A Convincing Argument.

He was squirting tobacco juice over the floor of the saloon, and telling how capital oppressed labor, when one of the dozen men in the place inquired: "Air you one o' them Communists?" " I hold, sir, that we must have an even distribution of property—yes, sir, or we'll fight, sir!" was the pompous reply. "Stranger, kin ye lend me a chew of tobacco?" asked the inquirer. A box full of fine-cut was handed him. He put it in his pocket, and was walking away, when the Communist called out: "Beg pardon, but you are carrying off my tobacco!" "S'all right—s'all right," replied the other. "I was out, and you have plenty. We've got to even this buisuess up, you know, and you keep the box and I'll keep the tobacco." He was too big to lick, and the Communist put the empty box in his pocket, and refused to laugh with the crowd.

Music At Home.

At an evening party a lady was called upon for a song, and began : "I'll strike again my tuneful lyre." Her busband was observed to dodge suddenly and start hurriedly from the room, remarking: "Not if I know it, she wont. She beats blue blazes out of me at home, and I stand it like a man, but when she threatens to hit me in a strange house, and calls me a liar before a whole crowd, I'll run as long as I have a spark of manhood left."-Elko(Nev) Post.

€ iIt is a standing rule in my church," said one New York clergyman to another, "for the sexton to wake up any man that he sees asleep." "I think," replied the other, "that it would be better for the sexton, whenever a man goes to sleep under your preaching to wake you up!"

A young lady in Williamsburg has been sued for breach of promise. The discarded lover says he "noticed a coldness in her in January." What else could be expect in January? If he had only waited till the recent heat wave got around, she might have thawed out considerable.

The culprit was brought before the magistrate and asked his name. It was given as Kachenschlager. "Did you shoot the dog in self defence?" "No; I shot him in the lek, und be yumped ofer de fence." Mike was asked if he believed in second love. "Faith, an I do!" said he. "If you have a pound of sugar, isn't it swate? And, when that is gone, don't you want another; and isn't that swate, too?"

"My dear," asked Mrs. Phance, of her husband as he came home from church, "what was the sweetest thing you saw in bonnets ?" "The ladies' faces," was the gallant reply. TA Kentucky editor bought his ink

by the jug full, because he could get it cheaper, he said, but his wife went to fill the inkstand one morning, and found it was not ink by a jug full. That prisoner has a very smooth countenance," said the judge to the sheriff. "Yes," responded the sheriff, "he was ironed just before he was brought in." A Michigan widow recently hid her cow away under the hay to save it from the tax collector. This may be called "a genuine case of cow-hiding by a female."

A Mississippi Judge was just saying that no one but a coward would carry a pistol, when his own fell from his pocket, was discharged, and the bullet hit a lawyer in the leg.

We had a short-cake for tea," said a little fellow to a companion, to whom he was talking through the fence. "So had we," he answered, "very-so short that it didn't go round."

ever had any wives ?" Certainly, didn't you ever read about the "Merry Wives of Wind-sir ?" & A French author says : " When I lost my wife, every family in the town

John writes to ask "if old Boreas offered me another; but when I lost my horse no one offered to make him good." The proprietor of a bone mill advertised that those sending their own bones to be ground will be attended to punctually. "We want all the truth," said the judge to an Irishman. "Indade, ye shall have it all, and more," was the reply. What ties two persons but only touches one? A wedding ring.
