PUBLIC SALES .- Bills for the sale of Real and Personal Property have been printed at this office, as follows :

- Saturday, October 5th. G. W. Swartz will sell at his residence in Saville twp., 11/4 miles north of Elliottsburg, 1 mare, 1 bug-gy, 3 wagons, plows, 1 sleigh, 1 sled, harrows, &c.
- Saturday, October 5th. Robert Morrow will sell a farm in Tyrone twp., and town prop-erty in the borough of Landisburg.
- Friday, October 18th-C. and E. Ensminger, administrators of Jos. Ensminger, dec'd., will sell a farm in Carroll twp., containing 70 acres with improvements
- Monday, November 4th, 1878-Frank D. Yost, Ionday, November 4th, 1873—Frank D. Yost, Administrator of the estate of Geo. Yost, late of Spring twp., dec'd., will sell a Tract of Land with improvements, and a lot of Personal Property. Also, all kinds of grain by the bushel.

Brief Items.

The schools of Spring township will commence the 14th of October. See change of rates of St. Elmo hotel in another column. A fluid almost similar to coal oil has been discovered on a farm in Spring township.

/ In a few weeks the Excelsior Literary Society of Little Germany will be re-moved to Elliottsburg.

Schools in this borough began on Monday of this week, for a six months' term.

An argument court was held on Friday, but nothing of any public interest was transacted.

Wild turkeys are not legal game until the 15th inst., but some persons have apparently forgotten that.

See on 8th page of this paper notice of D. Lothrop & Co's., interesting publications. The Susquehanna river is lower than it has been in many years, and at vari-ous places men are engaged in getting out building stone from the river bed. Mrs. Gotwalt of this place has a second crop of strawberries nearly ripe, and many others in various stages of seems to be a fashion with some one in that locality to vent their spite in some such petty way, as several similar inci-dents have happened.

J. M. Peddicord of Harrisburg, will address the citizens of New Bloomfield, in the M. E. Church this Monday, (Sept. 30th) at 7 o'clock P. M. A general at-tendance is requested. J. M. Peddicord will also address the citizens of Greenpark, in the school house at 7 o'clock P. M. on Tuesday Oct. 1st.

Oct. 1st.

Oct. 1st. Recently Mr. M. Darlington butchers ed a hog, and the next morning the meat and two crocks of other eatables were stolen. Mr. D. wishes the persons to return the crocks and have them filled again. He thinks one good turn deserves another. The thieves also visited the spring house belonging to Mr. David Tressler the same evening and stole some articles. On Tuesday night about twelve o'clock the rascals again visited Mr. Darling-ton's and were heard and shot at, but in the darkness it is not known whether

List of Unclaimed Letters remaining in in the Post-Office at New Bloomfield, Perry Co., Pa., October 1st, 1878: Miss Lisey Black, Peter S. Duncan, Davit Darleit, Edward Ellis, Miss Lizzie McCredie. Persons calling for the above letters please say they are advertised.

S. ROATH, P. M.

Presbytery of Carlisle. - This body covering the counties of Dauphin, Perry, Cumberland, Adams, Franklin and Fulton and numbering over fifty ministers meets in Presbyterian church of New Bloomfield, Tuesday October 1st, at 7 P. M. Preaching on Tuesday evening. Session to continue through Wednesday with preaching some time on that day. Citizens of town and vicinity are invited to be present.

Cheap Telegraph Rates .- An arrangement has been made with the W. U. Telegraph Company, so that messages to any place in United States will hereafter go from Bloomfield at the same price as though sent from Newport. While this will relieve the citizens of the upper end from the double rate heretofore charged the arrangement made in such that it is thought the receipts of the Newport and Bloomfield line will not be any less, and probably will be increased.

The Congressional Conference. - The Congressional Conference at Newport adjourned on Friday evening, after taking 348 ballots, to meet again on Thursday of this week. The friends of the two candidates, Stenger and Magee showed much feeling in the matter. Mr. Magee has the best wishes of the majority of the citizens in this place who seem to desire that the honor of a nomination should fall upon him. Across one of the streets at Newport is suspended a flag having on it: "We endorse Stenger's Course in Congress." "Democracy in its Purity." "No rag baby for us," " No ninety cents' worth of Silver for one dollar's worth of our manufactured goods or produce." The ballot when the conference adjourned was Magee 9, Stenger 9.

Bunaway Accident .- On last Saturday a large delegation left town, headed by the Bloomfield Band, to attend a Republican Mass meeting to be held at Duncannon. When about 6 miles from home, the horse attached to the buggy in which Messrs. A. B. Clouser and J. W. Gantt were riding became unmanageable and run away throwing the occupants out. At first it was thought Mr. Gantt was seriously injured, he having alighted on his head and shoulder, but he fortunately escaped with only pretty severe bruises. This horse in his fright ran against the buggy just in front of him which was tipped up and Messrs. Rouse and Neilson unloaded very unceremoniously ; he also struck two other spring wagons which were in the procession, disabling the one so that it was obliged to be left by the roadside. Fortunately no serious damage was done. Cause, horse scared at a goat. Encounter with a Tramp .-- On Monday evening the 16th inst., all the family of W. H. Dougherty, of Lack township, were absent from home, except a little girl, who was left in charge of the house. The girl had occasion to go up stairs, and on opening a room door, with the intention of entering, she saw a man in the room standing at the window, which was open. Immediately on seeing the man she ran down stairs and out of the house to a corn field, where her eldest brother (13 years of age) was engaged in cutting corn, and told him that "there was an old tramp in the house." The boy accompanied his sister to the house and went into a lower room through a window, where he got a pistol. Being armed with the pistol and three large stones, which he picked up on his way to the house, he went up stairs and began his search for the tramp. On entering the room that the tramp was in, a very large, rough looking man jumped out in the middle of the floor. The boy stepped back and threw a stone at the man, which struck him on the leg above the knee. The man then seized a large ball of carpet rags lying near by and struck the boy on the breast, knock-ing him down, but he regained his feet quickly and threw another stone, striking the man on the back. The man then picked up a block and struck the boy on the side of the head, knocking him down a second time. The man then made for him, when the boy drew his pistol to shoot the man, who gave a whoop, sprang out of the window and escaped .- Democrat and Register.

