A Very Strange Case.

A very remarkable case occurred last week which comes under the "Strange if True" order, and as the New York "Tribune," of Monday, gives the most minute particulars thereof, there seems to be no reason to doubt the account. William Gregory, 18 years old, living at No. 2 Dover street, was standing at Water street Peck Slip, Thursday afternoon, with some companions, when a deaf and dumb man passed by. Gregory began to make fun of the afflicted man, when suddenly he felt a shock and afterwards discovered that he had lost the senses of speech and hearing. He hurried home and informed his parents of these circumstances in writing. They took their son to the Chambers Street Hospital, where the surgeon in charge examined him, but could make nothing of the case. He endeavored to frighten him by means of a shock, but failed most signally.

Young Gregory when at the hospital wrote on a piece of paper that his affliction was due to the "will of God." His parents Sunday had him at church, when prayer was offered on his behalf. The house surgeon at the hospital says that it is one of the most singular cases that ever came under his observation.

Singular Facts About Yellow Fever.

A New Orleans dispatch says: Another singular fact is that the first death from yellow fever occurred on the 21st of July, on a street well paved and in the neighborhood of the wealthy - a fact the more wonderful when it is remembered that New Orleans has very few paved streets, and, further, by far the largest number of deaths are on the streets well paved and near the Mississippi river, while out in the rear portion, where the draining canals are reeking with filth, where dead dogs and cats are floating around, with a green scum nearly two inches thick, with the hot sun pouring down upon them at a temperature of about ninety degrees Fahrenheit, there has not been a single death from yellow fever. Again, in the Third district of this city, where there were over five hundred deaths from the yellow fever in 1878, not a death has occurred so far, and the same may be said of the Fifth district, situated on the opposite side of the river, surrounded by swamps and very filthy.

Restored to Complete Health.

Brooklyn, Me., Sept. 7, 1870. Dear Sir :- From early youth I was in feeble health, troubled with humor in the blood, weakness and debility of the system generally; was unable to labor much, and only at some light business, and then only with great caution.

Seven years ago, the past Spring, I had a severe attack of Diphtheria, which left my limbs paralized and useless, so I was unable to walk or even sit up. Noticing the advertisement of Peruvian Syrup, I concluded to give it a trial, and to my great joy soon found my health improving. I continued the use of the Syrup until three bottles had been used, and was restored to complete health, and have remained so to this day. I attribute my present health entirely to the use of Peruvian Syrup, and hold it in high estimation. I cannot speak too highly in its praise. I have several times recommended it in cases very similar to my own with the same good results.

Yours truly,

CHARLES E. PEARCY. Sold by dealers generally.

Cured of Drinking.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thrist for Liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady, and he has remained a steady and sober man for more than two years and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it." From a leading R. R Official, Chicago, Illinois.

135 "Jug breaking" is an amusement in some country towns in Ohio. People meet, generally at a chuch, bringing with them all the jugs which have accumulated in their households. A small admission fee is charged. While one of the number breaks the jugs with the hammer, the rest sing songs, the "Little Brown Jug" being an especial favorite. Some of the more charitable people put in the jugs various articles, and the contents of the jugs and the money taken at the door are turned over to one or other of the churches.

LET Daniel Maybugh was arrested on Saturday, on the Perrysville road, Allegheny county, for a murder committed in 1867. He had but lately been discharged from the West Virginia penitentiary, after serving a term for another crime, since which time he has been passing under an assumed name.

American cheese is a great article of export. Only a few years ago its exportation was begun, and now we are sending more than a hundred million pounds a year abroad.
