All men are not homeless, but some are home less than others.

Perry county boasts of oats five feet and a half tall.

Centre township has a man aged seventy-eight years, who makes a full hand in the harvest field.

Newcomer, of the American House, East Waterford, is the champion frog catcher. He gigs them behind the ears. A little son of David Shade on Dun-can's Island, fell into the canal on last Monday and was drowned.

The McCahan brothers a few days ago came across a large rattle-snake on Shade mountain. The snake was killed, and to their astonishment it had 18 rattles.

Rev. John Focht, son of Rev. David Focht, a former pastor of the Lutheran Church in this place preached a very acceptable sermon here on Sunday last.

On Monday of last week a fine heifer belonging to Mrs. Elizabeth Albright, of Buffalo twp., fell dead while running in Davidson Miller, residing a short distance from Millerstown, fell from a cherry tree on Tuesday of last week and was severely injured.

Sour cherries are unusually scarce this season, while other kinds of cherries are not very plenty. They sell at 5 to 8 cents per court.

The opera of "Laila," performed by the young ladies of this place, under the instructions of Prof. Eberhart, on Sat-urday night, was an entertainment much enjoyed by a large audience.

Emanuel Moyer, of Fermanagh twp., Juniata co., cut and had wheat in shock on Monday of last week—probably the first in the county. The first we heard of in this county was on Wednesday.

On Thursday last while assisting at raising Mr. John Boden's barn at Ickesburg, Lieut. Wm. Jacobs was injured by a stick of timber falling upon him.—His injuries were attended by Dr. Dean and the injured man is now doing well.

And now papers contain reports of the return of Kansas emigrants to the east, with the information that not a few of the colonists are dissatisfied with the new country to which the Western fever has carried them.

A Harrisburg boy who came to Allen's A Harrisburg boy who came to Allen's Cove to pick cherries one day last week was quite unluckly. He gathered his basket full of delicious fruit and taking it and his shoes (which were new and hurt his feet,) in hand, attempted to board a train. The basket and the shoes landed safely on the train, but the boy failed in his efforts to get himself on and had the chagrin of seeing basket, cherries and shoes borne rapidly out of his sight. his sight.

Esquire Farnsworth has been heard from again. On Tuesday last twenty-two employees of the N. C. R. R., at Marysville were before him for breach of the Sabbath laws. Excursion Tickets .- The P. R. R. will commence to issue Excursion tickets on Wednesday morning, continuing Thursday, tickets good until Friday evening.

A Severe Less .- A valuable Stallion belonging to Singleton Sheaffer, of this place, died on Saturday. The animal was sick only a few hours.

New Organ.-The M. E. Sunday School have purchased a fine Waters' Organ through the agency of Mr. Milton Gibson, of this borough. The instrument is neatly finished, sweet toned and gives general satisfaction.

A Marvellous Story.—The Record tells the following remarkable story, and our readers can act their pleasure in accepting it as a fact: A farmer in our neighborhood having placed a pail of milk in a spring of water to cool over night, went there the next morning, and found, it is solemnly asserted, instead of the pail of milk, a large bull frog sitting in a contemplative mood upon a roll of fresh butter. The sole explanation is that the frog had jumped from the water into the pail, and, in trying to extract himself, had, by diligent and continuous strokes of his legs, churned the milk into butter.

The Robbery of the Hawn Brothers .- The Huntingdon Local News says: "Isaac, one of the Hawn brothers, who was struck in the face with the butt end of a pistol by one of the rufflan robbers a few days ago, was in town on Saturday. His brother John still suffers from the injuries he received, but is rapidly recovering. No arrests have yet been made of the burglars, but officers are upon their track and it is thought one or more will be arrested before many days. The conclusions arrived at by many of our people that the burglary was a premeditated affair, prove correct, but enough is known to justify the belief that the burglars were not so-called 'tramps,' but professional thieves, being part of a gang that operates in this and adjoining counties. We are not at liberty at present to divulge the names of suspected parties nor the manner in which the Hawn brothers were 'spotted.' "

A Half Day's Terror .- On Thursday at about 3 P. M., several citizens standing at W. R. Titler's store, were surprised to see an angry looking smoke suddenly issue from C. Hennebarger's back yard, just opposite where they were standing, between the corncrib and stable. An investigation proved that quick work must be done or a conflagration of no small degree was at hand, seeing the combustible nature of the material convenient. The alarm was sounded and in a short time both engines were at hand but too late to be of any use, as the flames were subdued in the outstart through the active measures of the citizens present. In the burry and excitement of course some mistakes were made prominent among which was that of a citizen who, in his zeal to save the buildings ran into the kitchen, grabbed up a dish-pan of greasy water, ran to the fire and dashed it-all over Ed. M'Candlish.