Juniata County .- We copy the follow ing from the Juniata county papers of last week.

Mr. James M. Beale, at Bealetown, has lost twelve hogs by cholera within a short time past.

A young heifer belonging to a Mr. Auker, of Fermanagh township, was found dead along the berm bank, between town and the Park, on Satur-day. The heifer had strayed away from Mr. A's residence a couple of days previous.

A horse disease has broken out in Walker township. The disease seems to be located in the head of the animal; no external swelling takes place; the eyes discharge large quantities of foul matter, and corruption that has an matter, and corruption that has an offensive smell about it runs from the nostrils in large quantities. The ani-mal that gets the disease gets better or dies within ten days. A valuable horse owned by David Seider, residing in Walker township, died of the disease a few days ago, and two others are alling.

Walker township, died of the disease a few days ago, and two others are alling. On Friday morning last, Wm. Kena-well, son of John Kenawell, started out hunting, taking with him his dog, telling the family he would be home the same evening. He did not return home, and, on Sunday morning, his folks, becoming alarmed at his absence, made inquiry about him, but, no person having seen him learned nothing of his whereabout, when search for him was found. On Sunday evening the search was renewed, and when the party was in the neighborhood of Dry Gap they heard a dog barking. Thinking it might be the missing man's dog, they went in the direction from whence the sound came, which led them to Dry Gap. When they arrived at the Gap they found the dead body of the miss-ing man with a large hole in his head. He was lying on his right side, his face on his hat, his head down the moun-tain, and his brains were scattered around on the ground. His gun was discharged. It was first thought that he had been fouly dealt with, but after-wards it was conjectured that he had been standing on a stone and in stepping off placed his gun in front of him there-by striking the hammer on the stone, off placed his gun in front of him thereby striking the hammer on the stone, which discharged the gun, and he received the contents in his head. His little dog stayed with him, and through his barking the body was discovered. 'Squire Dunn empaneled a jury to hold an inquest over the body, but they have not returned a verdict yet.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

The son of John Green, of Frankford town, who while squirrel hunting, was accidentally shot in the heel by a com-rade, as it has since been learned, died from the effects of the wound on Wed-works work nesday of last week.

Sunday morning, about four o'clock, some persons affected an entrance into the cellar of Widow Hoffer, on the north-east corner of Main and West streets, and carried off several pounds of butter and all her preserves. Mrs. Hoffer heard the thieves, but being alone was afraid to disturb them.

On Saturday evening grocer Klink, with his assistants, essaying to lower a barrel of molasses into the cellar, as Cured of Drinking.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thrist for Liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady, and he has remained a steady and sober man for more than two years and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it." Hunting for squirrels this year is indulged in to a very great extent, but finding them is not so often done.-They seem to be scarce, so the hunters say.

A little grand son of Mr. John Bair, of east Newport had a fall from a tree on Wednesday last, that caused such severe injuries that fears of his recovery are entertained.

The new piece of pavement and the bridges to the cross-walk above the Presbyterian church are a great improve-ment, and do great credit to the Sunday School, which bears the expense of the work.

Mr. John Rice, of Little Germany, is the most successful fisherman in this section, as he and his son, caught about half a bushel of fish in Sherman's creek in less than half a day. Good for John.

Off the commissioners would either have the rope to the court house bell taken off so it could not be rung, or else have persons of good judgment to ring, it there would be less trouble with the striking of the dock the striking of the clock.

The Republican Mass Meeting at Dun-cannon was very largely attended.— Speeches were made by Gov. Hartranft, Hon. Horatio G. Fisher, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, Attorney Gen. Lear, and several other prominent persons.

There will be on exhibition at the Cumberland Co. Fair a lot of celebrated CORTLAND PLATFORM SPRING WAGONS which at the close of the Fair will be sold very cheap. They are the neatest, most stylish,and desirable wagon made.

The family of John Meyers, of Cen-tre township, is sadly afflicted. They have, within two weeks buried two children, have another very low, Mr. M. has a felon on one hand and a cartarrh in the other, and now Mrs. Hostetter, his wife's mother, has fallen and broken her lee her leg.

Oon Saturday night a week Mr. Jos. Miller left his plow in the field. On Monday all the loose parts were missing but subsequently they were found hid in various places in the fence corners. It had been done innumerable times before; but, alas! the rope slipped and the barrel went down faster than was desired, one head being staved in and about half the contents of the barrel lost.

The Carlisle Volunteer says: A horse belonging to Wm. E. Miller, hardware merchant, broke out of his stable early on Saturday morning, and in straying through the yard stumbled into a six-teen-foot hole. The animal was rescued from his perilous position by packing hay around it, when it was speedily raised up and restored to terre firma. It required about two tons to elevate him. The horse was uninjured.

While a steer was being driven into Gettysburg a few days ago for slaughter, by James Hake and his son Henry, the animal became unmanageable and turned on young Hake who being be-tween the steer and the fence and findtween the steer and the tence and ind-ing himself in danger, picked up a stone and hurled it at the steer. It struck the animal square in the forehead between the eyes and with sufficient force to kill it. Mr. Hake then cut its throat with a pen knife.—Newville Star.
