Notices.

Preaching in the Lutheran Church next Sunday at 10 A. M., by Rev. J. Focht of Selins Grove.

Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday at 8 o'clock P. M.

Lecture and Prayer meeting in the Reformed Church on Tuesday at 8 o'clock P. M.

A Queer Predicament.—A horse belonging to Henry Peters in Buffalo township, while rolling in the pasture rolled into a hole, partly filled with water, and would have drowned had he not been helped out. When first seen the animal was lying on her back, just managing to hold her head up out of the water.

An Old Fellow.—On the 18th inst., Jeremiah Bair, of Bucks Valley, Buffalo twp., found a land turtle marked, J. P., May 17, 1854, over 44 years ago. The turtle was no doubt marked by either Jacob or Jonas Potter, Sr. on the old Potter homestead, and as it was found near said farm, in 44 years it had not traveled a mile from where it was marked.

Trouble at an Orphan School.—On Thursday last, six boys were brought to jail from the Andersonburg Orphan School, charged with disorderly conduct. On Saturday they were brought before his Honor Judge Junkin on a writ of habeas corpus, but the case was continued till this (Monday) morning to give Mr. Hall a chance to be present. The boys claim they were over worked, and were not properly fed, being made to do hard work on Mr. Hall's farm, while the food was unfit to eat. As the matter will probably be investigated the public will no doubt have a chance to learn the truth of the matter. At any rate it appears strange that the principals of the Orphan Schools throughout the State should be able to accumulate so much property in so short a time. It seems as though the schools were really of more service to the managers financially than to the scholars generally.

Argument Court.—Court called at nine o'clock on last Thursday for the transaction of such business as was left unfinished at the regular Orphans' and Argument Court on the 11th inst.

An unusual amount of business was transacted, the largest part of which was the winding up of the Argument List. The following are the principle items of business that were acted upon at this day's session:

Rules granted on Samuel Minich. Assignee of Benjamin Minich, at the instance of certain creditors to show cause why an attachment should not issue against him for the non payment of the pro rata shares found to be due them by the Auditor's Report.

Exceptions to the Auditor's Reports were examined and continued until 10th of July next.

Wm. C. Brown, Esq., and Abraham Grubb were appointed appraisers of the assigned estate of J. R. Davis.

Chas. A. Barnett, Esq., was appointed an Auditor to ascertain preferred claims for labor against the assigned estate of Israel Lupier, in accordance with the Act of Assembly of the 5th of April, 1872.

Wilson Lupter, Esq., was appointed a Commissioner to take testimony in the matter of the application of the stockholders of the Marysville Building Association for a writ of Mandamus to compel the officers to fix the seal of the corporation to a petition for its dissolution.

Rule granted on the Creditors of Wm. McCoy to show cause why Joseph Smith, his Assignee, should not be discharged from his trust, he having finished the duties of his appointment.

In the matter of the proceedings in divorce by Lizzie F. Hoscock from Wm. B. Hoscock, a decree separating her from the bonds of matrimony was granted.

David Smail, Garnishee of Jas. Snyder, Plff. in error, vs. Jas. Miller, and Geo. H. Miller, Defs. in error. Certiorari to J. D. Sechrist, Esq., A. J. Baird, vs. Penna. Canal Co. Motion for a new trial argued, and opinion of court reserved.

John McCreary and R. H. McCreary, his wife, vs. Jas. Emory. Motion for a new trial argued and opinion of court reserved.—Sponsor and Smiley for Plff. Barnett for Defs.

Commonwealth vs. William Weldon. Motion for a new trial in Quarter Sessions where Deft had been convicted of Fornication and Bastardy, argued and opinion reserved.

Adam Karstetter, vs. Chas. Wright and Geo. Wright. Motion for a new trial argued and opinion reserved. Foster and Barnett for Plff. Sponsor and Smiley for Defs.

John Gallagher and Sarah, his wife, vs. John Gallagher. Certiorari to Theo. Foster, Esq., error alleged that Mrs. Gallagher was a married woman and that record did not set forth that judgment was for necessities, &c. Judgment reversed as to Sarah Gallagher and affirmed as to John Gallagher.

John R. Logan vs. Samuel Daniels. Rule to show cause why judgment should not be entered for want of a sufficient affidavit of defense. Rule discharged.

Felix Ginterich vs. Gottlieb Licht. Rule to show cause why the Mortgage of M. Licht should not be first paid out of proceeds of Sheriff's sale. Argued and continued.

The balance of the cases upon the Argument List were continued upon request of counsel.