Later in the day as some girls were passing down the alley at the rear of Mrs. fodder room revealed smoke issuing from some straw and dust on the floor. The alarm was immediately given and by the timely appearance of water another conflagration was spared our people.

About dark a son of John Diller, living with his grandfather, Col. W. H. Woodburn, on Main street, went out into the yard and looking towards the stable of Wm. Cratzer, discovered it to be on fire in the loft. The alarm was again given and the people aroused in that vicinity. Dr. J. C. Claudy, Stacy C. Glauser and Jno. S. Dougerty were about the first to gain admittance to the loft, which was found to be empty of hay except a small portion that had been thrown together in a mound and set on fire had already begun to mount up, but by the energetic action of these gentlemen, especially J. S. Dougherty, who ran with a bucket of water, the fire was quickly put out.

Our citizens were greatly exercised at these attempts at incendiary, following as they did so closely on each other, and quiet but determined measures were at once arranged for the protection of the town. A strict watch was set with instructions to shoot on the spot any one found firing a building. The next question is, who is the author of these incendiary attempts? And what was the motive for such persistent attempts to involve a large lot of highly combusti-ble material in a burning? the end of which no one could estimate, considering our meagre means at hand for the reduction of fires. Our people are all on the alert and no pains will be spared to reach the guilty ones-Newville Star.

Cumberland County.-We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

During the thunder storm of Wednes-day last, Mr. Harry Cornman, of Mid-dlesex township, made a narrow escape from injury. During the storm the lightning played havoc among the trees in the vicinity of Dr. James Irvine's farm in Middlesex twp., striking several. Mr. Cornman, at the time was riding along the road, and was in front of a locust grove when the electric fluid struck and completely destroyed a locust tree, a number of large splinters striking and sticking into his clothing. Singular to state Mr. C. was not even shocked by the bolt, yet his escape from flying splinters, falling limbs and reckless electricity was surprising.

Monday afternoon of last week, as "Doc" Wherry, a young man, was assisting to unload hay in the barn on the Stewart farm, a short distance south of Carlisle, the rope broke and the fork struck and penetrated young Wherry's body, inflicting, most probably fatal injuries.

On Tuesday William Hofflebower, of Newville, was at D. McLaughen's, in Mifflin township, picking cherries, when by the breaking of a limb he fell from the tree a distance of about thirty feet to the ground. One leg was broken and he sustained other severe injuries about the head and limbs from the fall. Dr. Hartzell was immediately summoned, and attended to the unfortunate man's Great trouble is occasioned the train hands on the South Mountain railroad, owing to the number of cattle that gather on the track. At night it is considered dangerous to make use of the road.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

On Tuesday evening of last week, the store of Rhine & Graybill, in Richfield, was entered by some persons unknown, by prying open the front door, and about $80 worth of ready-made clothing, notions, &c., taken. No clue to the roblems

We have heard that a little son of a family named Kurtz, out near Sellers' mill, fell from a cherry tree one day this week and was instantly killed by the fall. We have not been able to obtain further particulars.

On Sunday morning last, a son of Henry Stewart, residing in Licking Creek Valley, aged about seven years, had his left leg broken at the thigh. He was leading a calf, and the calf ran away with him, throwing him down which caused the accident. Dr. Banks and Dr. Sandoe reduced the fracture, and he is doing very well.

The store of Mr. Winey, at Richfield, was burglariously entered on the Monday night of last week, and goods, principally clothing, taken to the amount of about $125. On the followamount of about $125. On the following Wednesday evening a German tramp, who gave his name as Max Seigel, was arrested in Thompsontown, and $89 worth of the goods found in his possession. He is now in the county jail, and will be tried at the September term. He had an accomplice who escaped.

