

D. LOTHROP & CO'S PUBLICATION.

The autumn and holiday list of D. Lothrop & Co. is peculiarly valuable and attractive, not only for the character of the publications it represents, but for the variety of subjects it covers, and for the elegant and substantial style in which the books it includes are brought out.

In the line of books for young people the list of this firm is especially rich. No other American house furnishes a catalogue more attractive, or draws a sharper line between what is good and what is bad in literature.

The popular belief that anything was good enough for children to read has undergone a very decided change during the past few years. Thirty years ago the books which make up our Sunday-school libraries were dull beyond belief.

book of songs for the household and school-room. Sidney Martin's Christmas, a splendidly illustrated volume of 600 pages, specially prepared by "Pansy," is another holiday publication.

LIES! BIG LIES!

Not so fast my friend; for if you would see the strong, healthy, blooming men, women and children that have been raised from beds of sickness, suffering and almost death, by the use of Hop Bitters, you would say, "Truth, glorious truth." See "Truths," in another column.

Doctor, It Feels Like a Ball of Fire!

So speaks oftentimes the sufferer from Dyspepsia. After eating, it seems as if there was a veritable ball of fire running up and down through his stomach. If he eats much he feels it; if he don't eat much he feels it. It destroys his enjoyment of life.

A "tame" bear at Rome, Michigan, seized a little girl on Saturday last and injured her so severely that she can scarcely recover. She was rescued by a woman, who drove the bear off with a large stone.

A Miss Tobin, of Rochester, Ill., had occasion to go into her bedroom to read an article for her mother, and, as she did so, heard the rattling noise of a snake and was alarmed to see it pass from the room adjoining her bedroom. A search revealed the reptile, a large rattlesnake hid behind a trunk close by the young lady's bed.