FOR THE TIMES, The Airyview Literary Society.

MR. EDITOR:—I intrude in your columns this week in conformity to your published invitation for all to forward accounts of interesting events occurring in their section of the county, and for the purpose of satisfying a curiosity that has been created by the "local" advertising the following proceeding, which you so kindly published on the 11th inst. The Airyview Literary Society is no more. The Society was called to order by the President, at 8 1/2 o'clock, on last Friday evening, for the last time in its term. First in order was the reading of minutes of previous meeting. The Society then formed itself into a court for the purpose of trying their Factotum for various "high crimes and misdemeanors." His Hon. H. H. McKeehan appointed J. C. Moore, Clerk of the Court and Dr. Jefferson Gussler, Constable.

District Attorney James Shull then read the bills of indictment, and upon the defendant pleading "not guilty," a jury of five men were sworn to try the case. The proceedings were now conducted as near as possible in the same manner as in a court of justice. At the conclusion of the judge's charge the jury adjourned to the play-ground, attended by the constable, to decide upon their verdict.

A committee was now appointed, empowered to reconvene the Society at some future time, make arrangements for a picnic, &c. This was followed by an entertaining budget, Luther Reiter, Editor. The jury having returned to the court room in the meantime, they now handed in their verdict and in it declared the prisoner guilty of the following high crimes: 1st. "Of not locking the door at the adjournment of Society."

2nd. "Of not closing window shutters."

He was, also, found guilty of the following misdemeanor: "Of smiling and winking at the girls and women."

THE SENTENCE:—His Honor then commanded the prisoner to stand up, and amidst a breathless silence pronounced the following sentence: "The sentence of the court is, that you pay a fine of $2.50 and undergo imprisonment in the Perry County Jail, for a period of two years."

The Society was then declared adjourned sine die. Too much praise cannot be given his Honor for the intelligent manner in which he discharged the duties of his office. As an officer of the Society I take opportunity of thanking all of the great number present for their good behavior.

A MEMBER.

Improvements &c., at Blain.

BLAIN, Pa., June 15th, 1878.

MR. EDITOR:—Miss Susan Bower is erecting a large dwelling house in Blain, and Miss Susan Kern is putting up a new barn. In Germantown Geo. S. Briner, the Register and Recorder, intends putting up a large store-house. Mrs. Maggie Swartz intends erecting a large house in Germantown, also.

It is not always "over the river" that the stealing is done. Blain and vicinity comes in for a share. Daniel Gutshall had 11 calf-skins and 3 halters taken out of his tannery a few nights since. The thief sold the halters in Cumberland co., for $1.50, and now the constable is close on his heels. He might end his days with a rope halter around his neck, if not careful. We think of applying to the Commissioners by the Governor to choose Blain as the site for the Middle Penitentiary.

ANON.

SHERMANSDALE, Pa., June 1, 1878.

MR. EDITOR:—I will give you a few items from this place. There is in operation a railroad across the creek below the bridge. Who says Carroll twp., has no railroad? Mr. Geo. Palmer has commenced to work in the coach shop at this place. Still some stealing done in this place and vicinity. Mr. Geo. Gibson lost a fine horse some time ago.

I. SCHWARTZ.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

A horse owned by Emanuel Moyer, residing in Fermanagh twp., took wind colic last Thursday, and died in a few hours.

On Tuesday a week Lucian Dillman, residing in Walker twp., from a state of health took sick and died in less than an hour.

Two men in Walker twp., traded wives. One of the men thought he must needs have a dollar to boot to make the trade even. The dollar was given and the exchange of women made.

About 4 o'clock on Monday morning, a man named John Shee, from Beaver Falls, Beaver county, Pa., had a leg crushed between the bumpers of freight cars, at the west end of Patterson yard. He represents that he was on his way to Reading to attend a Temperance meeting; that his ticket from Pittsburg to Reading was lifted somewhere between Pittsburg and Huntingdon, and he was put off the passenger train at the last named place. After he was put off the passenger train, he got on a freight train and came to Mitflin, where the above accident took place. His mangled leg was amputated by Dr. D. M. Crawford. He is an Odd Fellow, and the brethren are looking up his case, and have instituted inquiry as to his standing at home.—Sentinel.