A little daughter of Mr. Samuel Bell, of Fermanagh twp., about two-and-a-half miles north of Mifflintown, was bitten by a copperhead snake on Thursday morning last. The child was out on the wood-pile gathering chips, and while thus engaged reached over an old log after a piece of wood, in doing which she disturbed the reptile, which instantly raised his envenomed head and struck the little girl, who was in her bare feet. the little girl, who was in her bare feet, on her right leg below the knee. The reptile also struck at an older sister of the child, but did not reach her. Mr. Bell hastened to town with all speed, and called Dr. D. M. Crawford, who on his arrival at the residence of Mr. B., found the little girl very much presented be. the little girl very much prostrated, her pulse weak and sluggish and the bitten limb largely swollen. He administered the proper antidotes and restoratives, and left the child without being able to form an opinion as to the probably re-

[COMMUNICATED.] Andersonburg Soldiers' Orphan School.

The True Version at Last—And the Au-thorities Vindicated.

Owing to the gross misrepresentation in the Harrisburg Patriot of the End oit, of a little disturbance occurring in the Soldiers' Orphan School, at Andersonburg, it becomes an absolute necessity, that right should be vindeated and that the story be told by one who knows whereof he speaks. When such violent perversion of facts are brought before the public as were in the Patriof of the 22nd uit., it is high time that the truth be told. The following misstatements are ample reasons for replying to the aforesaid article. That during the melee of Tue-day, "The boys had absolute sway in the Building and the campus" is a fabrication out of the whole cleth, for the Building and grounds were never under better control by the authorities of the school. Again, that the boys were "lilegally held in defiance of all lise," We would suggest that the reporter should wait until he hears both sides of a story before he gives out half fiedged news. Also, they (i. e.) the boys, testified that the "treatment was barsh in the extreme: that the food was impure, etc."—Now if the writer of the above had any desire to report facts he should have bided his time until Mr. Hall and the employees were heard on the witness stand and accepted their sworn testimony in preference to the conflicting statements of half a dozen boys who were not known to tell a single unvarnished truth while in Bloomfiel.—No, the above correspondent could have been actuated by no other motive than "green-eyed jeaiousy," or a nendish desire to mar the fair name of the Soldiers' Orphan School under the charge of Frof. Hall. The writer thinks that a speedy thwestigation by the authorities is demanded. That is precisely what Mr. Hall wished. Mrs. Hutter, the lady inspector of the Soldiers' Orphan School under the charge of Frof. Hall. The writer thinks that a speedy threstigation by the authorities in the land that the true story may come be followed. They came into the school-room armed with clubs and better the half of the boys played than a ricies of injustice wit

KOCHENDERFER.—At the residence of Mr. Jos. Bryner, near Sandy Hill, on the E3rd of June, Miss Lizzle C. Kochenderfer, daughter of Mr. Thomas W. Kochenderfer and Caroline Kochenderfer, of lekesburg, aged 20 years and 1 day.

In Memoriam.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Sandy Hill Sunday School:—

The following resolutions were adopted by the Sandy Hill Sunday School:

Whereas, Almighty God, in His great wisdom has seen fit to remove from amony us, our Sister Lazie C. Kochenderfer who was cornerly an active worker in our Sunday School, therefore be it Resolved. That we have had called from us, one of the most worthy of our number, who commanded our sincerest affection, and whose friendahip and profession were highly esteemed by al. Resolved. That we recognize in this the hand of Our Father, "Who doeth all things well," and in a mysterious way, hoping that it may result in the individual good of us all.

Resolved. That as an expression of our sorrow, in consequence of the sudden calling of our Sister, we extend to the parents and friends the heart-left spmpathy of our Sunday School, and would commend them to Him Who has promised to be our Shepherd, our Light, and our Salvation.

"Dear Lizzy she has gone to rest.

"Dear Lizzy she has gone to rest. When with summer earth is dressed, Fold her. O Father in Thine arms, and Let her henceforth be, a messenger of love Between Our human hearts and Thee. " Friendship and love have done Their last, and now can do no more; The bitterness of death is past. And all thy sufferings o'er.

"The gentle spirit passed away Mid pain the most severe, So great we could not wish her stay A moment longer here."
