The Mechansicsburg Ledger has suspended publication and announces the office for sale.

A special term of Court is in session at Carlisle that has now reached the third week.

The Cuba Mill of Juniata Co. was stopped a day or two ago by eels. When it stopped the turbine wheel was examined and forty eels were taken out.

Hunters report game as being searce this season, C. T. Clegg and Harry Sheaffer, members of the B. F. Co., suc-ceeded in shooting several wild turkeys, last week.

Democratic meeting Monday night. Republican meeting Tuesday night, and court all the week, will have a tendency to make things lively in Bloomfield this

The storm of Tuesday night and Wednesday morning though very severe did but little damage in this vicinity. The rain fall was very heavy and was badly needed.

The Carlisle Mirror contains nearly six columns of sheriff's sales, more than four of which are devoted to the property of P. A. and D. V. Ahi. There are 130 tracts in all, of which 100 have been seized as the property of the Ahls. The sales are set for Friday, November 8.

We notice the Juniata county farmers are dealing in thorough-bred cattle. Mr. Luke Davis, of Thompsontown has purchased "Woodbine Duke," eleven months old, weighing 945 pounds.— The animal gained 270 pounds in three "MAREL'S" communication as far as the news part of it goes is rather too late, we having published the same mater. The balance is of a class styled personal" which might get us a libel suit which is even warmer than the suits she refers to. However we hope to hear from her again.

O Left Without Ceremony .- Mr. P. A. Boll, of Newville visited this place on Thursday last, driving his own horse and vehicle. On Friday morning the wagon and harness and Mr. Boll were ready to start for home, but the horse was already gone, he having got out of the stable during the night. The owner at once started out in search and traced the animal for about 12 miles when he learned that some person had caught the horse and was bringing him back to Bloomfield, but up to this time no horse has put in an appearance.

Sneak Thieving .- We hope they will move to some other part of the country some of these days. We mean the sneak thieves who occasionally rob the closet in our ice house. Fact is we are getting tired of it as it has been done so often that it is becoming monotonous. On Saturday night last a large cake, a lot of bread and other eatables were again stolen. The towel in which the cake was wrapped was found a short distance away, showing the direction which the scamp took.

The Tramps below mentioned passed through this place a week or two since? On Thursday last, officers Kell and Vanderau arrested a man and woman, tramps, charged with entering the resldence of Mr. Wm. Huber in Hamilton township and stealing a lot of provisions. They were discovered on the road, and had in their possession three hand wagons, a number of dogs and two foxes. When charged with the crime, the man showed fight, and produced a revolver, a like weapon however in the hands of officer Vanderau, brought him to terms, when the party, with their property, were escorted to jail to await trial. Amongst their effects was a box containing nearly two hundred dollars, which will be taken care of. - Repository, Chambersburg, Pa.

Fatal Accident.-On Monday afternoon last week, a four horse team, driven by Mr. Jeremiah Handshue, in Harrisburg, near Pa. R. R., crossing, Second Street, below Vine, became frightened at a locomotive, and ran away. Mr. H., who was on the saddle horse, sprang off, and told a colored boy who was on the off-wheel horse to do the same. The boy remained on the horse until the team made a short turn on the railroad track, when he was thrown off against a fence, and one wheel of the wagon passing over his neck and arm, killed him instantly. The locomotive caught the team between the leaders and wheelhorses, wrecking the wagon, and injuring one of the horses so that it had to be killed. The other horses escaped with a few cuts and bruises.

Andrew S. Roush ond Mary Trotter, to W. J. Moose for $685. The balance of the properties were not sold.

Vicious Horse.—The other day David Stutzman, of Oliver township, went into the stall in which his horse was standing, and without provocation whatever the animal reared on its hind feet and came down with all force on Mr. Stutzman, who, fortunately escaped injury, owing to the protection afforded by the manger. The beast is otherwise manageable, but after standing for a few days becomes like other horses similarly situated.-Newport News.

The Middle Penitentiary. - The middle district penitentiary conference met in Philadelphia on the 22nd inst. The Philadelphia Record says: "There is a strong probability that many ballots will be required to settle upon a site .-Its learned that the commission is split in this matter. Three of the members favor Huntingdon, and vow they will vote for that place all the time; two are loud for Williamsport and do not see how any one could vote for any other place. The other two are for Tyrone .-That is the way the members stood when the last ballot was taken, and no change has been indicated as yet."

LATER - Huntingdon is the point selected by the commission of the erection of the new Penitentiary.

Another Victim .- Mr. H. J. Stelger, a citizen of Lancaster, a few days ago, identified Kelley, the swindler of Antoch Shanafeld, as the man who swindled him (Steiger) out of $560, on last Tuesday, at Columbus, Ohio, by giving him a bogus $1,000 bond or certificate, with coupon attached, on one of the Colorado gold and silver mines. Steiger, who had saved the money he "loaned" Kelly, was on his way to Cincinnati to purchase carriages. The same confidence game that Kelly played on the innocent German was practiced on Steiger by the aid of a confederate. Steiger identified the purse found on Kelley with the brass "spiel" in it, in imitation of gold coin, and says that the display of gold by Kelly, threw him off his guard .--Kelly who is now in prison under a charge of false pretense, pretends illness, but was quite ready to get up and dress on Sunday evening when the attendants at the hospital promised to take a walk with him for the benefit of his health. The sight of Officers Anderson and Roat, who were waiting for him in the office, however, soon brought a change over his spirits, but he was taken to the county prison without much effort.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Camberland county papers of last week :

Isaac Quigley, of Shippensburg had a horse which was stolen or strayed from the premises of his brother David, at the bridge, a few days ago.

