Concert.-The Presbyterian Sabbath School will give a concert in Church Building in ald of school fund next Friday at 7 P. M. Admission 10 and 15 cts. Patronage of the town respectfully requested by the pupils, who, with the choir, will give an interesting musical entertainment.

Rept reliants Struck by Lightning .- A large bank barn belonging to Isaac Romig, in Beaver township, about a mile west of Adamsburg, was struck by lightning Tuesday afternoon and, with all its contents, consisting of wheat, oats, hay, etc., was entirely consumed. No insurance.-Middleburg Post.

Woods Festival .- A woods festival will be held by the M. E. Sabbath School of New Germantown in Kramer's woods, near that place on Saturday next. Itefreshments of all kinds will be furnished at low prices, and goods meals will be served at all hours, for little money. Every body is invited to come, Bring your wives and sweethearts and have a good time. Music by the Blain Band.

Shot in the Neck. - On Tuesday evening as Rev. J. W. Cleaver, of this borough, was sitting in his study, he was startled by the report of a gun, and the rattling of the shot on his window, at the same moment feeling the sharp stinging of the shot against his neck. Upon investigation he found that, Esquire Clouser had been shooting at the birds in his lot opposite, and that the shots were not intended to do him bodily harm. Mr. Cleaver, however, objects to such carelessly shooting so near his residence.

Strange Incident .-- A short time since the remains of the late Isaac Deardoff were disinterred from the family burying ground, on the Stoyer farm, near Shady Grove, for the purpose of removing them to the Hade Church Cemetery. The coffin was found to be in a perfect state of preservation, and upon opening it, to the surprise of all present, the body presented the same appearance it did when buried, nearly twelve years ago. This must be regarded as a rather remarkable case as the coffin was not an air-tight one. This statement is vouched for by trustworthy citizens .- Waynesboro Record.

Crock Polsoning. - Mr. Jacob Ram p. says the Chambersburg Daily, lives within a couple of miles of Newburg, Cumberland county. He is married and has four children and is a hard-working farmer. Last week one of his neighbors presented him with a large crock of apple butter which in due time was placed upon the table and eaten. This was on Tuesday last. Every member of the family partook of the apple butter as it was quite a treat. Two little boys ate quite freely. On Wednesday evening one of them complained of feeling unwell, and the sickness increased until they were all compelled to go to bed. Medical aid was summoned. Dr. Leberknight, of Newburg, responded, and as the malady assumed serious proportions he called in Dr. Robert Stewart and another physician from Shippensburg, On Sunday the family were all very ill, in fact dangerously so. The little boy worked in spasms for hours. Yesterday Mr. John Speer, of Brand & Speer, of town, received word to go down as soon as possible as there was a fear that death might occur to of the family at any moment. Mrs. Ramp is a sister of Mr. Speer, and he went down by last night's train. The doctors examined the crock and found that the glazing had softened and mixed with the butter, causing this wholesale poisoning. Car Robbers Surprised .- Between one and two o'clock yesterday morning, night dispatcher Hammill, while on duty at Bridgeport opposite this city, observed three robbers making an attempt to rob a freight car which stood on the siding above the round house.-One of the thieves stood on the outside of the car while two of them had broken the seal and were operating inside. Mr. Hammill heard the noise made by the burglars and crept up cautiously to watch operations. The sentinel saw Mr. H. approaching and gave the alarm, when all of them took to their heels, followed by Hammill, who began to fire his revolver at them as they retreated. The tallest of the three was hit. He dropped to the ground, groaned, and jumping to his feet suddenly made his escape. The smallest of the three, who wore a mustache and was pock-marked, was shot in the calf of the legs and allowed himself to be captured, and was taken to the dispatcher's office. He persistently refused to give his name .--The Bridgeport operator sent a dispatch to Harrisburg for a pollceman to take charge of him. Special officer Timothy, at the Pennsylvania railroad, was sent across the river on a shifting engine to take charge of the thief, but before he reached the dispatcher's office the thief had made his escape. Mr. Hammill having occasion to leave the office to attend to his duties, the prisoner ran out of the building, jumped a fence and hid In a corn-field, aided by darkness. The other two ran away across the fields in the direction of New Cumberland.-Harrisburg Patriot of the 15th inst.

Charlie and Love, aged respectively ten and eight years, were unloading a heavy iron fence, intended to inclose a lot in the cemetery, from the ears of the Penn. railroad in Patterson on Thursday morn-ing, an accident occurred which result-ed quite seriously to the boys. They had got one section of the fence out of the car and while Mr. Auker was adjusting this on the wagon, the boys undertook to move forward another section in the car. But they were unable to manage it, and the heavy iron frame fell over, catching one of Charlie's legs under it and breaking the large bone in the lower imb about midway between the knee and the ankle and bruising one of Love's feet badly. Love's feet badly.

On Saturday evening last, two young horses belonging to Mr. J. F. G. Long, of Spruce Hill township, attached to a two-horse carriage were hitched to a fence, near the residence of Mrs. Alex-ander, on Milford street, got loose and ran away, smashing the top of the buggy and otherwise damaging it. Two cows belonging to Michael Deckard of Liverpool, were stabled last week, in hopes of saving them after they had eaten a quantity of river grass. The at-tempt to save them was successful with one, but the finest animal died.

A new warehouse is to be erected at Newport on this side of the railroad. A siding will be laid that will bring the railroad about 60 feet nearer to Bloom-field. So we see the iron rail gradually approaching the county seat.

William Peebles, an aged and respect-ed citizen of Mechanicsburg, died very suddenly Thursday evening, shortly be-fore six o'clock, from a stroke of apo-plexy. He had been feeling unwell in the afternoon and about the time stated, was sitting on the lounge, when he suddenly reeled over and died in a short time.

Just previous to the slight shower on Saturday afternoon, a very peculiar roaring noise that attracted much atten-tion was heard among the clouds, and many theories as to its cause are advanc-ed. The sound indicated a terrific storm, and yet the clouds scarcely moved, and no storm came.

On Monday Governor Hartranft furon Monday Governor Hartranft fur-nished a requisition to James P. Smith, an officer from Middleburg, Snyder county, on the governor of Michigan, for Jonathan Moyer, of Schoolcraft, Kalamazoo county, he being one of the parties implicated in the confession of Miss Hartley, which we published two weeks since. weeks since.
