Mr. Frank Fry of the Newport News, made us a call on Wednesday last. He was in town after the election news. We are always glad to see our editorial

The extra of The Times issued on Wednesday last gave to our readers in the county an early report of the elec-ture returns without delaying the regular issue of our paper.

Many farmers are disappointed. They expected to have an entire failure in the corn crop. It turns out much larger in yield than expected and the quality is very good. We trust they will bear up with christian resignation under the disappointment.

Sames Stayner of Liberty Valley who we stated last week was found in an unconscious condition says that he missed his footing among the rocks, and in the effort to regain it his gun fell from his grasp and was discharged, the load passing along his right temple, as stated before. He heard the report of the gun, and after that knew nothing till he was restored to consciousness. He said the accident took place about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Sudden Death. Nicholas Miller of Oliver township, while on his way home from Newport where he had been to vote, was stricken with paralysis. He was picked up in an unconscious condition, and conveyed to his home, where he died in a couple of hours. He was a man over seventy years of age. -

Information Wanted .- Mrs. Anna Mary Brenneman, wife of Samuel Brenneman, Mechanicsburg, Cumberland Co., having lost her reason, has wandered away from home, and her friends are anxious about her safety. Information will be thankfully received by her husband. Exchanges will please copy.

O A Cowardly Assault. On Tuesday night as Mr. Emanuel Sutch was passing near the residence of Mr. Brownwell in Carrol township, he heard some one coming behind him, and stepped aside to allow the person to pass. Instead of passing, the chap struck him a severe blow saying, "I have meant to kill you long ago." Mr. S. called for help and Mr. Brownwell came out, when the fellow ran away. Sutch being nearly blind of course could not see his assailant but says he knows the voice. The blow knocked him down and broke his collar bone, but did no other damage. The injuries were attended to by Dr. Hall.

Gunning Accident.-On Sunday a week, two young men, of Mifflin Co., without knowing the intentions of each other, went out to shoot turkeys. It seems that both turned in the direction of a clearing that turkeys frequented. Approaching by different directions, the one did not see the other. The one lay down by a fence to await the coming of the game. The other came along the fence and mistook his neighbor for a deer, fired and put a bullet through the right lung of his friend, from the effects of which he will probably die, if he has not done so before this time. The youth who did the shooting was almost frantic with grief over his mistake.

Burglary.-On Inst Wednesday night the stores of Ira Wentzel, John Bowers and Peter Shelbley, at Blain, were burglariously entered. About $12 were taken from Mr. W., $20 or $22 from Mr. Bowers and $1, some candy, and crackers from Mr. S. An umbrella was found in Mr. Wentzel's store, which they thought they identified, and consequently they started on Thursday afternoon on hunt of the parties. At this writing we do not know whether an arrest has been made or not.

A Mail Agent Falls from His Train .-Captain Wilson, a mail agent on the fast line west, while reaching out for the pouch at the mail station near Mifflin, Pa., Monday evening, fell from his car to the ground. The effort to secure the pouch was successful, but the agent lost his balance. The bell-rope communicating with the engine was pulled. It unfortunately happened to be the wrong signal and the engineer paid no attention to it. The train finally stopped when some distance away, and owing to the length of the time that would have been consumed the train did not return. It was reported last night in this city that Wilson was not injured at all, but later intelligence was to the effect that he was suffering pain, indicating that he probably was severely burt. The extent of the injuries were not learned, however. Wilson has three children,-Altoona Tribune.

Court Proceedings. - Court was in session as we went to press last week. The following are the proceeding not previously reported:

E. D. Owen vs. Henry C. Hoffman, S. M. Shuler, and M. Lebkicher was the most important case of the term so far as the amount involved was concerned.— The Plaintiff residing in the Borough of Liverpool, contracted with Hoffman in the summer of 1875 to erect for him a hotel upon a foundation that had already been laid for the sum of $6,400. At the beginning of the year 1876 Owens took possession of the premises, and announced to the public that what was to become a prominent hostelry along the Susquehanna was open to its patronage. The Plaintiff alleged that as the months went by prominent defects in the material and workmanship of the building became painfully visible. The boards of the floor shrunk from each other until in places the tongues were drawn from the grooves, the plastering scaled off or bulged out and cracked, the scaled off or bulged out and cracked, the sash in the windows became so loose that the noise of their rattling required them to be wedged, the doors were sprung and twisted, and, in short, the building was vastly inferior to what the house was to be for which his money was paid. Hoffman with his co-defend-ants who were sureties for him the arti-cle of agreement, claimed that the buildants who were sureties for him the article of agreement, claimed that the building was substantially all that the contract called for, and where there were defects, they were such as Owen himself assumed the responsibility of making.—Some sixty witnesses were examined whose opinions concerning the building were a sliding scale with the extremes at a considerable distance. The case was finished on Monday evening of last week and the jury came in about 8 o'clock P. M., with averdict in favor for Defendant. Barnett, Wallis and Junkin for Plaintiff'; McIntire, Markel and Sponsler for Defendant.

The "Sentinel" says: One of the coziest hotels to be found in the valleys of Pennsylvania, is the one kept by Jno. Newcomer in East Waterford, this county. Jacob Bolinger, a citizen of Tuscarora township, aged about 66 years, was shot the fleshy part of both thighs while hunting in the woods, the ball having entered the left leg, passed through the right, touching the bone and coming out near to the surface of the leg, from which it was removed. Who shot him is not known. is not known.

Recently Jacob Weaver, who farms for John Wagner, husked corn in a field just north-west of town, and left a load lie over night. When he came for it in the morning it had disappeared. "Walked off on its ear," no doubt.