On Saturday of last week a bull owned by Mr. Robert Innis, residing about a mile east of McCoyville, broke out of a field in which he was pasturing, and proceeded to the above mentioned village, where the bull attacked a valuable mare belonging to Mr. James Crawford, which was standing in front of the residence of Dr. Crawford, and before the infuriated monster could be driven off had gored the beast to death, the poor brute sinking rapidly beneath the deadly thrusts, expiring almost instantly. The person first noticing the onslaught, in attempting to drive the bull away, had to flee for safety. The bull was finally captured after a great effort.—Port Royal Times.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

Albert Judy, who confessed to having participated in the firing of Greenfield's stable, and who was subsequently sent to prison, has been discharged. The crime having been committed over two years ago, the limitation of law permits Judy to go free.

Those having the Newville Celebration in charge are determined to spare no efforts to make the coming Fourth of July one of the most glorious ever held in Newville. Says the "Star," A general invitation will be given to country as well as town to participate. The programme will be as follows: Fantastic parade, at 8 A. M.; grand parade, at 10 A. M.; oration, at 12 M.; dinner, at 1 P. M.; fire works, at 8 1/2 P. M.

The Newburg correspondent of the "Enterprise" says: "Israel Failor, living near Newburg, was robbed of one hundred and twenty dollars tax money he had stored in a chest up stairs. The robbery was committed some time between last Friday and Monday, and was discovered by Mr. Failor when he went to get the money. It is supposed the money was taken while the family was away by some one who was posted in the matter, and on the lookout for an opportunity. The pocket-book that had contained the money was found in Thomas Reeder's shoeing shed on Tuesday, the 11th, by David Hoover who discovered the owner by the papers that were left in the pocket-book."

On Saturday evening a serious cutting affair occurred at the St. Clair House, in the Third Ward, Carlisle. The circumstances of the case, as near as they can be learned, are as follows:

A young man named Charles Miller had been drinking heavily during the evening, and in an intoxicated condition applied for liquor at the hotel bar. Capt. Shriver, the bar-tender, noticing his condition, refused to give him liquor, and Miller went out front. Mr. S. afterward walked to the door, where he stood in the door-way. Miller, outside, (witnesses of the transaction say) stood on the sidewalk abusing Shriver, then, it is alleged, drew a knife, walked up to Shriver, plunged the weapon into the latter's breast and fled. The blood flowed from the cut very freely, and those near by placed the wounded man in an easy position and sent for a physician, who arrived in the person of Dr. S. P. Zeigler, who dressed the wound, pronouncing it by no means not dangerous, but not necessarily, of itself, fatal. The cut extends across the left breast about three inches, the knife having struck a rib directly over the heart and ran along the rib until stopped by the breast bone. A half inch higher or lower would have resulted in instant death. Miller was arrested.

Lippincott's Magazine.

The illustrated articles in Lippincott's Magazine for July are attractive both by their literary and artistic merits, and the objects to which they relate. "Here and There in Old Bristol," by Dr. Alfred S. Gibbs, is rich in description and anecdotal matter connected with the quaint customs and former celebrities—Chatterton, Hannah More, and others—of what was once England's chief seaport. "An Atelier des Dames," by Margaret B. Wright, gives very amusing glimpses of art life in Paris. Leonard Woolsey Bacon gives the history of "The Real Prisoner of Chillon"—a very different character from the hero of Byron's poem. The other articles are very varied, comprising "A Levantine Picnic," by a U. S. Naval officer; an account of the "Popular Marriage Customs of Sicily," by Dr. Giuseppe Pirre; "A Tartar Fight at Kazan," by D. Kerr; "The Idol of the Yaclouse," by Charlotte Adams, and a paper on the Census of 1880, by Henry Stone, who shows the necessity for a new law of Congress to remedy the defects in the present method of taking the Census. There is also much diversity in the fiction of the number, which includes several amusing short stories by Wm. M. F. Round, Jennie Woodville, Mary Wager Fisher, and the opening chapters of a new serial, "Through Windy Ways," by Ellen W. Olney, author of

"Love in Idleness." There are poems by Paul H. Rayne and Kate Putnam Osgood, and the usual number of light papers in this "Gossip."

Terms.—Yearly Subscription, $4.00. Single Number, 35 cents. Specimen number, 20 cents. J. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO., Publishers, 715 and 717 Market Street, Philadelphia.

The "Health Reformer," published at Battle Creek, Mich., is the leading health journal of the world. Its publishers claim for it the largest circulation of any journal of the kind in the world. Its Popularity is largely due to the fact that its writers are not hobby riders. They are not given to the advocacy of ultra notions of any sort, but aim to impart simple and sensible information on all subjects pertaining to the restoration of health. The journal is well deserving of the large patronage which it receives.
