

Powder Explosion at Pottsville.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., August 17.—During a storm, about four o'clock this afternoon, the powder magazine of H. A. Weldy & Co., on the outskirts of this place, was struck by lightning. There were eleven hundred kegs of powder stored in the building, and a terrible explosion immediately ensued—completely demolishing the magazine, and scattering the debris with terrible force in an easterly direction—making a gap in the woods fifty feet wide.

A picnicking party was assembled in the woods a short distance below the magazine, and several of the party were more or less injured by the flying stones, timbers, etc. John Wasler, a boy named Vaughn, and a son of Andrew Gallagher, were killed. A daughter of William Brazier had her legs crushed so badly that amputation is necessary. Richard Stevens, leg badly cut; David Thomas' foot crushed; Henry James, bruised about the body and legs broken; Wm. Reese, leg crushed—amputated.

The house of Henry Stealey was nearly torn down, and Mr. and Mrs. Stealey both received wounds about the head. Many cattle in the vicinity were so badly injured that they had to be afterwards killed.—Loffin & Rhoads' magazine, near by, containing several hundred kegs of powder, was badly shattered, but fortunately no explosion occurred there. Fisher's coal-breaker, one hundred yards west of the Weldy magazine, was also badly damaged, a portion of the engine-house being demolished.

The explosion was heard eleven miles distant, and caused great excitement in the city. The large plate-glass windows of the Pottsville Bank and the Mountain City Bank were broken, as was also many windows in the Court-house. The ceilings in a number of residences were thrown down. The house of James Galbraith, at Mount Hope, is a complete wreck. The loss is estimated at $45,000.

POTTSVILLE, August 18.—The scene of yesterday's explosion was visited by several thousands persons to-day, many coming from the neighboring towns. Among the wounded that it is thought cannot recover are: Mrs. Stealey, an elderly lady, whose skull was fractured, and Richard Stevens, sixty years of age, who had his leg severely cut and refused to have it amputated.—The Coroner's jury find no persons responsible for the explosion, and believe that it was caused by lightning.

For Severe Coughs and Hoarseness.

Philadelphia, Jan. 1878. Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Sons: Gentlemen—Miss S. Burns, of 17th and Coates streets, has long been a sufferer from a severe cough and hoarseness, which I considered chronic. She was treated by some of our most eminent physicians, but they were only able to afford her temporary relief. I prescribed Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, the use of four bottles of which entirely cured her, as it is now four months since she took the last of it, during which time she has had no return of the complaint. For the good of suffering humanity, Miss Burns has requested me to lay the case before the public. Yours truly, T. D. MCGKATH, M. D., Druggist and Chemist, S. E. Cor. 7th and Wharton streets. 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Outlawry in Vermont.

"Vigilance committees will become a necessity in Vermont," an Addison county correspondent writes, "if some other means are not devised for getting rid of the tramp nuisance." David Boody, of West Addison, had a fine horse killed recently by pulverized glass given it by a tramp, while a horse belonging to M. Sullivan, of West Panton, was shockingly stabbed and cut the other night, and B. F. Gaides, of the same town, has lost two animals, revengeful tramps being probably the guilty parties.

Nice Question of Law.

A nice question of law has been raised by the simultaneous drowning of Mr. Sutton and his wife at Battle Creek, Michigan. He had an insurance on his life in favor of his wife. As she died at the same time that he did, and as they had no children, the point has been raised as to whose relatives—his or hers—the money goes. It is argued that in cases of this kind, woman being the weaker of the two sexes, would expire first, consequently the money would revert to his relatives.

Suicide of a Bank Cashier.

CLEVELAND, August 19.—A dispatch from Canton, Ohio, says Charles E. Hane, Cashier of the Exchange Bank of that city, was found this morning in an ante-room in the third story of the Trump block, in a dying condition, having taken poison. The financial condition of the bank is not at present known, the dead Cashier being the only one in possession of the combination of the safe, which is not yet open.

CINCINNATI, August 20.—Tom Boyd, confined in the Ripley county, Indiana, jail, on a charge of attempting to commit a rape on a young lady of Moore's Hill, was killed last night by a band of eighty vigilantes, who broke into the jail and fired seventeen balls into his body.

LIGGETT'S IMPROVED TRIPLE GEARED IRON HORSE POWER

for threshing, the best and cheapest power in the country. Few persons can have had greater experience or closer practical acquaintance with HORSE POWERS than I have had. I commenced their manufacture nearly thirty years ago, and have given this branch of my business the closest attention ever since; and, without boasting, I assert that this Power is strong enough to run the largest Separators or Machines that are in use. It has ninety-one revolutions of shaft to one of team, and WILL BE SOLD LOWER than any other built in or out of the country.

Also, for sale, PLOWS, CORN-SHELLERS, HOLLOW-WARE, OVEN-DOORS, SCOOPS, and a general assortment of CASTINGS.

For sale, a good two-horse TREAD POWER and MACHINE in good running order, mounted on wheels, at a bargain. Also, three kinds of Jacks for different Powers.

I am Agent, and can furnish Separators for any Machine. SAMUEL LIGGETT, Jekesburg, Perry Co., Pa. April 23, 1878.