During high winds on last Friday, the front gable windows of the M. E. Church, of Mt. Holly, was blown out, carrying with it the entire framework; and the brick wall, it is believed, was displaced at the comb of the roof.- Echo.

Two men, named Charles T. Speelray and John Loch, were arrested in this place on Friday, on suspicion of having stolen two horses, which they had in their possession. It was afterwards ascertained that the horses had been stolen in Adams county, when the two offenders were committed to prison by Justice Shyrock. by Justice Shryock.

Charlie B., aged 14, oldest son of Mr. J. J. Strine, manager of the Bentz House, wishing to imitate Capt. Bogardus, procured a number of glass balls, and taking one of the colored servants of the hotel with him, went to the edge of town to try his skill. After breaking two or three balls, the colored boy wished to try his skill, and in loading the gun he neglected to push the wad tight on the powder. The consequence was the gun bursted, breaking the stock in five or six pieces, and twisting and tearing the barrels. The only damage done was a cut in the thumb, and a badly frightened colored boy.

Whilst Conductor Miller was coming through with his train from Martinswhilst Conductor Miller was coming through with his train from Martinsburg on Saturday evening a week, he was handed a photographic likeness of a colored man who had shot and killed a watchman of the Baltimore and Ohio coal yards, at Martinsburg. On the card it was stated that a reward of five hundred dollars would be paid for the capture of said murderer. As he was viewing the card who should he see before him but the identical colored man, but as the train was past Greencastle and the colored man was to get off at Marion he was at a loss to know what to do. As the train approached Marion, however, the fugitive expressed a desire to go to Chambersburg, if he could be let off at the outer edge of town. This the conductor agreed to do. As the train approached the latter place Mr. Miller entertained the man until the train arrived at the depot, and then handed the card to a citizen telling him of the circumstance, even pointing out the colored man as he hurried on street. of the circumstance, even pointing out the colored man as he hurried up street. The citizen regarded the whole thing as a joke and refused to move in the matter, and said colored man was soon missing and is now doubtless seeking retreats and is now doubtless seeking retreats among corn fields and thickets somewhere until he can get beyond the clutches of the law. Later in the evening when the facts became known, detectives started in pursuit but without success as far as heard from. Our friend Miller doubtless threw five hundred dollars over his shoulder by not fastening on the fugitive, but an approving ing on the fugitive, but an annoying vision of a dangling murderer at the end of hemp might have been the price of the enterprise.—Newville Star.

On Friday morning last, at about 2 o'clock, the house once occupied by "Indian Joe" and latterly by Samuel Null, in Doubling Gap, was observed to be on fire by some of the neighbors and before any means could be used for its before any means could be used for its extinguishment the building with a considerable amount of furniture etc., was consumed. Mr. Null had moved from the house on the day previous, to Palmstown, and was unable to move all his goods. "Squire Mofilt and his father were the only ones present at the fire and they report that indications point to the fact that the fire was the work of an incendiary. The front door, which had been securely locked, was found open. Some of the articles lost besides the furniture were a good sixty dollar sewing machine, just paid, two guns, two stoves, hand wagon, 1800 shingles, &c. What the motive of the incendiary was except for plunder, it is hard to divine. The entire loss is equal to about four hundred dollars.

A most singular accident occured at

A most singular accident occured at Madame Kast's boarding house, in this place, on Sabbath morning. Whilst the maid servant of Mrs. McDonald was the maid servant of Mrs. McDonald was engaged at breakfast, with a seat close to the window, the sash suddenly fell in, striking her on the head. The glass broke and the frame work, with its splintered particles enveloped her neck as a yoke, of which she was not relieved until after the flesh was severely lacerated. Dr.Sibbetts was called in, when this singular accident was given such attention that made the victim feel more comfortable.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of

A peculiar cattle disease, that stiffens the hind-quarters of the animal, and finally produces death, has broken out in Spruce Hill twp. Ten to fifteen have died in that community, no one farmer losing more than three, as far as heard from at this time. It is said that when the hide is stripped off an animal that died from the effects of the disease, the

FOR 1879.

THE PRESS.

 THERE BEREME BY A PRESENT."

THE Proprie tors of The Press announce that they have a trengthened their force in every department in order to mee the demanda of business, politics and the general interests of the opening season, adding largely to its editorial eorps and staff of correspondents, and extending the range and ellic isney of its business machinery. As they have done in the past they will steadily continue to do, and they promise for 1870 the same regular progress which has marked the work of 1878. Resting on the solid basis of substantial return they are in position to systematically add to and strengthen in every direction the various departments which go to make up a great Daily Paper, and shall do so.

FIRST IN THE FIELD.

EARLY	MORNING	RDITION.
EARLY	MORNING	EDITION.
EARLY	MORNING

We have successfully achieved the issuing of an Early Morning Edition, which leaves this city in advance of any other Philadelphia and all the New York Morning Dallies, and gives THE PRESS command of Pennsylvania and the entire South. The exclusive control for several hours (sometimes a whole day) of this wide range of territory is an achievement which the savertisers of Philadelphia and the general community have been prompt to recognize and make use of in their own interests. This edition leaves Philadelphia before any New York paper can possibly get nere, and the commanding position attained by THE PRESS through this strategic move in the field of journalism is thus secured to it permanently.

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Now, as in the past, THE PRESS stands in the front of the Republican column. Independent in conduct, but Republican in faith, it represents the whole party, and is the organ or instrument of no faction, section or element in it. It contends to day for honest money and good administration, and will ever defend the right, as, in the future, new issues of party are developed with the historical and political development of the country.
